Dr. S. L. Honey Writes on Trip to England. Visit to the Wonderful Cathedral City of Winchester. Changes Noted in London in Past Fourteen Years.

A couple of weeks ago readers of The Advance enjoyed a racy and interesting letter from Dr. S. L. Honey regarding his trip overseas.

Dear Advance:—It may be true that not very much water passes under the bridge in the short space of seven days...

The Advance is favoured with a further letter from Dr. Honey. The letter follows:—

Dear Advance:—It may be true that not very much water passes under the bridge...

There is room for one more when a lady and little girl get on and come to the vacant seat beside us.

Wykeham (Bishop) who was not only bishop but architect and financier. As a rule I do not enthuse over cathedrals...

Probably a note of the changes we see in fourteen years will be of interest. There are very few horses on the road.

Other changes include new buildings. Literally thousands of new houses are being built.
