

All-Kiwanis Night a Notable Event Here on Monday Night

Inspirational Messages Read from International President, Deputy Lieutenant-Governor, and Others. Programme of Music a Most Attractive One. A. W. Lang's Toast to the Ladies an Outstanding Item. Singing by the Porcupine Quartette Delighted all.

"All-Kiwanis Night" held on Monday evening in the Empire hotel on Monday evening is generally agreed to be one of the most interesting and attractive events of its kind ever held here by the Timmins Kiwanis Club, and that is saying much as there have been a large number of very enjoyable and inspiring meetings. It was "Ladies Night" as well as an evening meeting. Because it was the All-Kiwanis Night, the programme followed by all clubs in Canada and the United States was followed, while there was also special music, special addresses and other special features to add to the interest.

Grace was said by Rev. Bruce Millar, after which the dinner was enjoyed, the menu being a creditable one. Then followed the hearty singing of "God Save the King," and "America," the latter in honour of the thousands of brother Kiwanians who were meeting in similar session at the same time in the United States.

Kiwanian W. R. Rinn read the message from the International President, which was as follows:

Fellowship Hour Message
All-Kiwanis Night—June 26, 1933
(By Carl E. Endicott, President)
This is the annual "Fellowship Hour" observed as a part of the programme of All-Kiwanis Night at club meetings throughout Canada and the United States and at this annual Infited it in 1,900 communities and 100,000 hearts.

Last year we went back to the birthplace of Kiwanis, and our great slogan then was "Forward in Kiwanis." This year looking ahead to a larger unity of purpose, we have a slogan of even greater significance. That slogan is "United in Kiwanis."

We took to heart that slogan of last year and we did go forward in many ways, notwithstanding the handicaps, both real and imaginary. We can and will face a new year with an organization united as never before. And, when we do face the possibilities of a Kiwanis, needed as it was never before united, we will realize, as clubs, as well as individuals, that opportunities are ours for greater service.

United in Kiwanis means a better fellowship among the members. United in Kiwanis means a better understanding and appreciation of the functions of district and international. United in Kiwanis means a more complete adoption of our great programme of activities. United in Kiwanis will show us greater opportunities of helping the under-privileged of the world. United in Kiwanis will develop in us a more intense desire for a more intelligent and aggressive citizenship. United in Kiwanis will create the desire for better understanding and fellowship between all citizens, rural and urban. United in Kiwanis will enthuse us with a desire to promote our vocational guidance programme and the various phases of our work with boys and girls. United in Kiwanis will give us a greater chance of using a proper use of the franchise. United in Kiwanis will help us to solve the needs of Kiwanians, locally and internationally, and in every way.

A short time ago I sat in a great auditorium and heard a wonderful choir. I shall never forget the thrill of that occasion—delightful setting—wonderful music—excellent voices—perfect execution. As a climax this great choir sang for its closing number that old familiar negro spiritual, "I Want to be a Christian in My Heart." I had heard that old song many times, but some way or other the sentiment of it gripped me as no other song had ever done. I want to be a Christian in my heart—not just a lip Christian—not just a head Christian—but a Christian in my heart. And then I looked ahead to this convention and to this fellowship hour, and I applied the sentiment of that song to Kiwanis. "I want to be a Kiwanian in my heart"—not just a wearer of the badge—not just an eating member—not just a social hanger-on—but a Kiwanian in my heart!

With every Kiwanian determined to be a Kiwanian in his heart we can have a Kiwanis united beyond our dreams and hopes—Kiwanis which has a place in religion, but does not attempt to take the place of religion—a Kiwanis which flowers exquisitely in the garden of home and family, but does not try to usurp those gardens—a Kiwanis which seeks to build in business, but not to possess or enter into competition with it—a Kiwanis which is not a lodge, a golf club, a luncheon club, or a political group, and does not seek displacement of any of them—a Kiwanis which is many things, whose function is not to displace beauty, but rather to be a lovely complement to the fairest moments of dawn, high-noon, twilight, and starlight night, of our everyday.

Chorus and Community Singing

After the International President's address there was the inspiring chorus, "Onward in Kiwanis," followed by a brief but happy address by Vice-President V. Woodbury. Kiwanian George Lake read the following telegram from President Reg. Smith—"S.S. Ascona, Father Point, Que., Greetings, fellow Kiwanians. My thoughts are with you to-night. Reg." Vice-President Woodbury also read an interesting letter from Lieut.-Governor G. S. Dodgton, expressing his appreciation for the kindness shown him on his recent visit to Timmins.

Then came happy and hearty community singing led by Rev. Bruce Millar.

Then came the "Kiwanis Creed," read by J. R. Walker:

The Inter-Club Relations Creed

We believe that to-day all men are members of the great Brotherhood of Man, that the things which divide them may be minimized and annulled, and the things that unite them strengthened and confirmed by abundant fellowship relations—man with man and group with group.

We believe that tolerance, generosity and understanding flourish and live, and that fanaticism, hatred and persecution wither and die when Kiwanis men, representing the various races, creeds and thought, intermingling—Kiwanian with Kiwanian and club with club.

We believe that the potential resources of cordiality and hospitality may be developed and the power of sectional jealousies and animosities removed by increased Kiwanis club association and communication—group with group and district with district.

We believe that broad national patriotism and respect for government is stimulated and anarchism and lawless disorder deprecated in these neighbourly visitations and in international conventions where the exchange of thought is based upon widely varied experiences and tempered by the altruistic objectives and by the lofty idealism of Kiwanis.

We believe that the great spiritual values of life as emphasized in the friendly intercourse of these inter-club relations direct our attention to the need of allegiance to and reverence and devotion for the God of the universe under whose protecting wings Kiwanis International and these great nations have prospered.

Arranged and suggested by the International Committee on Inter-Club Relations, 1923-1924.

Porcupine Quartette Made a Hit.

One of the special musical features of the evening was the singing of the Porcupine Quartette—Messrs. Jago, Harris, Richards and Thompson. This quartette delighted the gathering by the fine voices, the harmony and the talent of the presentation of the various numbers. The quartette appeared twice on the programme, but that was not enough to satisfy the meeting and the singers were very enthusiastically encored on each appearance. The numbers presented by the Porcupine Quartette included both grave and gay, classic and modern, and each and every number was given in perfect way. The selections included:—"O, Peaceful Night!" "Owl and the Pussy Cat," "Softly Falls the Shades of Evening!" "An Evening Pastoral."

Kiwanian C. G. Keddie gave a message from the Lieutenant-Governor of the Northern Division, G. S. Dodgton as follows:

Message from the Lieutenant-Governor

The only thought that I can pass on without any preparation at the moment is:—If all the service that is being ing rendered by Edwards Clubs for North America to underprivileged children and crippled children could be placed on end, it would represent a pillar of service that would stretch to the very vault of heaven. As this great pillar of service pierced the heavens thousand years ago would vibrate unto:—"Inasmuch as ye have done unto one of the least of these My children, ye have done it unto Me."

As you gather together with your ladies many thousands of Kiwanians throughout Canada and the United States will be with you, attuning their thoughts and minds to the human and spiritual values of life. Surely our country and the great nation to the south cannot help but be better countries in which to live as a result of Kiwanis.

Solo Songs

A solo by Rev. Bruce Millar was much appreciated and this was followed by the second appearance of the quartette, and then by more pleasing community singing.

To the Ladies

The toast to the ladies by Kiwanian A. W. Lang was another outstanding feature of the meeting. Mr. Lang's wit and humour were particularly well directed and scored about a hundred bulls-eyes in a few minutes. The speaker took the conceit out of the smug fellows who plume themselves on the beautiful and capable wives they have chosen. He told them who really did the choosing—"and at that," he added, "most of you fellows are only the fourth or fifth choice." He had a whole host of similar compliments for the ladies and left-handed compliments for the men, all given in his own inimitable way.

The response to the toast to the ladies was made in effective way by Mrs. W. R. Rinn.

The pleasant evening concluded with the singing of "O Canada."

During the evening brief reference was made to the fact that the Toronto Kiwanis Club intends to visit here on October 5th. There will be 80 to 100 in the party and they will come to the North by private train.
