Charles Paulus Grows

Some Large Vegetables Chas. Paulus, of Mountjoy, noted a reference in The Advance last week to a monster turnip grown at Haileybury. Mr. Paulus brought in to The Advance one big Swede turnip grown by him this year and said that this was a small one compared to some he had had. This turnip weighed 8 lbs. 10 ozs., so if it is only a small one, the big ones must have been monsters. During the Ontario Farm Products Week Mr. Paulus sold one local store a 15-lb. cabbage for display in one of the prize windows. This 15-lb. cabbage was a feature of the display at D. Laprairie's store during the Ontario Farm Products Week. Mr. Paulus says that on account the higher altitude here Haileybury and Liskeard have a little advantage over Timmins in the way of early frosts, but when it comes to big vegetables were tokens from the following:-Mr. and good vegetables the Timmins dis- and Mrs. Grenier, John and Dora; Gold trict more than holds its own. Rank of Inspector for Sergt. Gardner

Sergt. of Provincial Police at Cochrane Being Transferred to Belleville as Inspector. Other Changes Likely in This District.

Sergt. Frank Gardner, now stationed at Cochrane and in charge of the provincial police of the district under Inspector Creasy, is being transferred to Belleville where he will be inspector of provincial police for that district centred there. It is understood that Constable Roy Elliott, of Hearst, will be promoted to the rank of sergeant and will take Sergt. Gardner's place at Cochrane. Constable Elliott is an officer of special ability and with a long and notable record of service. Other changes in the provincial police are also reported, but not officially. It is said that Constable Alex Craik may be stationed at Hearst and Constable changes made to fill the places here. No announcement to this effect, however, has been made. It is understood however, that Sergt. Gardner will take up his new duties as inspector at Belle-Death came suddenly on Saturday ville at an early date.

the Ladies' Auxiliary

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., are holding an open social on Monday evening, Nov. 6th, at 8.30 p.m., with songs, dancing, and games galore. "There will be a novelty prize for each and a huge door prize; come all and see what it is," says the announcement. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Legion has won a notable reputation for enjoyable social events. In fact, most people think that the Ladies' Auxiliary could not put on an event that was not up to the highest standards. Accordingly all who enjoy a good time should note the event on Nov. 6th and be there for the prizes and surprises of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King returned this week from a motor trip to St. Catharines and other points south.
