The Advance ten years ago says:-"The preacher at both services at St. Matthew's Church, Timmins, on Sunday last was Rev. Canon Skey, of Toronto. The church was crowded to the doors for the evening service, additional chairs being used to accommodate the special attendance. Rev. Canon Skey proved an eloquent and inspiring preacher and his addresses were lis tened to with the greatest appreciation. At the evening service he explained that the purpose of his visit was to further the cause of the Colonial and Continental Society, the missionary for the communities of the North Land and other sections of the world. "It is a worthy cause indeed," said Canon not the best means to induce you to support it to the limit. The greatest inspiration you can have to this or any other good act or cause is just the love of God in your hearts." So Canon Skey turned to preach on love. He cited the the prophet, a love that forgot all self and was all forgiving. "The trouble with the world to-day," said Canon ourselves." He pointed out that true love made men forget themselves in their thought for others, and when men had this love the world necessarily be-
