Fifty Search Bush to Find Missing Man

Ned Edwards, of Kirkland Lake, Lost in Dense Bush North and East of Matheson.

This week there were over fifty organized searchers trying to find trace of Ned Edwards, prospector, Kirkland Lake, who was reported lost in the heavy bush north and east of Matheson. Mr. Edwards had been missing since Wednesday of last week and safety was felt for his safety. He had been engaged on assessment work on some claims in the Ghost River area, some twenty-five miles north of Matheson and about 20 miles east of the main line of the T. & N. O. He had two partners with him for the assessment work. One partner returned to camp to get their lunch and Mr. Edwards was to wait at a certain spot until his partner's return. When the partner got back to this spot there was no trace of Mr. Edwards and all efforts to locate him were fruitless. The partner gave the alarm that Mr. Edwards had disappeared and immediate search was made. It is thought that Mr. Edwards, who was about 64 years of age, became lost when he wandered from the blazed trail. The bush is very thick in parts of the lost man and the matter of locating a lost man is accordingly very difficult. Provincial Constables W. McCord, of Matheson, and J. Woods, of Cochrane, were in charge of the search parties this week and a very careful search of the woods was carried on. There were over fifty in the search parties, this number including about 20 fire rangers who are expert at the work. Up to the time of writing this no word has been received of success in the search for the missing man.

Timmins Man Charged After Accident July 1st

A. Hensby, driver of the Timmins car that figured in the accident some 18 miles north of North Bay on July 1st, in which Harold Rayner, of North Bay, who was driving the other car, met his death has been taken in charge this week on a charge arising from the accident. He was granted bail and is to be up this afternoon for preliminary hearing in the case.

Seven Places Here with Beer Licenses

Sale of Beer Starts off Quietly, Though Some Objection Voiced About Some of the Places Licensed.

Last week the licenses for beverage rooms to sell beer and wine were received in town and on Friday some of them opened their beverage rooms. Those receiving licenses were:—The Empire hotel, the Welcome hotel, the Algoma hotel, the International hotel, the St. Charles hotel, the Northern hotel, and the Russell hotel. The Algoma hotel did not open its beverage room until yesterday, the wait being due to the fact that the alterations and improvements being made at the hotel were not completed and the proprietor did not intend to open the beverage room until everything was ready and in the best of order.

The opening of the various beverage rooms passed off quietly enough, and the system will no doubt work all right with a change or two. Some of the places are reported as a little noisy and in one or two it is said that there are evidences of drunkenness, but in the main things have been all right. The local police might perhaps have checked up more closely at the commencement had there been authority in their hands to this effect. There seems to have been doubt, however, as to the authorities expected to check up on the beer and wine parlours. Information from Toronto this week, however, seems to make it clear that municipal and provincial police are to co-operate with the special inspectors to see that everything is conducted in the best way around the beverage rooms. E. G. Odette, chairman of the Ontario Liquor Control Board is quoted as saying that a very rigid system of the handling of beer and wine in hotels will be enforced. The board is to send out its own force of inspectors and in addition to utilize both municipal and provincial police forces. The chairman makes it very plain that rowdiness or disturbances will not be tolerated. In the most of cases in Timmins everything has been all right, but there are one or two places about which complaint has been made in regard to noise, etc.

The report from Toronto credits Mr. Odette with saying that regulations must be followed closely and all patrons must be forced to sit down while drinking. The cancellation of licenses will be the penalty if the board's investigations find disturbance due to negligence of the hotel-keeper. There will be only one warning given, says Mr. Odette, and then the license will be taken away.

The Empire, the Welcome and the Algoma hotels are all on Spruce street and within two blocks of each other. The same is true about the St. Charles and the International, both on Cedar street, the one south and the other north of Third avenue. The Northern hotel is at the foot of Third avenue. The Russell hotel is on Wilson avenue not far from the Northern.

There are some others said to have applied for beer and wine licenses, but apparently the applications have not been granted yet.

Brown had the McIntyre big guns in check and allowed them only seven hits. Noranda batters collected three safeties off Chambers and one off "Lefty" O'Donnell. The highlight of the fielding was Tremblay's perfect stab at Thomas' liner in the seventh. The batting honours went to Norm Malloy, who slashed out a three-bagger in the ninth for the only extra-base hit of the game. The play was:—

Matachewan Not First in Mining from Open Pit

Despatches from Matachewan some days ago referred to mining operations at the Young-Davidson Mine, the Hollinger property in the Matachewan area, and it was suggested that this was the first time in the history of Canadian mining that gold ore was handled from the open pit instead of from shafts, drifts, crosscuts and other underground work. Without taking away from any credit that is Matachewan's, it should be noted that there have been several samples of the open pit class of mining in this part of the North, though, perhaps, not on so extended and continued a scale as at Matachewan, though even that qualification may not be justified. Surely, everybody remembers the "Glory Hole" at the Dome, where, as The Advance used to suggest, they were "quarrying for gold." That was mining from an open pit with a vengeance and that goes back quite a few years. There was also somewhat similar work carried on at the Hollinger property in the vicinity of the golf course. The old Croesus Mine in Munro township in the Matheson area, also could say something about mining from surface instead of underground. There are no doubt other lesser samples of the same type of operation. However, the Dome "Glory Hole" and the Hollinger case near the golf course are good enough instances to show that mining from above has been carried on long ago.

Protests Against Retirement of Chief

Organizations and Individuals do Not Favour Change in Fire Dept. Planned by Council Motion Last Week.

Protests have been many and emphatic against the idea of the motion passed at last week's meeting of the town council to retire Chief Borland for seventeen years head of the Timmins fire department. The Timmins board of trade, the Temiskaming Firemen's Association and other bodies, as well as large numbers of individuals are planning to present their views to the council in the matter. The Advance has received letters from ratepayers and others in the matter. The report that the council had planned to rescind the motion at a special meeting this week had held back formal protest in some cases. The objection voiced to asking the resignation of Chief Borland is based on the fact that for seventeen years he has given the town the most effective fire protection service; his work shows no lack of its former efficiency; he stands high in the estimation of the fire underwriters as one of the most capable fire chiefs in Ontario; the fire loss in Timmins is less than in any other similarly situated town in Canada; and Chief Borland's high qualities as a useful citizen entitle him to the fairest treatment. There has been talk of a public meeting of the business men, ratepayers and others to take up this question.

Dome and McIntyre in Foster Cup Tie

First Match in Foster Cup Series Results in Some Good Football and a Tie Score, 4 to 4.

South Porcupine, Ont., Aug. 1st, 1934. Special to The Advance.

Dome and McIntyre met in the first game of the Foster Cup which ended in a tie 4-4 at McIntyre Recreation grounds.

Dome winning the toss for ends, Brown set the ball in motion at 6.20. Some nice football was seen for the first few minutes, neither goalkeeper being seriously tested. Around the 10 mark Dawson of the Macs took a nice pass from Searle to go well into the Dome defence and score a nice goal to put Macs one up. This seemed to add a little pep to the game and the Dome forwards set out full sail for Brockbank who saved nicely from Bill Whyte at the expense of a corner which was cleared.

The next Dome raid brought out the equalizer. There was a nice pass from Joe Whyte to Galbraith to Rob Roy who drove neatly past Brockbank at the end of 17 minutes. Dome were now top dogs and it was no surprise when they scored again, Galbraith driving past Brockbank. Dome were all over the Macs at this stage but Brockbank was playing great ball and kept the eager Dome forwards out. A long clearance from Macs' defence let Jones away on the right and from his cross Crawford accidentally handled the ball in the penalty area. Clulow scoring from the kick—a very lucky goal as McIntyre were not in a scoring position at the time. Half time arrived with the score at 2-2.

The game resumed and Foster nearly beat Brockbank in the first minute. The goalkeeper was very lucky on this one. Then a great transformation came over the game. It was all McIntyre and when they went ahead on a nice goal by Hendry it was just their due. Then the Dome fans got another shock, a great drive from Mair leaving Baxter helpless, to put Macs 3 up. Everybody thought the game was lost and won but the Dome came back with a great burst and hemmed the Macs in their own end and a nice pass from Bill Whyte to McCurdie and Brockbank was beaten again. This seemed to waken up the Dome and they crowded on all sail and Rob Roy drove in the tying goal amid great enthusiasm. With five minutes left to play Bill Whyte again beat Brockbank but it was rightly ruled offside. Foster being a little slow in getting over his cross. The Macs were defending for their lives now and they were very lucky when Whyte drove one at Brockbank who was right on the spot to clear. The whistle sounded to end a very hectic game, and the fans sure got their money's worth both in goals and good football.

The next Foster Cup game will be played at the Dome grounds on Thursday, August 2nd, so come on out and support the "boys."

Kirkland Lake will play the last league game at Dome on Saturday, August 4th, at 6.15 p.m. necessarily be in the same newspaper, but the clerk thought that was what the act implied.

Councillor Bartleman also brought up the matter of the town franchises for light, etc.
