BROUGHT BACK TO KIRKLAND ON JOB-SELLING CHARGE

Jan Nered, who was charged some time ago with obtaining money on false pretences, the charge being based on allegations that Nered had been "selling jobs," was brought back to Kirkland Lake last week to stand trial. When the charge was laid against him some months ago it was found that he had left Kirkland Lake, Chief Shane of Kirkland Lake, got in touch with the Montreal authorities, and Nered was arrested when making arrangements to return to his native land in Jugo-Slavia. After his return to Kirkland Lake he was allowed out on $2,000.00 bail. The amount that it is suggested that he obtained improperly is given as $900.00. One charge against him is based on the section against operating an employment bureau without the necessary license.

New Law Office Opened in Timmins This Week

Announcement was made last week in The Advance of the opening of a new law office in Timmins. Through an error the name of the barrister and notary opening the office was incorrectly given. The name should have been given as G. Armand Cousineau, Mr. Cousineau is a barrister, notary, and an ex-magistrate from Sturgeon Falls. He has opened his office in the new Thiboutot building on Third ave., Timmins.

MORE TROUBLE REPORTED IN SOME ABITIBI CAMPS

Reports from Iroquois Falls say that 350 men have now come out on strike from Abitibi lumber camps. The demands are for increased pay and recognition of the union. A number of the men have continued at work. It is understood that when any material number of men leave a camp the camp will simply be closed. The trouble is blamed on agitators. A provincial government representative has been sent north to investigate.

North Bay Nugget.—It seems silly to worry about this outbreak of talking sickness, when we know another wave of it is inevitable just before Dominion election.

JOHN D. MACKAY, Sheriff, District of Cochrane, Sept. 1st, Oct. 6th and Nov. 3rd. -36-48.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Huckerby and little girl left on Friday last for a two weeks' holiday in the East, where they will visit Perth and other places.

The Polish people in Kirkland Lake raised $87.00 recently for the relief of the people who lost their property in the floods in Poland.

Henry James, M.A., of the publicity department of the Canada Life Assurance Co., was a visitor to Timmins this week. Mr. James is known to many here being formerly on the staff of The Northern Miner.

Mrs. F. Read, 12 Sixth Avenue, who had the ill-fortune some days ago to fall on the lawn at her home and break a bone in her ankle, is making good progress to recovery at her home in town.

The Fish and Game Association of Temiskaming have written the Ontario Fisheries and Game Dept., strongly urging that the services of W. G. Armstrong be retained as game warden. The association holds that Mr. Armstrong has given excellent service and that to allow him to drop from the department would be a serious loss.

A truck recently took a nose dive off the side of Lang street bridge, Cobalt, falling some twelve feet. There were six people in the truck when it took the dive off the bridge but none of them suffered serious injury. The driver of the truck was charged with reckless driving.

Many people were specially interested in the beautiful and unusual gladioli exhibited at Timmins Horticultural Show by A. Proulx. There were so many enquiries about the one species that The Advance published the name—"Piltzer's Triumph." Now comes the request as to where the bulbs may be secured. The answer is: Webb and Sons, King Street, Toronto. Other dealers do not seem to have this species.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Traver and son, Leonard, left to-day for Kingston, Ont., where Leonard will commence his course of studies at Queen's University. Mr. and Mrs. Traver will spend a short holiday in the South before returning home.
