Plans of the Legion for Armistice Day

Members of the Legion to Hold Short Ceremony at 11 a.m. on Sunday, November 11th. Parade and Community Service in the Afternoon.

There was a very good attendance at the monthly meeting of Timmins branch of the Canadian Legion on Monday evening last in the Oddfellows' hall. President Austin Neame and other officers arrayed in the new bright yellow berets occupied the chairs of office. The new headgear made a striking showing and when all members are thus arrayed the meetings will be carried through with a better perception, it is expected.

The financial report for the past six months was read and showed an increase in new members but a falling off of some of the older ones. This will remedy itself when the Porcupine Veterans' hall is operating in full swing. The finances showed a lower standing than formerly, with the relief fund in bad shape of repair. Again Poppy Day is expected to boost this up so all were asked to work for a bigger and better Poppy Day collection.

In all it was an interesting document and was accepted by the members.

Eight new members were initiated with the usual ceremony. All committees reported and big things are on hand for the near future. A discussion took place re the election of officers to correspond to the new financial year, starting from January 1st, 1935. It was felt that as the existing term of the present officers ended in March that they should resign and call for an election. The members thought otherwise and so the present officers and committees will be in power until their yearly term is completed.

The Armistice Day plans caused some very enlightening addresses. President Austin Neame said he felt that we as a branch should not antagonize the local church people by holding the customary parade and service at the designated time. He felt that by placing the Legion wreath and carrying through the two-minute silence with the sounding of the "Last Post" and "Reveille," the Legion would in no way disturb anyone. Other members thought differently, that the ceremony at any other time of the day would be a wedge in the event and in time the day would be washed off the calendar. Comrades Dr. Honey, Borland, Rowe and Parsons spoke upon the suggestion mentioned the Legion obligation to observe the hour and day after some motions and amendments, etc., had been put, the final result was that the Legion members will hold a short ceremony at 11:00 a.m. and the civic parade and service at which it is expected one of the local ministers will officiate to be held at the cenotaph at 3 p.m. The parade of loyal foreign societies, patriotic societies, clubs, lodges, etc., will assemble at the Porcupine Veterans' hall at 2:30 p.m.

Another hot discussion took place regarding the Legion Christmas Trees. It was felt that as there were so many of these events by other clubs, the Legion could utilize the cost to better advantage in providing hampers to needy families. This was not the wish of the members and so the Christmas trees and all the usual fare are to be held as usual.

The president gave all the details of the new clubhouse and an outline of progress being made. The hall will be opened immediately after the Armistice Day civic ceremony and full particulars will be given in next week's issue of 'The Advance'.

In all it was a very good meeting and the discussions interesting to all present. The singing of "God Save the King" closed proceedings for the evening.

HOG CHOLERA CASES IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD RECENTLY

There have been a number of cases of hog cholera in the district recently, a number of the farmers and settlers being heavy losers as a consequence. Fortunately, however, the epidemic appears to be over now, no new cases being reported. Inoculation has been freely used and this no doubt has saved even more serious loss to the settlers and raisers of hogs.

Death of Miss A. Bradley Reported in West Africa

Wide circles of friends and acquaintances in Timmins and district will deeply regret to learn of the death of Miss Annie Bradley in West Africa. Word of the sad death was reported to Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley, of Halleybury, well-known and esteemed residents of the North. The message reached Halleybury on Monday and gave the information that Miss Bradley who was a United Church missionary in Portuguese West Africa, had been instantly killed in an automobile accident about 700 miles up country from the coast. No other particulars were given in the message. Miss Bradley had spent seven years in Angola, West Africa. While on furlough from her work in West Africa Miss Bradley visited the North spending some time at her home in Halleybury and also visiting Timmins and other towns of the North, speaking on missionary topics at the different towns of the North. Her able addresses at Timmins won her many friends and admirers, and the regret at her death will be very sincere and genuine.

Matachewan Shows Much Recent Growth

District Said to be Producing at the Rate of $100,000 per Month. Story of the Discovery and Growth of Matachewan Camp.

By the close of 1934 gold will be flowing from the mines of the Matachewan district at an estimated rate of approximately $100,000 per month, it has been estimated, according to The North Bay Nugget, which continues as follows:— Handling an average of about 120 tons daily, Ashley Gold Mining Corporation is making regular shipments of bullion to the value of more than $20,000 per month.

Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines, Limited, has increased mill operations at their Young-Davidson property until the mill is now running close to its rated capacity. By the end of the year it will be handling 600 tons or ore daily, representing an output of more than $60,000 per month.

Consolidated Matachewan Mines Ltd. has practically completed construction of a 100-ton mill, which will be in production, it is expected by the middle of November. This mill will be responsible for the addition of about $20,000 monthly to shipments from the district. With an estimated 500 men employed at the operating mines and on prospects in the surrounding areas, communities are again flourishing at Elk Lake, and Matachewan. At the latter point the population is estimated to exceed 1,000 persons. An agitation for a post office at Matachewan has been started as a result of this renewed activity in the district.

It is now more than four years since Bert Ashley and William Garvey made a find in Bannockburn township that started anew the interest which had been displayed in the Matachewan gold field.

Ashley and Garvey were prospecting for Horace F. Strong of Halleybury, who in turn had an arrangement with the Mining Corporation of Canada. Their find marked a new lease of life for the gold mining industry in Canada which had been very inactive in the country for more than two years. Speed and despatch marked the whole history of the undertaking, the first shipment of gold being made just two years after the claim was first staked. This was the first shipment of gold to be made from the Matachewan area.

The presence of gold in the district had been known since 1912, but it was not until 1916 that gold was found on the Davidson claims in Powell township, immediately adjoining Bannockburn on the east. Much diamond drilling has been done and some exploration work had been carried out. However, the entire field was inactive until the 1916 discovery.

With gold at $20.67 per ounce, the values found are not profitable on a commercial scale, but with the rise in price of gold the area took on a new lease of life and, today, the Matachewan gold field bids fair to soon assume a prominent place in Canada's mining picture.

The Matachewan area is on the Montreal River, about 22 miles north of Elk Lake, the terminus of a branch line of the T. & N. O. Railway. Highway transportation has been provided which makes the field accessible from the Ferguson highway, and a direct road to Timmins is now under consideration. Ample power is available at low prices from both the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission's plants and the Northern Canada Power Corporation's system.
