LOCALS

Mrs. Fred Curtis left to-day for a visit to the Old Country.

Believe it or not! Some of the men leading ties at Swastika the latter part of October report that the black flies were so bad they could hardly work. This is on the authority of the Dack Siding correspondent of The New Listener Speaker.

Owing to the new building of the Canadian Legion being in preparation for the opening the headquarters for Poppy Day will be the Mines Rescue Station. Taggers can receive their boxes and poppies from there any time after 8:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

The Ever Alert Card Club met at the home of Mrs. J. Shaw, Laurier avenue, last night. 500 was enjoyed till 10:30 after which the hostess served a very dainty lunch. Winners were:—1st, Mrs. Bound; 2nd, Mrs. Price; 3rd, Mrs. Wilkenson.

These are hard times for chiefs of police. Last week Sturgeon Falls council dismissed Chief of Police Wilfrid Leclair, the only reason given being that he was "too lenient." Most chiefs of police are dismissed for being too active and incurring the enmity of law-breakers. One of the Sturgeon Falls constables, John Lafèche, was advanced to the position of chief there.

P. D. Jamieson has received notice of his appointment as Division Court Clerk in place of E. J. Young. The latter says he does not know any reason for his dismissal as he has taken no part in politics and has done his work properly. He is a returned soldier who enlisted in 1914 as a private and returned four years later as a major and with the Military Cross.

Some weeks ago it was stated that Chief of Police Geo. W. Delves, formerly stationed at Timmins on the provincial force, had resigned as chief of police of Cobalt. It is announced now that he has not given up the work, but has received leave of absence for two months. He is understood to be starting a business at Ramore's new golf camp. Percy Millar, former chief of police at New Liskeard, is taking Chief Delves' duties for the two months.

Alf. W. Snow, for fifteen or sixteen years a popular resident of Timmins, left on Tuesday for a trip to his old home in Cornwall, England. Before leaving here he was uncertain as to when he might return or whether he would come back at all. Hosts of friends here however, will hope and expect his early return to Timmins. A gifted singer he was generous with his talent and was prominent in musical circles, as well as in the Cornish Social Club and in other activities.

Mrs. W. DuFeu had the misfortune to fall on Maple street on Tuesday evening, breaking her arm. She was taken to the hospital where she remained for a day or so then being able to return home, and her many friends will be pleased to know that she is making good progress to recovery. Mrs. DuFeu was the second victim of the icy condition of the walks on Tuesday evening. Mrs. DeMille also being quite seriously injured in a fall on street that night.

SOCIAL EVENING NOV. 16TH CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Brockville Recorder:—Of course, there is a difference of opinion even yet as to how far, if any distance, corporal punishment should be used in our schools and while this paper does not believe in the wallow method of teaching at all, it really admits that the difference in the make-up of the pupils renders it necessary to be more firm with those of a peculiar mentality.

BOY OF TEN YEARS OF AGE ATTENDING COLLEGE! YES!

(Huntingdon Gleaner)

At 8 years old, Marvin Ettinger, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Ettinger, Austin, Tex., began his third year of high school. He will be ready to enroll in the University of Texas at 10 years old. The boy already is advanced in mathematics equal to that taught college sophomores, and has covered the equivalent of a four-year college reading course in chemistry. Marvin can read 2,200 words a minute. He is a normal boy in other ways, with a love for all boyhood sports. What a brain trust he ought to make for some president along about 1975.

Hopes Policy Not Changed in Bowmanville School

An editorial in The Bowmanville Statesman says:—

"Just what Hon. David Croll's plan is with regard to the Ontario Training School for Boys is hard to tell from the many reports and statements made on the subject. It will be sincerely hoped that it is not his desire to place all the inmates of the Mimico Industrial School in the B. T. S. at Bowmanville.

"The two schools are for entirely different purposes. The Ontario Training School was founded to give the underprivileged boy, and the boy who had started to go wrong, a chance to get back into the right stride of life under ideal conditions. On the other hand the Mimico School was for boys who are considered incorrigible. They were not first offenders, but boys who seemed to have determined to stray from the narrow path, and for this reason they needed an entirely different type of handling to first offenders. It may be Mr. Croll's theory that there should be no distinction, but he must bear in mind there has always been distinction, with the treatment of crime.

"The service clubs who have done so much for the Training School and through whose efforts and interest it was started do not desire the school to become just an Industrial School. It is a training school, trying out a specialized plan in the treatment of boys, and its magnificent record of success should not be endangered by bringing to mix with the boys here, boys who are considered incorrigible. If the Mimico plant is unsatisfactory perhaps the Government can find other quarters before the work at Bowmanville is ruined by the change."

The other day, the village of Beamsville, in the Niagara Peninsula, voted more than three to one against beer and wine authorities being issued in the municipality, the figures being 119 for and 397 against. An astonishing feature about the vote was that 206 names were on the petition for the repeal of local option, whereas beer and wine sale mustered only 119 votes. What happened to the other 87 voters is the question everyone is asking.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE EIGHTY-SEVEN VOTERS?

HARD TO KEEP THE LIQUOR QUESTION ALL IN THE EYE

(Barrie Examiner)

The liquor problem may be out of politics, but it is still very much in the public eye—Hanover Post. If it were kept in the eye it wouldn't be so bad.

North Bay Nugget:—And now the revised slogan will be: "Drink up, boys, the tax collector needs the money!"

MENTIONED PROMINENTLY IN CABINET SHUFFLE

According to reports from the Canadian Capital, Hon. Dr. Murray McLaren (left), Minister of Pensions and National Health, is expected to resign shortly to become Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, and R. B. Hanson, M.P. (right), for York-Sunbury in New Brunswick, is mentioned to succeed Dr. McLaren although not in the Health portfolio.

JAPAN NOT READY TO MAKE ANY NAVAL AGREEMENT NOW

"Our navy plan is our business!" is the reply credited by despatches to Japan when queried in regard to the proposals for the reduction of naval armaments. Japan rejects any compromise and cannot see where any agreement is possible in the matter.

CROWN PRINCE MICHAEL HAS A DRIVER'S LICENSE

Despatches from London, England, tell this week of Crown Prince Michael being in a runaway tank which opened up machine gun fire and early killed King Carol and some of his generals. "I have a driver's license," was the alibi of the Crown Prince in this accident or near-tragedy.

DEMOCRATS MAKE SWEEP IN UNITED STATES ELECTIONS

According to the returns given out, so far as an ordinary Canadian can understand the matter, President Roosevelt and his New Deal have received sweeping endorsement in the elections this week. It is understood that the president will have a majority in both houses now. Upton Sinclair, socialist running under Democrat endorsement, was defeated in California.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED BAPTIZED IN ALBERT HALL, LONDON

A friend of The Advance this week gave the following clipping from a South Wales newspaper, believing the unusual item would be of interest to readers of the paper. The item is a despatch from London, England, and reads as follows:—

"One of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Royal Albert Hall followed the annual foursquare gospel demonstration there recently, when before an audience of over 5000, nearly 1500 people were baptized by total immersion. The baptisms were conducted in a special iron tank measuring six feet wide, four feet deep and twenty feet long and weight 17-12 hundred-weight. Running water, steam heated to 80 degrees, was supplied to the tank, and the tank itself, placed before the improvised altar, was completely hidden by artificial grass, roses and water lilies. The Albert hall was brilliantly lighted, and the vast congregation, who had waited hours outside in long queues for the doors to open, had joined in singing hymns with fervent abandon. "Great is the privilege!" exclaimed Pastor George Jeffries, Welsh founder of the movement. "You are going to tread where angels dare not walk. You never heard of an angel being baptized." Then the women, dressed in white robes, and the men, in white flannel trousers, prepared to come down to the area for the ceremony."

Chatham News:—A young man in Hamilton was about to be married when the magistrate sentenced him to a year in jail for theft. The magistrate had no objection to him stealing a girl's heart, but a car is different. So instead of getting married, the young man will enjoy another year of liberty while he is in jail.

Simcoe Reformer:—An editorial in a California paper says that after fifteen years in the business a newspaperman becomes reconciled to the following facts: (1) He will always be regarded as some sort of freak; (2) that the favours he does will usually go unnoticed, but his mistakes never; (3) that when he gets in a crowd someone will say jocularly, "Don't talk in front of So-and-so, he'll put it in the paper"; (4) that once a week someone will remark that "newspaper work must be fascinating."

Canada Lumberman:—Volume is the ton of gravel. Profit is the fraction of an ounce of gold left after the ton of gravel has been skilfully panned.
