8. VISION IN SHOOTING

HERE is some valuable advice from shotgun experts, which will be welcomed both by novices and shooters who are anxious to improve their marksmanship. Russell W. Elliott, Manager of Elliott's Shooting Park at Kansas City, Missouri, writes: "There is probably no phase of clay target shooting instruction in which the novice receives so much misinformation as that pertaining to the use of both eyes. The well-meaning expert who shoots with both eyes open is that it permits quicker vision of the target when it comes into view, but contrary to general belief, the left eye does not aid in the actual pointing of the shotgun after the target is seen. With a right-handed shooter, the right eye directs the gun, and it must be as strong or stronger than the left eye to prevent cross vision when shooting with both eyes open. A man whose left eye is the stronger should shoot from the left shoulder if he expects to make consistently good scores when shooting with both eyes open.

"It has not been my experience that both eyes being open is a material asset in single target shooting, as there is plenty of time for the one-eyed shooter to pick up the target and break it before it is out of range. However, when shooting doubles in Skeet or in the field, where a slow shooter is at a disadvantage, then the larger field of vision to pick up the first glimpse of the target gives the man who uses both eyes a material advantage."

L. G. Sheppard, of the Ontario Hunters' Game Protective Association, St. Catharines, Ont., sends a simple method by which the beginner can determine which of his eyes is the stronger:

"To find out which eye is the stronger," he writes, "take a finger ring and hold it at arm length, look through it with both eyes open at some object twenty feet away. Then close the left eye. If the right eye still sees the object through the ring which has not been moved the right eye is the stronger and may be trusted to align the gun and the shooter can keep both eyes open."

Few Languages That are not Known by Some Here

Wednesday night a language strange to most listeners (thought it would be familiar to many in Timmins) came over the air from a Chicago station. The music that followed what obviously were announcements of a good type but what it was all about was a mystery until near the end when an announcement was made in English.

It appears that a Chicago patent medicine manufacturer conceived the idea of having his announcements for Wednesday night in Polish. Requests were being played for people all over the continent, and though it was impossible to catch the names of the people who did the requesting, many Canadian cities were mentioned, among them Kirkland Lake.

Nobody wired from Timmins! There are lots of good Polish people here, the Polish White Eagle Society being one of the strongest national societies in the camp.

Chatham News:—A woman in Georgia who is the mother of six children, and who also publishes a newspaper, is a candidate for mayor. Now if there is any other little thing that needs attending to in her town, she probably will volunteer her services.

Watch the Arrival of Kitty in Timmins

Event at the Church of Nativity Parish Hall This Evening and To-morrow Evening. Rev. Fr. McManus, Director.

Rev. Fr. McManus wop high appreciation last year by the skill and success with which he directed two plays presented under the auspices of the Church of the Nativity. One of the plays presented was "The Absent-minded Husband," and the other was "Her Step-Husband." Both these offerings were given with a finish and effectiveness that proved that they had expert direction. Rev. Fr. McManus has evidenced the fact that he had a genius in this line of direction. He has been prevailed upon to direct the presentation of "The Arrival of Kitty," a comedy of much merit to be given in the Church of the Nativity hall on Thursday and Friday of this week. Those who have seen rehearsals of this comedy say that it is a clever number and most effectively presented under the able direction of Rev. Fr. McManus. All should make a special point of seeing the "Arrival of Kitty" either this (Thursday) evening or to-morrow (Friday) night at the Church of the Nativity parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Keddie Leave to Reside in West

When Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Keddie boarded the afternoon train southbound on Wednesday a host of their Timmins friends were at the station to see them off, wish them a pleasant trip and a happy future at their new home in Vancouver.

Until the minute the train pulled away from the station Mr. and Mrs. Keddie were the centre of a group that included many of Timmins' most prominent citizens. Both Mr. and Mrs. Keddies were popular and useful citizens, and their departure is much regretted. In various circles they took much interest here. Previous to leaving here Mrs. Keddie was presented with a token of appreciation by the Ladies' Section of the Golf Club. Other expressions of appreciation and regard were given to Mr. and Mrs. Keddie before they left here. On behalf of the Golden Beaver Lodge, A. F. & A. M., the Master of the Lodge, A. Wright, presented Mr. Keddie with a handsome travelling set as a mark of appreciation and for the long and faithful services given.

Mr. and Mrs. Keddie went this week to Toronto from whence they will motor to California for the winter, proceeding to Vancouver in the spring.
