One Woman Convicted Other Cases Remanded

Marie Bedard Sentenced to Six Months. Grocery Theft Charges Remanded a Week. Highlights at Police Court Here.

A conviction in the case of Marie Bedard for keeping a disorderly house and a sentence of three months in jail was the only very important result in the cases tried Tuesday afternoon in connection with the raids made last week by local police on three alleged bawdy houses. Evidence leading to the conviction was given by two "special investigators" from a Toronto detective agency.

Mrs. Cecilia Pigeon, charged with keeping a disorderly house and selling liquor, was remanded for a week on continued bail of $6,000. Bertha Brian, charged with keeping a disorderly house, will appear next week. Her bail is $3,000. Donat Pilon and Louis Bernard had their bail increased from $50 to $500 cash or $1,000 property and will also appear again next week. Joseph Lallibe, charged with selling liquor is out on bail of $1,500 and was remanded for a week. Margaret Robillard and Mrs. Henry Thibault, and Angele Beauregard, charged with being inmates of disorderly houses are also out on bail for another week.

On information laid by provincial police, A. Morin, Mountjoy township, faced a charge of keeping a disorderly house and Germaine Larche was charged with being an inmate. Germaine had, it came out in evidence, taken a sum said to be between $345 and $350 from Morin and taken a taxi for Hull. This had cost her $125 and on reaching her home in Maniwaki, she claimed she had burned what remained of the money. There was insufficient evidence to prove that the place kept by Morin was used as a bawdy house and the charges was dismissed.

When the charge of theft by Germaine brought forward on information laid by Morin, he had left. Germaine pleaded "not guilty," because "she had earned the money." The case was dismissed.

During the hearing of this case when the subject of men keeping disorderly houses was before the court, Magistrate Atkinson remarked, "I don't think there is anything lower than God ever made than the male who lives off the female. If I had the chance, I'd give them the lash—every one of them."

The first of those arrested in the town police raid last week heard on Wednesday was Marie Bedard. She pleaded not guilty. A. Houben, of Toronto, employed by the local police nearly three weeks ago to collect evidence of bawdy houses in town testified that he had been at the Bedard place at 80 First Avenue, every night between Nov. 15th and Nov. 23rd. He had purchased liquor there on several occasions. D. Meyer, his associate, testified that on the night of Nov. 22nd, Houben had paid $3 to Marie Bedard for a purpose that later proved sufficient evidence to convict. Cymon Duval of being an inmate of a bawdy house. Houben and Meyer testified that they had on several occasions seen men with the girls at the Bedard house. Monica Dugard was also convicted of being an inmate and was fined $50 and costs.

Several of those "found in" the houses during the raids pleaded guilty and were fined $20 and costs. Two were dismissed.

Aurèle Legendre, Leo Legendre and Clifford Parent will appear next week in connection with the alleged thefts at Eaton's grocery store. Bail was fixed at $1,000 when the crown attorney stated that there would be evidence showing that nearly that sum was involved.

Minor traffic cases, drunks were disposed of in the early part of the long docket. A Minimum Wage Board case was withdrawn when promises to pay were received by the Crown. A dispute over wages was amicably settled just as it was called. A common assault case was disposed of with a $5 fine.

The theft of six bottles of beer from a room in a hotel seemed to be more of a misunderstanding than anything else. The complainant stated that he had gone to the defendant's room one night when he had found the six bottles of a certain brand missing. The defendant had denied taking them and a search warrant had been obtained. Three empties, locked in a suitcase, were disclosed, bearing the brand label of the missing beer. Complainant did not seem anxious to press the case, but a conviction was registered. The price of the beer—80 cents—was returned and the court costs—$18—were paid.

Defendant admitted that he "didn't remember anything about it," but that he couldn't deny it.

Another check-up with the brewers' warehouse will have to be made before a decision can be reached in the case of a man charged with keeping liquor for sale.

Wednesday morning the case of Leo Sancher charged with keeping a disorderly house, was heard and although the crown proved that Sancher had paid the rent for the house in connection with which Marie Bedard had the day before been sentenced to a three month term, there was insufficient evidence to convict and the case was dismissed. Marie had three months added to her sentence for selling liquor on the night of Nov. 21st.

Vagrancy charges against Alice L'enerault, Rose Belanger, Lucie Laurent, Margaret Dupont and Jeanette Caron, were dismissed for lack of evidence. The fine point of whether being in a taxi at a late hour constituted "wandering" under certain circumstances was brought forward by the defence.

In dismissing the cases Magistrate Atkinson said that although he realized it was hardly reasonable to lecture girls on an offense for which they had not been proven guilty, told them that if they were in the business the police intended they were, the best thing for them to do would be to go home—if they had any. "The police here are determined to put a stop to this sort of thing," he concluded.

Further appeals on Wednesday morning for a reduction of the amount of bail in the cases of Bertha Brian and Angele Beauregard were refused.

ALL-BRAN RELIEVED HIS CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Brought New Health to Mr. Bartholomew

We quote from his voluntary letter: "I had considerable trouble with my stomach. Digestion was out of the question. I got medicine which gave me only temporary relief.

"Then I thought of taking ALL-BRAN. I started eating a cereal dishful two or three times a day.

"It has been over a year now since I ate that first dish of bran, but from that day to this I have had the pleasure of enjoying the proper functioning of the digestive organs.

"Thanks to ALL-BRAN, I still eat it regularly and like it better all the time."—Lester Bartholomew (address furnished upon request).

Constipation is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to promote elimination. ALL-BRAN supplies both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Certainly this food is more natural than taking harmful patent medicines. Two tablespoonfuls daily will usually overcome most types of constipation. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Death of Jos. T. Marion Old-Timer of the North

The Kirkland Lake Northern News on Tuesday of this week has the following:—

Joseph Thomas Marion who was killed in an accident on the Noranda highway a week ago Monday was a real veteran of the north. He had been in the north country for 25 years and during that time was around most of the developments opening up. As a carpenter and bricklayer he worked on the head frames of some of the first shafts put down in Kirkland Lake. At Cobalt he worked for a time with the Mickle and Doran mine and in Timmins was employed by the Hollinger. When the Noranda field became active he worked there as a bricklayer. Prior to his death he had been in Kirkland Lake and vicinity for two years. One of his last jobs was putting a head frame in on a property which was opening up at Larder Lake. Born at St. Combe, Quebec, in the Montreal area, the late Mr. Marion was a devout Roman Catholic and was a supporter of Assumption Church here. Survivors of his immediate family are his mother, Mrs. Joseph Marion, 1906 Gascon avenue, Montreal, and four brothers, Isadore and Prosper of Timmins, Alphonse and Tim who live with his mother in Montreal. He was buried Thursday morning. The service was conducted by Rev. Father Jodoin.
