

The Advance Page of News Told in Pictures

Armies in the Balkans

HUNGARY

JUGOSLAVIA

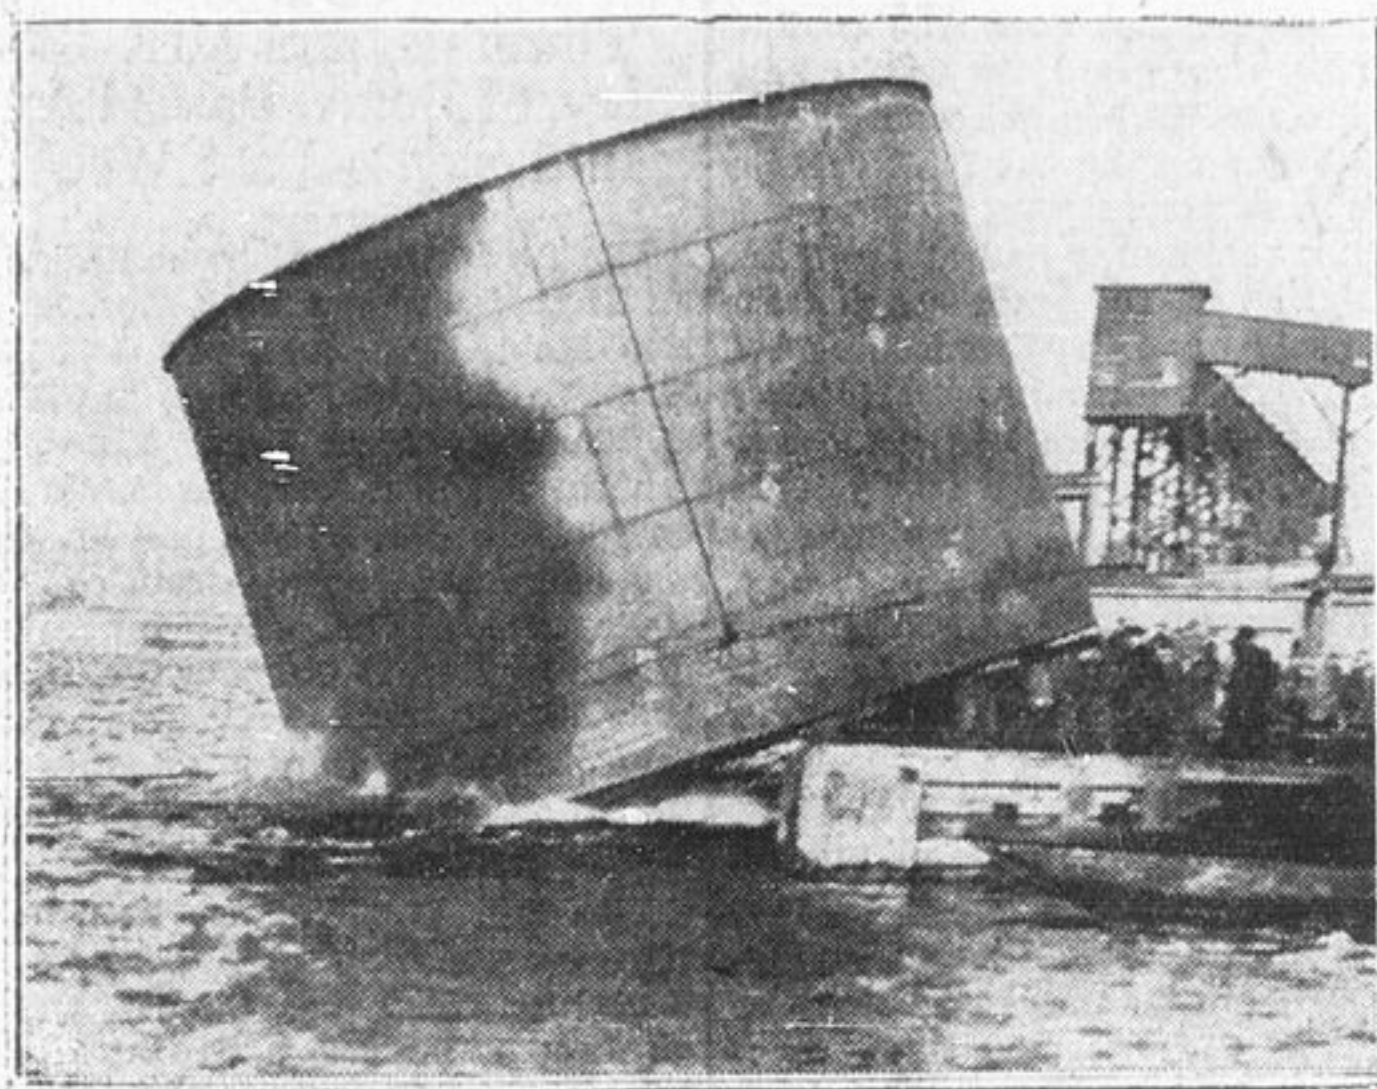

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Showing the troops of the Balkan countries where there was danger of trouble recently. The top picture shows Hungarian troops being inspected by Admiral Horthy, dictator-regent. The centre picture shows Jugoslavian troops in action, and the lower picture shows the Czechoslovakian troops on the march.

"IN THE TREE TOP"
Hums Nurse Menshine of the exclusive African Chimpanzees, putting little 2 1-2-month-old Mary Raven to sleep at home of his New York owner.

Largest Fish Kettle Launched in N.B.

Splash! And the world's largest fish tank starts on a voyage up historic St. John Harbour. A tug, a launch and three trucks were required to send it into the harbour waters on its way to a new location, after two weeks had been spent in moving it 400 yards. The big fish kettle has a capacity of 120 carloads, or 12,500 barrels. Here it is shown just as it hit the water.

A BIT APPREHENSIVE
was President Albert Lebrun of France as, with hand over mouth, he turned to witness the end of the bird about to be brought down by Marce Regnier at Presidential Shoot in Rambouillet, France.

PERFECTION IN PROFILE

This striking camera study traces the finely chiselled features of blonde Virginia Bruce, film star and divorced wife of John Gilbert. Having retired from screen to matrimony, she will soon be seen in "come-back" role.

RADIOPHOTO SHOWS HUNGARIAN REFUGEES

Rushed here from the border town of Kelevia in Hungary, where it was made, to London by air, and thence across Atlantic by radio, this graphic picture has come to tell the dramatic story of the enforced exodus of Hungarian nationals from Jugoslavia. Thus far, 2,000 miserable refugees have trekked across the border line between the two countries, and 22,000 more were subject to the official edict of Jugoslavia that denied haven to Hungarians within its boundaries. It was one of the important causes of the recent crisis in the Balkans, and as the Magyar folk were travelling to their homeland the spectre of war again hovered over Europe.—Central Press Canadian Telephoto.

THEIR JOB'S A STRAIN

To these unemployed college graduates who conduct daily treasure hunts on the beach at Atlantic City, N.J., in search of money and valuables lost by summer bathers.

Here Love Worth $125,000

Charles Jordan is asking $125,000 damages from Alfred M. Baxter, San Francisco lumberman, alleging that Baxter alienated the affections of Mrs. Jordan, who is known on the screen as Neoma Judge, a "Wampus" baby star. She is shown.

THROUGH MURKY FOG

Blanketing London emerges a romantic cavalcade of Horse Guards enroute to the Hall for the daily and colourful Changing of the Guard

U.S. Agents Make Sensational Dope Clean-up

In "one fell swoop" as it were, United States federal agents directed a sudden onslaught against illicit drug traffic and arrested hundreds in many different parts of the country, seized thousands of dollars' worth of drugs. Directing the sensational drive were Assistant Narcotics Commissioner Louis Ruppel (with glasses) and Harry J. Auslender, head of the bureau (both shown UPPER LEFT). When police raided a hotel in Baltimore this woman leaped from a window, broke an arm and a leg. She is shown being carried away by officers. BELOW, Chinamen, some of the score arrested in Chicago. Also shown are some samples of the narcotics "haul."