

The Advance Page of News Told in Pictures

A Tie That Binds

England and her far-flung possessions is here in the making as Lord Londonderry, British Air Minister, inaugurates first England to Australia airmail service in Croydon Aerodrome. He is shown speaking just before first plane took off on longest airmail route in the world.

Noted Canadian Society Women Visit Embassy at Washington

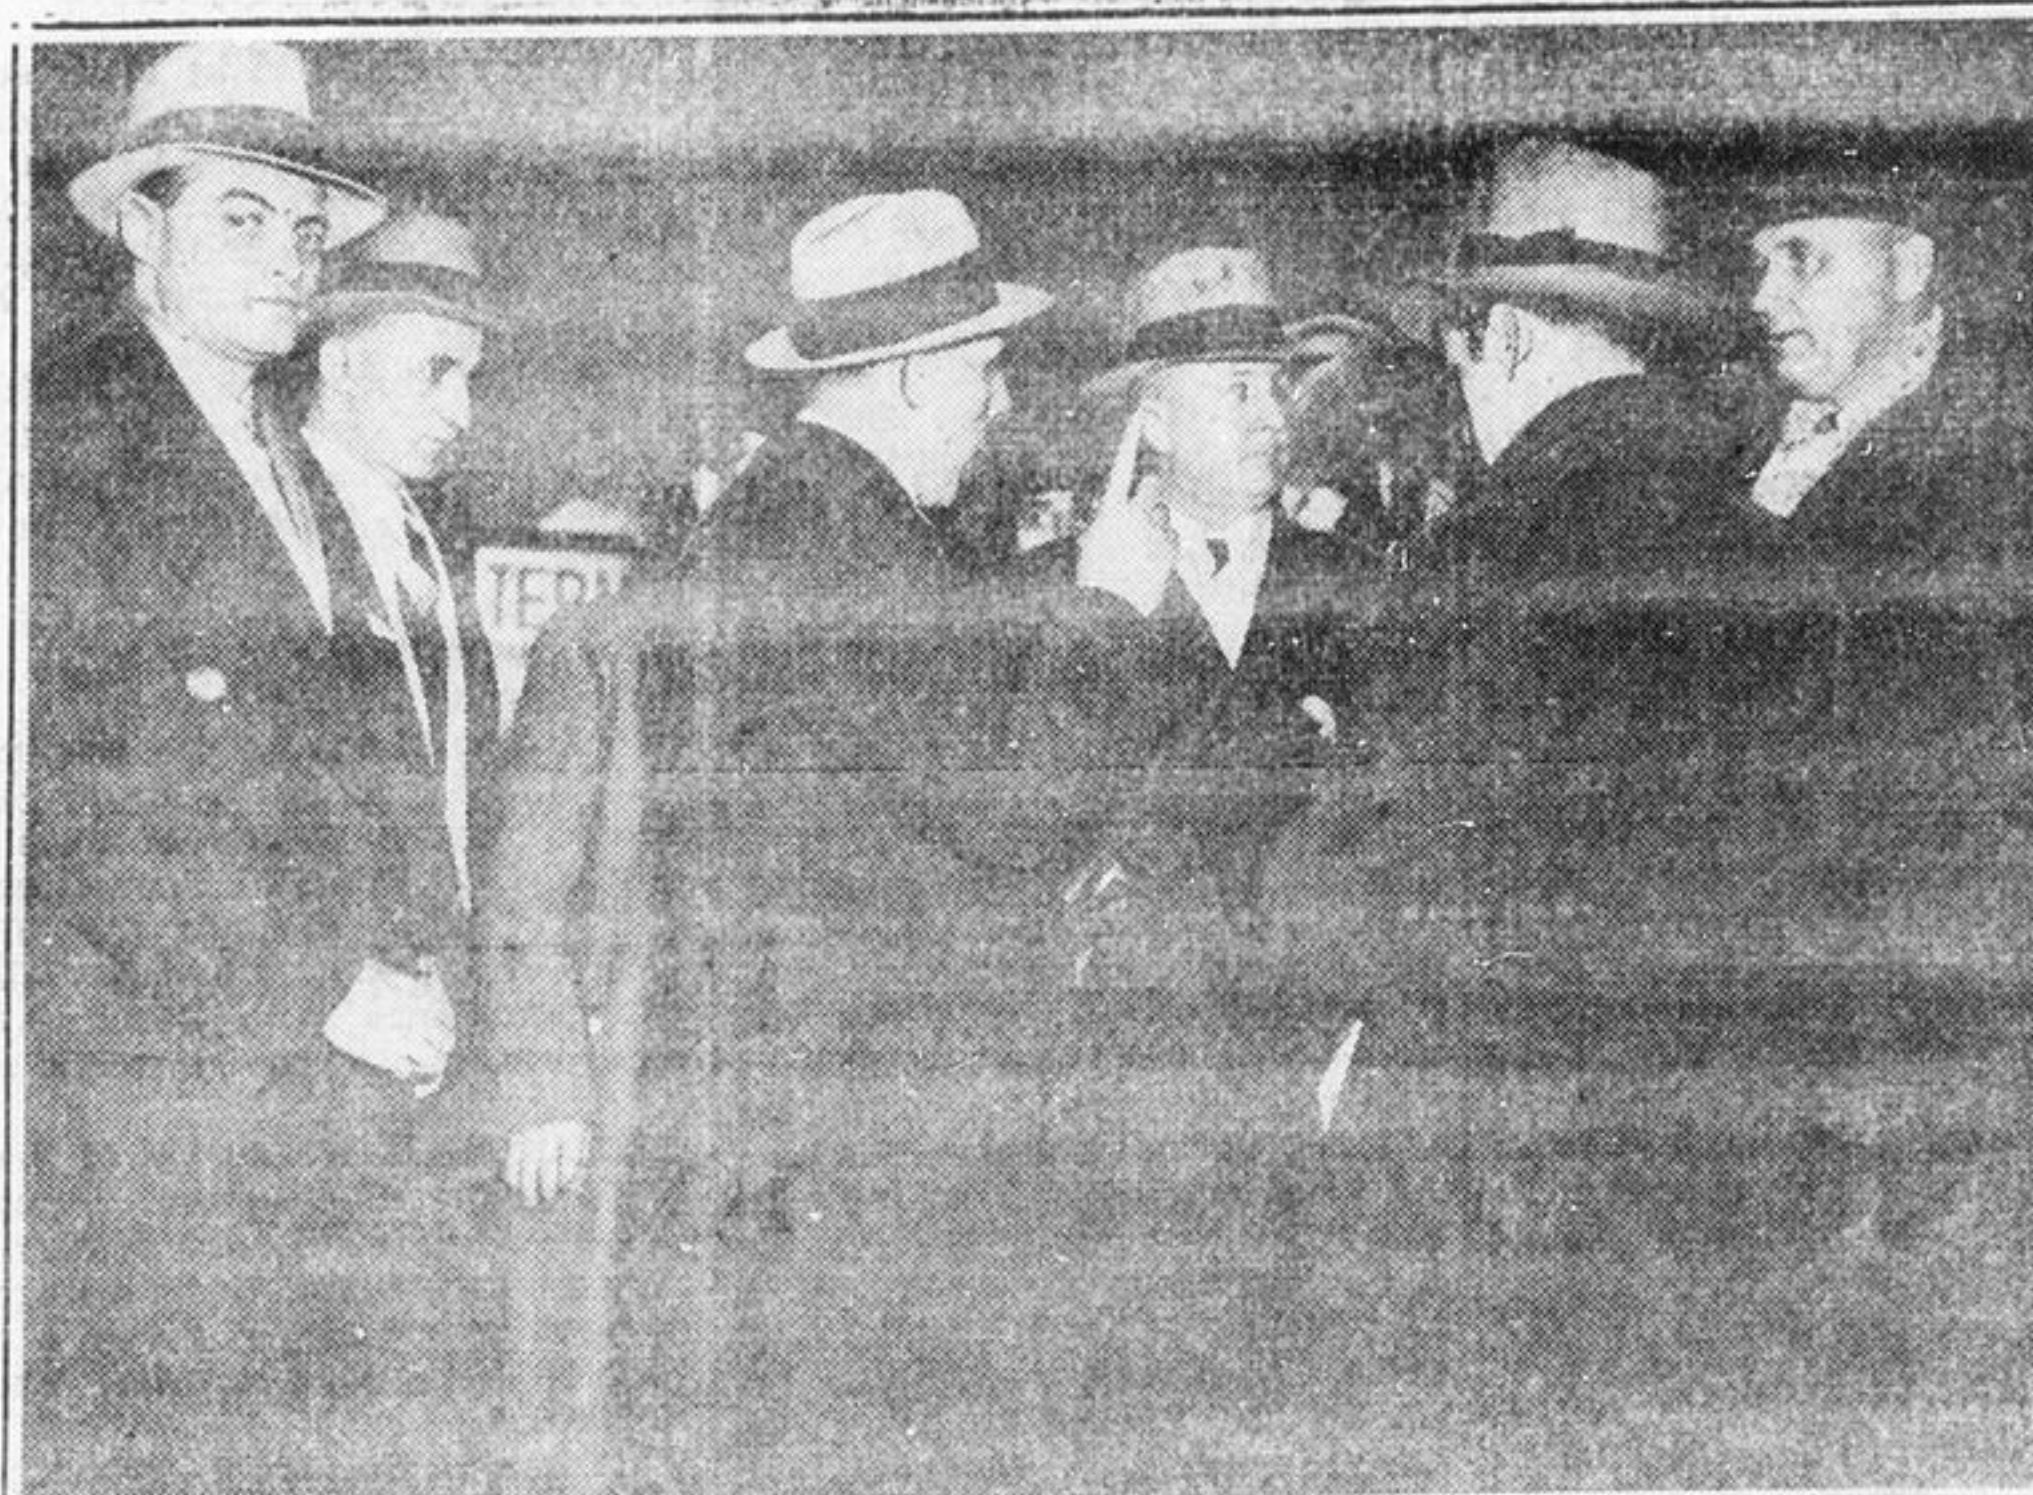

Mrs. W. D. Herridge, wife of Canada's minister to the United States, is shown with the guests who are staying at the embassy. LEFT TO RIGHT are: Miss Christina McNaughten, daughter of Major-General McNaughten of Ottawa; Miss Nora Fleck, granddaughter of the late J. R. Booth of Ottawa; Mrs. W. D. Herridge, Miss Barbara Cowans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cowans, and the Honourable Hazel Shaughnessy, daughter of Lord and Lady Shaughnessy, of England.

Niagara in Her Winter Beauty

Niagara Falls in all its winter glory is portrayed above as the ice formations at the base of the famous cataract produce the spectacular "bridge" across the lower river.

Off to the Saar to Vote in Plebiscite

Some of the 320 former residents of the European sore spot who sailed to vote for its return to Germany. Hans Dietz (centre) in charge of group, is shown talking to reporters.

Lord Cobham of England and His Bride

the former Mrs. Evelyn Sinclair Britt of New York City. They are shown as they leave the Courtin Hall register office, in London, where the wedding ceremony took place.

A Winter Etching

Beauty flowed from the brush of Jack Frost on his most recent visit to Chicago. Mailman is shown trudging his way through snow under a canopy formed by delicate tracery on trees above.

Children Find Clouds' Silver Lining

Frolicking children making merry in the flooded in an area of Newcast, Somerset, England. A continuous and heavy rain lasting for several days played havoc with roads and seriously interfered with travel and transportation. When sun shone again these children were quick to take advantage of the situation.

Heroic Rescues as Ship Hits Rocks

Star ship of ill-fated Morro Castle, the Ward line steamer Havana went ashore on a reef in the Bahamas during a storm. Officials declare all passengers saved, report two of crew missing, pay tribute to heroism of crew in dramatic rescue of passengers.

Prince's Fiance

Mlle. MANUELA DAMPIERRE Engagement of Mlle. Manuela Dampierre, daughter of Comte Roger Dampierre and Donna Victoria Ruspoli of Paris to Prince Jaime, second son of former King Alfonso of Spain, is announced in Paris.

Blazing Estate Caused Damage of $20,000

The blazing estate of Clarence Mackay at Roslyn, L.I. caused damage estimated at $20,000. Three buildings in one of which were kept the breeding records of finest Guernsey herds in the country, were destroyed.