Kirkland Lake, Dec. 17.—(Special to The Advance)—Without the services of a weed inspector for eight days, despite the continued smoking of Christmas cigars, the Township of Teck has at last filled this important post, which carries with it a salary from the provincial government of $1 a year. TRAIN HIT WOLF AND WENT ON, AND SO DID THE WOLF

There is always something strange happening in the Sault Ste Marie section. There was for instance the case some days ago when an Algoma Central train some sixty miles north of the Sault hit a wolf and knocked the Curran animal over a trestle. Usually that would mean a derailed train but not so around the South. Also it would mean a dead wolf. But again not in the Sault area. The train kept on the tracks and only stopped when the brakes were applied.

The wolf didn't have brakes, and so kept right on going. The wolf hasn't been seen since but the train arrived at its destination as usual, which may or may not be on time.

Trip of 1200 Miles on Three Continents

Caravan Began Trip at Alexandria and Completed Journey at Gibraltar. Some Thrilling Experiences.

Loaded to their full capacity with ballast and equipment three Ford commercial vehicles recently completed one of the most arduous tests of its kind ever attempted—a 12,000 mile trip from Africa through Asia, the Balkans and much of the rest of Europe.

The caravan, which completed its journey at Gibraltar comprised two Ford trucks, and a Ford panel delivery which carried 551 lbs. of baggage, in addition to the driver and passenger.

During the tour, which began at Alexandria June 12 and embraced Egypt, Palestine, Turkey, the Balkan States, Austria, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, France, Spain and Portugal, the caravan encountered many hardships, especially in the earlier stages. The Sinai Desert was crossed in a temperature of 130 degrees in the shade, while through Turkey and the Balkans, where the roads were poor, the party encountered said storms, heavy rains, and had to negotiate steep passes, boulder-strewn tracks, drifts, and stretches of deep mud. All obstacles were overcome without a breakdown, standard tires being used throughout.

There was an acute water-shortage in the Sinai Desert. In the Balkans the authorities constructed ferries with planks and barrels for the crossing of the Danube. Serious mishaps were narrowly averted on several occasions. On the way to Belgrade a gendarme searched every piece of baggage.

The roads through the more settled countries of the Continent, though mostly good by comparison, frequently tested the heavily-laden vehicles to their utmost, particularly over the mountains of Switzerland and the Pyrenees. On no occasion, however, was the progress of the caravan interrupted by an involuntary stop.

All three vehicles arrived at Gibraltar in perfect condition, and were accorded an official reception by the Governor, Sir Charles Harrington, and many other notables. Considerable interest was shown throughout the tour by Mayors, Chiefs of Police and others, and a ten-foot scroll which should be a record of this remarkable achievement, was signed by about eighty civic dignitaries. A motion picture record of the journey was made by one of the crew.

Likely to Elect Trial Before Judge and Jury

Lawrence Elliott, committed for trial on Tuesday at police court, charged with the theft of about $1,200 in gold precipitates from the Buffalo-Ankerite mill on Dec. 16 has three courses of action before him. He may elect speedy trial before Judge Caron at Cochrane; he may give himself up and be in jail before April 2 and face trial at the spring assizes of the supreme court of Ontario at Cochrane on that day, or he may wait until the general sessions of the peace for the district of Cochrane on June 11.

It is understood that it is likely that the case will go before a judge and jury, in which event there are two options—the spring assizes and the June general sessions.

"Speedy trial" before Judge Caron without a jury might be at any time. The procedure would be similar to that at police court, here except that the evidence would be much more detailed and Judge Caron would either dismiss the case or inflict a penalty.

If Elliott wishes to be tried at the supreme court on April 2, he would have to be in jail before that date as only the cases of those who are in custody are tried there. Elliott is now out on $5,000 bail.

In the normal course of events he would be tried at the general sessions of the peace for the district at Cochrane before a jury. The next sessions are slated to begin on June 11. Until that date Elliott would be free provided he did not violate the provisions of his bail.

Regular Meeting Next Week T. N. O. Commission

Members of the T. & N. O. Railway Commission will probably gather in North Bay some time next week for their regular meeting. Col. Mac Lang, chairman of the commission stated at North Bay on Monday morning. Routine business only will be before the commissioners.

His condition is reported as improved now, and he will probably be able to attend next week's meeting.

A meeting to organize a branch of the Humane Society has been called for this evening (Thursday) in the Mines Rescue Station, at the back of the fire hall, on Cedar Street. Kirkland Lake Doubling Paid Fire Department

Kirkland Lake, Dec. 17.—(Special to The Advance)—Kirkland Lake decided to double its professional fire department strength Tuesday night when Teck Township Council instructed Fire Chief Mathieson to engage four extra salaried smoke eaters, and adopt a night and day platoon system.

The chief's annual report showed a total of 118 calls, 42 of them being for chimney fires, the actual fire losses being only $1,839, which according to the Financial Post qualifies the township as having the lowest fire loss in the Dominion for five years.

While two lives were lost in the district, they were lost in a shack fire outside the township limits.

The chief recommended purchase of extra hose and installation of some 15 new alarm boxes.

Kirkland Clergyman Wants a Place for Young Men

Kirkland Lake, Dec. 17.—(Special to The Advance)—Plea for some form of community hall, or reading room for young men here to keep them out of beer parlours and off the street, was voiced on behalf of the local clergy by the Rev. A. G. Dymond, of Saint Peter's Anglican Church in a brief address to Township Council Tuesday night. Mr. Dymond pointed out that there was no such accommodation, while members of the council said that negotiations with the Y.M.C.A. had been fruitless. The clergyman voiced objection to the Y.M.C.A. system because of prohibitive administration cost and of the fact that two churches in the city would have nothing to do with it owing to objections by their priests on alleged possibilities of proselytizing in religious instruction.

South Porcupine, Ont., Jan. 16th, 1935. Special to The Advance.

Charles Juecksch was appointed resident ratepayer member of the local board of health.

trary in rules of procedure. The appointment of a Medical Officer of Health was held over for advertising for applications.

Lloyd's Will Not Insure the Dionne Quintuplets

A brief item in The Advance on Monday suggested that the guardians of the Dionne quintuplets were asking the famous London, England, firm of Lloyd's to insure the Dionne youngsters. It was impossible to secure inurance of any amount on the children in Canada, as clauses in the law forbid policies of any amount on children in this country. When Lloyd's were approached, however, the company is understood to have declined the risk. This is not like Lloyd's, that firm apparently being ready to take a chance on anything or anybody. The fact is more likely to be that the premium was too high, Lloyd's, of course, charging a good price for the risks taken, but the whole business is on a scientific basis and insurance is not likely to be available below cost. It is understood that United States insurance companies were also approached but their offers were not acceptable to the guardians.

Attorney-General Roebuck is quoted as opposed to the idea of the quintuplets being insured at all. In this he will have the full support of most thinking people. As the Attorney-General says if the quintuplets live they will not be benefited by the insurance, and if they die the money will not be needed for them. "They are the babies of the nation, and will be taken care of—if not privately, then publicly," he said.

Equipment Seized at the La Rose-Rouyn, Cobalt

Goods and chattels, including equipment and over 10 tons of cobalt ore in bags, of the La Rose-Rouyn Mines, Ltd., at that company's Cobalt property have been seized by the sheriff of Temiskaming pursuant to a Supreme Court order but, while a sale by auction has been advertised for the latter part of the present month, it is understood legal proceedings will be instituted in Toronto to stay this action until application can be made for a hearing on an appeal the company desires to take from the decision of Mr. Justice Makins in the suit for tax arrears brought against La Rose by the town of Cobalt.
