Told Dramatic Story of Being Shot in the Leg

Other Evidence Suggested, However, that it was an Accident, and Case Dismissed. Warning Against Illegal Sale of Railway Tickets. Man with Alky Wanted to go to Guelph. Several Vagrancy Charges.

Telling a dramatic story in police court on Tuesday didn't get Mike Slywezuk any further ahead in his effort to get compensated for a hole drilled through his leg by a shot from a rifle. A charge laid against Frank Sorylo by Mike of wounding was dismissed. Mike claimed that he had been cutting wood out near his place at McDonald lake on October 12th when Sorylo and Tony Kowalski came along. One of them said "Hands up!" Some minutes intervened, during which time the rifle was laid on the ground. Then Mike said, Frank grabbed the rifle and shot him in the leg. He showed the court the scars on his leg where the bullet went in and came out. When he appeared on the witness stand he carried a white parcel. Rolled up inside were the trousers he wore when the shooting occurred. Powder marks showed how close the end of the rifle barrel must have been. Blood sodden underwear told how much damage had been done.

Gun on Ground Five Minutes
Under cross examination, Mike admitted that the gun had lain on the ground for five minutes.

"Why did you stay around if you were afraid of being shot?" asked the defence. "I did get shot," replied Mike. "Did you touch the rifle?" "No." "How far away from Sorylo were you?" "About two feet."

"You don't think it was an accident?" "No. It was done on purpose." "You thought they were going to shoot you?" "I know it. They did."

The shooting had been reported to Provincial Police Constable Geo. White and Mike had been taken to the hospital.

Say It Was Accidental
Stan Ryenik, a witness brought forward by Slywezuk, was present at the time.

"Mike said the rifle was no good. Mike, he don't look where he shoot." "Did he fire the rifle at him or do you think it was an accident?" asked Crown Attorney S. Caldbeck. "I think it was an accident," replied the witness.

Ryenik remembered hearing one of them say "Hands up!" but it was just "spoofing."

"I think it was an accident," said the magistrate, dismissing the charge.

Mike was told that he would have to take the case to civil court if he wanted to collect damages.

Uttered Forged Cheque
Clare Smith will serve two months in Haileybury jail for uttering a forged cheque, knowing it to be forged. The cheque had borne the signature of a "David Paulbesky."

Paul Paulbesky said that so far as he knew there was no other Paulbesky in town. Smith had at one time worked for him.

Edwin Copps, who had cashed a $31 cheque for Smith, giving him $10 cash and the rest taken off a bill, testified that Smith had told him "David Paulbesky" was a brother of Paul, who had occupied the store before it had been taken over by Copps.

Smith said he had received the cheque from the man who had signed it on Pine street. It had been in payment for work done on a roof somewhere in Moneta. He couldn't remember the number or the street. Under cross examination by the crown attorney, Smith altered details of his story. At first he had worked two days and three hours, then three days and nine hours. There had also been payment.

If ladies who are willing to sell poppies will call at the Legion hall on Cedar street at 9 a.m. next Saturday, Nov. 9th, they will be given the poppies and tagging boxes. Porcupine Miners' Choir Active Again

Big Season Expected Under the Leadership of Geo. Hale, and with Ron Jones at the Piano.

The Porcupine Miners' Choir are again very active and prospects for a successful and pleasing season are unusually good.

On Sunday, Nov. 3rd, a very successful practice was held in the Oddfellows hall. Some very excellent voices have been added to the choir and the coming season is most promising indeed.

The choir is now under the baton of that gifted conductor, George E. Hale, L.C.M., title musical director of the Saskatoon Philharmonic Society, with Mr. Ron Jones, L.C.M., at the piano. With these two talented musicians, the choir will undoubtedly make great strides forward.

The choir will make its first public appearance for the new season at a concert to be given on Sunday, Nov. 24th, the time and place to be announced later.

In regard to the many enquiries regarding the choir's broadcasts, they will very probably be heard over the air again in December.

The Porcupine Miners' Choir is open for engagements, concerts or radio, and all enquiries should be addressed to A. G. Bellamy, secretary, P. O. Box 1706, Timmins. The choir made such progress in previous years and proved so popular that its further progress will be watched with special interest.

Huntingdon Gleaner:—When a thirsty dog thrust its nose into a game preserve pond near Albany it let out a howl of pain and leapt back in terror. A big trout had fastened its teeth into the dog's tongue. Several minutes elapsed before the dog was able to shake itself free from its tenacious assailant.

The people of Timmins went to the polls on Tuesday to give the Northern Ontario Power Company an overwhelming vote for the new ten-year franchise and the low rates it will bring to the power users of the community. Almost four votes were recorded for the by-law to one against it. The vote was the largest ever taken here on a single by-law not voted on at a regular municipal election.

Of the 2,524 votes cast, 1,995 of them were for the by-law and only 534 against it, giving a majority of 1,461. Almost exactly one-third of those entitled to vote on the question did so.

Poll No. 31 is not used in municipal elections, since it is in Mountjoy township.

All returns were in at the town hall by 6.45 on Tuesday evening.

According to those who had opportunity to observe what was going on during the voting, it appeared that there was a considerable amount of confusion. Some had been told to vote "Against" when they had intended to vote "For," being led to believe that if they voted "Against," they would get lower power rates.

No "Hydro" on Ballot!

Others were very much disappointed because "Hydro" did not appear on the ballot. They did not appear to realize that there was no actual Hydro proposal before them.

The new rates, as outlined in the by-law published recently and in the advertisements of the power company, will come into effect on June 1st next year, even though the present franchise of the power company does not expire until December 1st. The lower rates will go into effect in the Township of Tisdale, Kirkland Lake, Cobalt and other Northern municipalities served by the Northern Ontario Power Company at the same time they do here. This has been the policy of Northern Power for many years.
