

Dr. McInnis People's Candidate for Mayor

Talented Speaker Here Once "Mucker" at Dome

Count Ignatieff, of Upper Canada College Staff, Tells of his Work in the Porcupine, in the Course of Address on "Europe and the League" at United Church Saturday Evening.

"I do not see why, especially from among the young people who take a leading role here, that it is impossible for you to produce a great leader in this community—a great premier, and then for him to take to take an active part in international affairs. People might listen to a man of that broader type. He might help to bring about the greater understanding—the only permanent solution for international affairs of to-day." So Nicolas Ignatieff concluded his address to Timmins on Saturday night at the United Church.

He did not speak from naphazard inspection of Timmins. He knows the Porcupine—knows it well. For when he first came to Canada, after having graduated from an English university, he found, as he said himself on Saturday that "there was no other activity in which my talent seemed to be required than—mucking at the big Dome mine."

All the Causes are Here

"You have here all the antagonisms that appear to make co-operation impossible in the world. You have here, more than any other place in Canada, the opportunity of study psychology, those little international differences, to study the whys and wherefores of those disputes that have brought the world crisis of to-day," he told his large and interested audience. "You have here a cross section of nationalities—people from all over the world. Yet you manage to live together fairly harmoniously. You don't have very many fights here. You don't kill one another. Why? What is the difference? Some people are able to live in peace—why not the rest of the world?"

Mr. Ignatieff gave a comprehensive review of the underlying causes that have led to the present unrest in the world. Briefly, he outlined it as follows: It was very largely the older men of the world who were in charge of affairs at the end of the world war. They still had the old ideas, chief among them that of secret diplomacy. "We cannot hope for a real solution until those methods are really outlawed," he stated.

The Versailles Treaty
In the framing of the Versailles treaty there were some nations whose interests were disregarded. This led to ill feeling. The punishment of the offenders with the excuse that it would ensure the defence of the victorious nations led to the "I'll get you" sort of feeling among the defeated nations and among those whose interests had been practically disregarded. Fascism, Nazism and other extravagant forms of nationalism have been the direct results of this widespread feeling.

Why has Italy taken such a prominent part in the recent display of ill feeling? Italy has, for nearly half a century wanted to develop Ethiopia commercially. She was defeated when her armies first attempted to invade. In 1905 Italy's decision to make Ethiopia a protectorate brought action from France and Britain and in 1906, the country was divided, for economic purposes, between the three nations by secret agreement.

Premises Made to Italy
Italy was brought into the Great War partially through promises made to her by the other allies that she would receive many compensations at the declaration of victory. She, with Britain and France, were to divide Africa. In Ethiopia, Italy expected a more or less free hand. She tried to effect this by peaceful economic penetration but this was stopped in 1923 when France espoused the cause of Ethiopia in her demand for entrance to the League of Nations. Britain and Austria joined with Italy in talking the proposal. Later Italy joined Ethiopia in her attempt to gain world recognition as a civilized nation. Now she claims the African nation is not fit to be a member.

The Walwal Incident
In 1925 a rather awkward situation developed when Britain and Italy arrived at an agreement whereby the Italians should be allowed to build a railroad through Ethiopian territory to connect Eritrea with Italian Somaliland. In return the British were to be allowed power rights at Lake Tanya. Ethiopia protested to both countries and to the league when news of the secret agreement leaked out.

I.O.D.E. Pound Days Thursday and Friday

Public Asked to Help by Donating Pickles, Fruit, Groceries, etc., for Hospital and Shelter.

As one of the services given by the Timmins Golden Chapter I.O.D.E., Thursday, Nov. 28th, and Friday, Nov. 29th, will be "Pound Days" in town. On those days the public is asked to contribute a pound of pickles, fruit, groceries, etc., or as many pounds as each may feel able to give. A bag of potatoes, a bag of sugar, canned goods, etc., will be welcomed in lieu of the pound or pounds. Contributions to the "Pound Days" may be left with Mrs. W. D. Wait, Mrs. Keene, or at the Beauty Washer Store, Third avenue. The proceeds of the "Pound Days" will be distributed equally between the Children's Shelter and St. Mary's hospital, after donations marked specially for either have been set aside. Any one wishing their donation to go to either particular place may ask to have it marked for either Shelter or Hospital and it will be so given. The "Pound Days" are in charge of Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Keene, both past regents of the Daughters of the Empire. Similar events in the past have been carried through very successfully by the I.O.D.E. and they hope to have generous response for the "Pound Days" on Thursday and Friday of this week, Nov. 28th and 29th.

Operetta to be Given at Central School

Special Feature of Christmas Concert, Dec. 11th, 12th and 13th. Carols Also to be Sung.

The annual Christmas concert in the Central public school promises to be even more interesting this year than in previous years. For some years past the Christmas concert has attracted crowds that could scarcely be accommodated. Originally the concert was a one-evening affair, but to give all who wished to enjoy it an opportunity to attend, two nights were set apart for it. Even with the two nights the crowds could not be accommodated, so this year the Christmas concert in the Central public school will be held on three nights—Wednesday, Dec. 11th, Thursday, Dec. 12th, and Friday, Dec. 13th. On each of these evenings the event will commence at 8 p.m.

Erecting Large Marquee at New Palace Theatre

Front of New Theatre to Show Brilliant Display of Lighting Effects. Leo Mascioli's New Theatre to be the "Show Place of the North."

Preliminary work for the erection of the large marquee that will make the front of the new Palace theatre one of the brightest displays in the North was commenced this morning by the removal of the metal cornice from the facade of the building and the tearing down of the temporary wall that has screened the work on the theatre from public view.

The design of the marquee is to be elaborate and will carry many feet of neon tubing for lighting. It is being installed by the Macey Neon displays. Work on the interior of the theatre, which is to be one of the finest in the province, has progressed to such a stage that almost all the scaffolding used by the interior decorators is down. A large part of the lighting apparatus has been installed, including that for the indirect lighting of the auditorium. The intricate job of finishing the plaster, cornices and other decorative schemes is complete. The biggest job left now is the installation of the chairs.

More and more, as work progresses slowly but carefully and with proper attention to every detail, it becomes obvious that the Palace is to be the show place of the North—a job of which the owner must be justly proud.

Nearly 170 Names on Supplementary List

Additions and Alterations to the 1935 Voters Lists. Twenty-five Names Taken Off. Corrections Made.

The 1935 voters' list for the town of Timmins will be used in the coming municipal election. For the recent voting on the power franchise by-law the 1934 voters' list was used, but that was because the 1935 list had not been revised in time to be used in the by-law voting. The necessary revision has since been made and a supplementary list of additions and alterations also printed.

In the supplementary list there are 169 names added, these being names omitted from the regular list. These names were added at the recent court of revision on the voters' lists.

There are 25 names written off the list for various reasons. Twelve of these were in the list twice and so one of the duplicate entries was marked off. Eight names were taken off on account of deaths since the compiling of the voters' lists. Three were taken off because there had been changes in the ownership of properties. Two were taken from the list because they were not assessed enough to warrant being on the list.

There were four corrections made in the list.

Give Co-operation to Lions Boys' Band

Meeting of Parents Yesterday in Hollinger Hall. Plans and Purposes of Band Explained.

Promising whole-hearted co-operation in the work of organizing and operating the new Lions Boys' Band, a large number of the parents of the boys met at the Hollinger hall yesterday afternoon. W. King, chairman of the Lions committee, in charge of the band, explained briefly the objects behind the move, the value the boys would obtain from belonging to the band and outlined the cost of the project.

The instruments are valued at an average of about $50 and each parent was asked to give a verbal bond that the instruments that came into their house would be well cared for. They agreed most heartily that the band would be a fine thing and offered to do everything in their power to help it along.

Bandmaster F. J. Wolno has already commenced giving instruction to some of the boys and it is hoped that before spring the organization will be on a sound footing.

Eventually it was agreed that Dr. McInnis should be the one to qualify.

In the meantime a number had qualified for councillors, though some of the candidates for council had also held off until fairly close to the nine o'clock mark.

Number of Car Accidents During the Past Few Days

Partly on account of the weather and the condition of the roads through ice and snow there have been a number of car smashes in the past few days but fortunately none of them have been serious. About midnight last night Wm. Morinchuk's car hit T. Labrache's car at the intersection of Third and Elm and then continued and struck Max Ryan's car nearby. All three cars were more or less damaged, bumpers, running boards, front wheels, headlights, etc., suffering. On Saturday there was an accident at the intersection of Rea and Commercial, a car driven by W. Dagenais hitting a Hawk Lake Lumber Co truck. The truck was in the middle of the intersection when struck and suffered some damage.

Response Generous in Christmas Seals

Committee Receiving Evidence of Generous Response in Campaign for Tuberculosis Clinic.

"To whom it may concern: I have read the pathetic appeal and can't resist enclosing one buck. Hoping you get lots more."

So read one of the first answers to the appeal through the mail for the Tuberculosis Clinic. Hundreds of letters went into the post office on Thursday afternoon asking that the book of seals enclosed be purchased for one dollar.

As early as Friday evening the replies began to pour in. The first opened was from Leonard H. Cousins. Throughout the rest of the week the appeal was answered generously. Most sent a dollar; many sent more. In any case, it seems that the people of Timmins are behind the move and it is sincerely hoped by the committee in charge that the next week will keep up the record set so far.
