The final period saw the Timmins hopes take a dive to the bottom when the Porkies scored two more.

Referee Kept Game Clean The game started off very fast and Chevrier was called upon to stop several shots before Lortie and Vail could find the South Porcupine forwards. Wilkes drew a penalty for holding and Cattarello, Huggins and Maki bore in on the goal and gave Chevrier plenty to werry about before Wilkes got back Cattarello came in dangerously close and almost scored but Chevrier dropped rang. Huggins and Carson Miller were short and Timmins one. chased for carrying high sticks. It was evident that Norm Malloy, the only referee, was taking no chances on a riot starting and was going to keep the game as clean as he could. Play was in centre ice for some time, the two defences knocking over everything that turned and McCann was sent off for came their way. Carson Miller, who had tripping. just returned a moment before, was sent to the cooler again and Porkies pressed hard till he came back. Cattarello was chased for slashing and Timmins put on the pressure. Huggins and Wilkes. Less than a minute later and Al Taylor cleared very nicely while they were short-handed. The Timmins first line of Wilkes, Lamouroux and Fasano was working nicely but the Referee Malloy rang his bell and picked heavy South Porcupine defence was hard to beat. Woon was penalized for boarding and Timmins played four men up. Woon returned and was sent right back for holding. Timmins charged in time and again but didn't seem to be able to click. Arundel drove one into the back boards and just missed getting
