address. He spoke of the importance of good reading, and of the immense help good books have been to the unemadvised our librarians to encourage the reading of good books and weed out the old ones. On the second day of the convention, Miss L. Benor, readers' advisor of the Campbellford public library, gave a paper. A librarian in a small town, she said, had a better knowledge of the background of her readers and can advise on suitable books. She spoke of the best books of 1935-1936, enumerating and giving epitomes of some of them. Mr. Sykes, of Ottawa public libraries, gave a talk on drama and music for libraries-He gave a list of plays etc., which would be advisable for library use. Mr. Hale, editor of "Packet

Self-Denial Appeal of Salvation Army

Objective of $1050 Set for Timmins and District in Annual Appeal for Funds This Year.

The annual Self-Denial Appeal of the Salvation Army is being made now for funds to carry on the great work of the organization. This year the objective set for Timmins and district is $1050, and to reach this amount old friends and new will have to rally round the Army. The good work of the Army in Timmins is apparent and all will agree that it deserves the heartiest support. Major and Mrs. Hillier and the other officers and members of the local Army have certainly been doing excellent work. This good work here has been duplicated not only throughout Canada but all over the world. The Salvation Army operates in 88 countries and colonies, and preaches the gospel in 86 different languages. There are no less than 21,886 officers and cadets engaged in the field work of the Army with another 4,318 in the social welfare work.
