week. Since leaving here he has played for Halifax, Truro and last winter for Bristol, England.
Born—On Saturday, August 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sutherland, of Main Street, a daughter.
Reeve C. V. Gallagher has moved his house on Connaught Hill farther back, and up onto another lot facing south. This must have been a strenuous job as the hill at this point is quite steep and the house was tilted at one time to a precarious angle but is now quite normal. Mr. Gallagher's intention is to build a new home on the site of the old one.
Mr. Ed Pullin, who is in Christie Street hospital, is improving from treatment in that place. In writing home Mr. Pullin states that the famous Dr. Eddie Robertson is one of his special doctors. Dr. Robertson asked him how he got the scar on his head, and he told him that he had been caught between the rock-face and the shaft in an accident here. "Well," said the doctor, "you went up to meet the shaft, and the shaft came down to meet Leo Sargent, our hockey goalie for me!"
Mrs. Wm. Andrews and daughter,

Patricia, of Connaught Hill, left on Friday with Mrs. Andrews, Sr., who has been visiting her son, for Montreal. The township kindly loaned a truck to-day to take down the baggage of the Girl Guides to the Scout camp site at Nellie Lake. On Monday at 9 p.m. 12 happy girls will leave with their leaders for a ten-day holiday. Miss Rosamund McCulloch, lady-cubmaster here, is attending in addition to the list of leaders given last week and will be in charge of hand craft. Honer. They have been back only a few weeks from Ireland where they spent six weeks visiting Mr. Honer's old home.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds, with Kathleen, leave on Sunday's train for Toronto and points south for two weeks' holiday.
Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, of Flint, Michigan, with Mr. Carne, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thomas, Dome Extension, and left on Friday for home. This was their first trip to Northern Canada, and while they admired the lovely Northern scenery, they had nothing good to say about the roads. Their car turned over through striking loose gravel near Iroquois Falls on the way up, but through Mrs. Rowe's face was bruised, no further damage resulted.
Dr. W. Atkinson, who has been taking Dr. Harper's practice while he was on holiday, left on Saturday for Southern Ontario for a week or two. Dr. Harper is expected home this week.

Nine young people went from South Porcupine to attend the picnic at Child's Beach of the district A.Y.P.A.'s on Wednesday. Swimming and other sports were indulged in and while there Archdeacon Woodall and Lady Cubmaster Rosamund McCulloch were escorted over the Scout camp nearby by Scouters Wright and Harry Stevenson. At 7.15 p.m. they left for Iroquois Falls to take in a social evening prepared by Iroquois Falls A.Y.P.A. During the evening a meeting of the District Council took place. It was decided at this meeting to prepare for a dramatic contest to take place in October. Fifteen plays are to be selected by the committee from which each branch may select one, and they are to be given in the following order: 1. Cochrane; 2. Iroquois Falls; 3. Timmins; and 4. South Porcupine.
What might have been a serious termination to a happy afternoon occurred on the homeward trip. The car driven by Arthur Couchman, and having as passengers Mr. Dave Evans and Mr. P. C. Walker, overturned in the ditch when the driver made too short a turn. Luckily no one sustained serious hurt.

Knutson in Lennoxville, Quebec. News was received late last night by Mr. Gus Knutson that he had passed on with startling suddenness from heart failure.
Mr. Gus Knutson left by car early this morning for Lennoxville.
Mr. Martin Knutson is remembered by nearly everybody in camp as only a year or so ago he was manager at the Buffalo-Ankerite Mine, leaving to spend a month or two in Timmins before finally going to his old family home at Waterville, Quebec.
In the early days he lived at West Dome Lake, and was in turn at the Dome and Beaumont Mines, and also at the Paymaster. Mrs. Knutson supplied on the teaching staff here many times. One little girl, Elaine, comprises the family.
Martin, aged 42, is the fourth son that Mr. and Mrs. Iver Knutson, of Waterville, have had predecease them, one (Fred) dying three years ago. Living are Oscar, Gus and one sister here.
Mrs. Charles Cooke, of the Paymaster Mine.
Interment will take place in Waterville.
Our deepest sympathies are extended to Mrs. Knutson and little Elaine, and the other sorrowing relatives.
