Windsor Daily Star:—Sir Percy Vincent, Lord Mayor of London, was in London, Ont., yesterday to open the splendid new Canadian National Railway station. Sir Percy arrived with great eclat via Canadian Pacific.

Said he was Hurt Taking Knife Away from Wife

Woman Dismissed on Assault Charge After Husband Gives Evidence. Youth Goes to Jail for Assault on Mother. Reckless Drivers Scored by Magistrate. Several Wage Cases at Tuesday's Court.

He had a fight with his wife, Percy Labreche admitted in police court on Tuesday before Magistrate Atkinson, and in trying to take a knife away from her he had, somehow or other got "just a little scratch" in the neck. The wife, Evelyn, appeared on a charge of assaulting Percy with a knife and causing him actual bodily harm, but was dismissed when the charge was not pressed.

Percy was the only witness. He had taken another girl uptown and had brought her back to her home when Mrs. Labreche appeared on the scene with a knife. "I tried to take it away from her," said he. In response to a question by the magistrate he said he "didn't know whether she was going to use it or not but she had it in her hand."

The knife penetrated his clothing, he admitted. "You can go," said his worship to Evelyn.

Youth Assaulted Mother

Carl St. Cyr was charged with assaulting his mother. "She drove me to hell," he insisted. He had been told to get out but his father had said he could stay. His mother came at him with firewood and a broom handle, he said in court.

It was the second time he had been charged with attacking his mother. "You can't be very much good," said Magistrate Atkinson, marking up a fine of $10 and costs, with the option of a 30 day term in jail. The young chap took the "time."

Must Protect Lives of Others

"If you come up again I'll take you driving license away from you permanently," the magistrate told Emilie Gervais when he fined him $25 and costs and suspended his driving permit for 30 days after convicting him on a charge of reckless driving. "I don't care if he is a taxi driver," he said in reply to defence counsel Charles Kerr's appeal to have the license returned. "It's not the insurance or the man I'm thinking of. It's the lives of other people."

According to Detective Sergeant Leo Gaegon, Gervais had passed two cars and a truck while going up Shankman's hill on August 25th at 2:25 p.m. One of them was the police car. "He wasn't going very fast," said the sergeant. "but he passed the car on the hill when he couldn't see what was coming. He did meet another car at the top of the hill and all three had to stop. Traffic was fairly heavy at the time."

Gervais, although he wasn't going more than 10 miles an hour, had not been on the right side of the road all the way up the hill, the sergeant said, in answer to questions of the defence.

Says Big Truck Backed Down

Gervais himself said he had not passed on the right of the dummy policeman at the corner of Mountjoy and Third because the dummy wasn't there. He claimed he had passed the police car on Wilson avenue, and that as he was about to go up Shankman's hill, he saw two heavily loaded lumber trucks ahead. One of them stalled and started to back down the hill, so he had pulled out to the left and continued up the hill, passing the other truck and meeting the car at the top. He admitted that he could not have seen any traffic coming down Third avenue.

John Kari lost a high-powered rifle and two gill nets when he was brought to court by Game Warden Phil Boudreau. A charge of carrying a rifle without a license was dismissed when Kari claimed he was going out to shoot a crippled horse, but the rifle was taken away from him because he is an alien. A conviction was registered in the charge of having gill nets without a license and a fine of $10 and costs with the option of 30 days in jail was set.

Another Permit Cancelled

Pete Kweitowsky paid $25 and costs and had his driving permit suspended for 30 days when he was convicted of reckless driving. Constable Devine said Pete had been driving a car at 35 miles an hour at 4:40 a.m. Sunday, had not slowed down for intersection, had gone speeding through stop signs and had narrowly missed hitting some parked cars along the way. When the police caught up with him at Birch and Seventh, they found him "unsteady."

Hector Savard is still in the hospital with a fractured skull. Crown Attorney S. A. Caldbick said when David LaPratt appeared on a charge of assault, it will be some time before he will be able to leave the place.

Defence counsel Anase Sorve said Savard had been seen on the street a few days ago, but it was said that the seriousness of Savard's injury had not been found until just a couple of days ago.

If the man is still unable to appear in court next week, the magistrate offered to go to the hospital and take his evidence so that the case may be cleared up. In the meantime, an adjournment was granted.

Fine Potatoes Offered at the Timmins Market

Selling on Tuesday at $2 per Bag. Rain Kept Buyers Away, but More Vendors than Usual. Only Two Stalls Unoccupied. Nearly Every Kind of Vegetable Grown in North for Sale.

Potatoes were the centre of interest at Tuesday's market in the ball park Clear, well-developed spuds from farms near the Mattagami, out of the frost belt, were going for $2.00 a bag—a low price compared with what potatoes will be bringing in Timmins within the next month or so.

Six quart baskets of the vegetable mainstay were bringing 25 cents and 30 cents while the 12-quart size sold at 45 to 50 cents.

Tuesday morning's steady rain kept buyers away but there were more vendors than ever. Only two stalls were unoccupied. Variety in produce gave the buyers plenty of opportunity to purchase almost every kind of vegetable grown in the North.

Meat was another popular item. Crates of live chickens supplied the demand for fowl and one or two farmers had displays of meat, home killed and home dressed. Rich cream was another good seller.

Carrots, turnips, parsnips, beets, onions, lettuce, rhubarb, chard, cabbage, cauliflowers—all fresh and crisp—sold at the usual low prices. Bunched vegetables were six bunches for 25 cents, with cabbage, cauliflower and head lettuce 5 cents up.

Brampton Conservator:—At least one Toronto Church has employed the "Knock" game in its announcement. Here it is: "Knock knock. Who's there? Manuel. Manuel who? Man, you'll feel better by attending our services." Many are the advertising methods employed by churches to attract those who do not attend.

Miraculous Escape in Accident at Kirkland

The Northern News, of Kirkland Lake on Friday last had the following: "Described by police who investigated as miraculous was the escape of Lauchie and Donald McLellan from serious injury when Lauchie McLellan's car somersaulted on the wet pavement after a collision near the Toburn turn on Labour Day with a machine driven by Fred Jawowski, 4 Crawford street, South Porcupine. McLellan, who lives at 97 Pollock, drove across in a curve near the junction of government road and the Larder Lake road, by which Jawowski's was entering Kirkland Lake. Jawowski's right front wheel clicked McLellan's right rear wheel. The McLellan car skidded 80 feet on the wrong side of the road, turned a complete somersault and came to rest on its right side. No injury was reported to any of the five occupants of the cars: the drivers; Nick Bren, South Porcupine; Fred Bey, 45 Main street, and Donald McLellan, Toburn property. A charge of reckless driving was laid against McLellan following the investigation of Constable John Currie."

Jubilee Singers at Kiwanis Club Here

All Delighted with Fine Music by Virginia Jubilee Singers on Monday.

The Virginia Jubilee Singers were the guests of the Kiwanis Club on Monday of this week and after the luncheon, business was laid aside while the musicians gave a few of the numbers for which they have earned recognition in Northern Ontario.

The Kiwanians insisted on hearing again. The male quartette had sung it the previous year when the singers were in town, and they were prevailed upon to repeat it.

Others were "The Battle of Jericho," "Great Change," and "Go Down Moses." "Great Change" was sung by the male quartette.

Some of the group have now been together for 15 years; and most of them have appeared on the stage from one end of the continent to the other for the past eight years. They came from many parts of the United States and were once a part of a large group of southern singers that eventually disbanded. Under Miss Gaskin, the present group was organized and has since become one of the best known. They are asked year after year to return to the same places. All now live in Chicago.

Brief reports were heard at the Kiwanis meeting from chairmen of committees. A. L. Herbert, president of the Cobalt Kiwanis Club; B. E. Peacock, Hamilton; and C. T. S. Evans, Bradford, were guests at the luncheon.

Cow at Sarnia Proves to be Regular Sissy Calf

A strange tale comes from Sarnia, Ont., appearing to prove the decadence of the South. According to the story a cow at Sarnia actually fainted while being milked. Despatches give assurance that there is no bull about it, but that the cow actually fainted. Miss Alma McKeegan, living so near Sarnia that the town must stand the onus of having a fainting cow, was milking a cow when the animal keeled over in a faint. The animal knocked the young lady off the milking stool and pinned her to the ground. Her calls attracted relatives to the scene and the young lady was released. There is some hope in the fact that the young lady did not faint. She was taken to Sarnia hospital where it was found that her shoulder had been fractured. Still the young lady did not faint. The cow is now reported all right again—at least as much all right as a fainting cow can be—and the young lady is making good progress to recovery from milking a cow that faints. With people in the South having cows that faint is it any wonder that the South does not understand the North?

Kincardine Review:—Toronto's civic officers, attired in top hats and cut-away coats, rose early to meet the Lord Mayor of London. They missed him because he wasn't all dressed up too. Just proving that clothes do not make the man.

As the opening feature of the Legion carnival the dog show on Monday night exceeded far the hopes of the sponsors—the Timmins and District Humane Society. Dog fanciers had little more than a week to prepare their entries, yet 75 of them turned up with a surprising number of well-bred animals—enough for 15 solid hours of judging, which had to be done in three.

From the Pekinese puppy, not as long as the ribbon it won, to the giant St. Bernard, German Shepherd Dog and Irish Wolfhound, the array was complete. What a kiddies' paradise the arena was that night! Dogs that answered the dreams of a childhood imagination were all there; dogs that were friendly; dogs that barked on the slightest pretext; dogs that stood by, noses distastefully high in the air; dogs that strained on their leashes so that when the show was over, they became well entangled with those in the crowd—and other dogs.

Prizes continued to arrive even after the show had begun. New classes were hurriedly opened.

Change Judges at Last Moment

The judge who was supposed to do the work failed to turn up, so John K. Massie and W. J. Mitchell took over the job. M. McKillop, organizer for the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was show superintendent. But since Mr. Mitchell, who was to have been show secretary, was pressed into service as a judge, records of the prize winners were necessarily incomplete.

A. A. Vine, captured the cup for the best dog in the show with "Rock Boy," white English bulldog with brindle markings, registered number 114670, born December 13, 1933, and sired by Marwell Shamrock (82322). Rock Boy weighs about 120 pounds.

The cup for the best puppy in the show went to Mrs. Dewar, who showed a cocker spaniel. Competition in this class was keen.

Ordinarily the 16 breeds entered in the show would call for 30 classes, but owing to the shortness of the time available and the fact that entries were accepted right up to the time of the show, these classifications could not be made.

Entry List

Included in the entries were: Scotch Terriers, shown by Miss Henderson, Schumacher; Mrs. A. A. Rose, Irish Wolfhound, shown by R. Eddleston.

Bull Terrier, shown by C. H. Tre-vanna.
Dalmatians, shown by C. W. Hodgins and M. McKillop.

Cocker Spaniels, shown by H. Parnell, Dr. L. Hudson, Elwood and Kathleen Farnell, Mrs. Dewar, J. Burkholder, and T. Wilson, South Porcupine.

May Form Kennel Club

The enthusiasm evident at the show has been a great encouragement to dog fanciers in Timmins and it is freely predicted that the Timmins and District Humane Society will sponsor a show of its own next fall or early winter, a better time for dog shows since coats have finished changing. The formation of a local kennel club is also predicted.

No youngster who brought a dog to the show went home without a prize. This was made possible, the judges said through the generosity of Dalton's Taxi, Mrs. E. L. Longmore, Dr. McInnis, A. R. Harkness, O'Hearn and Co., Rinn Bros, C. A. Remus and F. Burt.

Arnprior Chronicle:—Mushrooms grow in the fields on all sides of Arnprior, but at noon on Wednesday an Arnpriorite picked one on John street very close to the intersection of John and McConagall streets and there were others there also.
