South End and Dome to Present Operetta

"Mother Goose" to be Given by School Children. Other South Porcupine News.

South Porcupine, Ont., Sept. 23rd. Special to The Advance.

The following extract from the Toronto Star will be of interest to all friends of Mr. James Sharp, who has just brought his bride back to South Porcupine from their honeymoon:—"First Nazarene Church (Toronto) was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Miss Ruby Weir and Mr. James Sharp, of South Porcupine were united in marriage by the Rev. W. M. Maguire. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Weir, Jarvis street, and the groom is the son of W. H. Sharp and the late Mrs. Sharp, of Devonshire, Lillicut, Scotland. The church was decorated with Cyclotium fern and Sunburst gladioli. The bride looked charming in a gown of tropical blue cobweb lace trimmed with pink chiffon velvet with large mohair hat and matching accessories. She carried a shower bouquet of Talisman roses, lily-of-the-valley and sprigs of white heather, sent from Scotland by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Bella Sharp. She was escorted to the altar by her father and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Jessie Wilson, of Cleveland, Ohio, who was gowned in flowered chiffon in autumn shades, large brown picture hat and matching accessories. Her fan-shaped bouquet was of sunburst gladioli, Johanna Hill roses and white heather. Mr. Peter Sharp, brother of the groom, was best man, ushering were Messrs. Oliver Wilson, and John Condie Jr., nephews of the bride and groom. Mrs. James Foster, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. John Condie. The bride's mother received, gowned in navy blue and silver crepe with corsage of Columbia roses. Mrs. Condie also received gowned in mauve and gold crepe with corsage of Briarcliff roses. The bride couple left for Montreal and the Eastern States, the bride travelling in a printed crepe dress, smart tweed coat with fox fur collar, brown hat and accessories. On their return they will live in South Porcupine."

Born—On Monday, Sept. 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. I. Anderson, of Railroad street, in the Tisdale hospital—twin girls.

Mr. Orville Bush left on Sunday for Toronto where he will resume his studies at Varsity.

Mr. Sylvester Kennedy left on the noon train on Wednesday for Toronto on business.

Mr. Lionel Conacher, of Toronto, and of hockey fame, who has been in South Porcupine on business for some days, left on Tuesday for a duck and goose hunting trip in the James Bay district.

Congratulations to the Dome Football Club on winning the Boxer cup from McIntyre on Tuesday. To "Billy" Whyte belongs the glory for scoring the winning goal that clinched matters.

Messrs. Reg. Roche and Jack Burke, of Forest, Ont., were in town on Tuesday on business.

Mr. "Paddy" Barry, of Barry-Hollinger, was in town this week on business.

Mrs. Leigh Bladen, of Main street, entertained on Tuesday evening in honour of Mrs. Lex Lovergan (nee Miss Bess Hendry). About a dozen of the recent bride's girl friends were present and she was made the recipient of a miscellaneous shower of beautiful and useful articles. During the evening each guest sewed a dish towel which was also put among the gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Next Sunday is Rally Sunday at the United Church, in addition to being the "Harvest Home" Sunday. The morning service at 11 o'clock is to be conducted by the children of the Sunday school, and at the evening service special music will be rendered. The church will, of course, be decorated for the occasion.

Mr. Owen Hughes, of West Dome, is to be congratulated on his lucky escape in the mine on Monday. He was buried by a fall of loose earth up to his neck but was rescued and actually walked home afterwards. No serious injury was apparent.

Once more the pupils of our Dome and South Porcupine public schools are coming into the limelight. This time with an operetta, "Mother Goose," which they have been working on more or less since last May. Miss Theresa Burns, who has won herself a name with other musical events in public school work is in charge of this and we can only say that if this latest effort comes up to the standard of "The Magic Ruby," "Princess Chrysantheum," etc., it will be a musical treat for all of us not to miss. The other public school teachers have each helped in some way—costumes, dances, etc., all needing assistance, have been well taken care of by them. Parents are doing their share too, in helping Miss Burns make this operetta go over in a big way. The results Monday, October 5th, in the High School auditorium, of all this practicing, planning, trouble and effort will be seen when "Mother Goose" with numerous stars, with dialogue, dance, diversion and drama, to say nothing of chorus and charm, will be presented. And we will be there!

Glee Club Program at South Porcupine

South Porcupine, Ont., Sept. 24th. Special to The Advance.

The Glee Club is now preparing for a fall and winter programme of a wide and varied character. The dramatic section gives promise of a wide scope for local talent, while the social activities of the club offer attractions that should appeal strongly. The study of "Handel's Messiah" is planned in addition to other music this season. New members are desired. The club meets each Tuesday in the United Church at 8 p.m.

The Harvest Festival services in St. Paul's Anglican Church were well attended on Sunday at both services. The church had been beautifully decorated with garden flowers, fruit and vegetables by the ladies of the various organizations on Saturday. Archdeacon Woodall officiated at the services.

The Archdeacon left on Monday to attend the Board meeting of the General Synod to be held in the Cody Memorial hall of St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, Toronto this week. He wishes it announced that there will be no 8 a.m. Communion on Sunday morning next as announced. The Rev. Ernest Hayes, of Iroquois Falls, will preach here at the evening service on Sunday next, and the Archdeacon will conduct the Harvest Festival services at St. Mark's Church, Iroquois Falls.

Porcupine. Two of our young people who are very popular, were married by the Father—Ruby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Richardson, of Dome Extension, and Eddie Chapman, of Dome Mines. The bride's brother Irvin was present as witness.

The bride looked very nice in a suit of navy blue taffeta with navy hat and shoes. After the ceremony they returned to the bride's home, where the wedding breakfast had been prepared. Soon after, they left by car for a honeymoon in Hamilton, Buffalo and other points. The bride wore a violet silk suit and velvet hat to travel in. On their return they will take up residence in Mr. Coffey's house, Connaught Hill. We extend to the happy couple our very best wishes for their future happiness.

Mrs. Libby, of Dome Ex., was hostess at a reception and bride to Mrs. Christine Allen, Grand President of the Rebekah Assembly, on Saturday evening. A very happy time was spent with bridge, etc., and a nice lunch served to the guests, some of whom came in from Timmings. Prize winners at bridge were: 1. Mrs. W. W. Wilson; 2. Mrs. L. Pyke. The president left on Monday for Kirkland Lake.

Mr. "Bud" Mayes, hockey player, left on Saturday for Toronto, to return soon with a bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallinger, lately resident at the Hunter Mine, have built a new home in Lakeview and have lately moved in to take up residence there.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in St. Paul's Anglican Church here on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. when Miss Mary Eleanor Moore, daughter of Mrs. Grace Moore, of Hoyle, became the bride of Lawrence Walter Haddon, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Haddon, of Lakeview.

The bride looked very pretty in a gown of pale blue sheer with white hat and accessories and carried a bouquet of talisman roses with a corsage bouquet to match.

Her matron of honour was her sister, Mrs. R. Fisher, of Timmings, who was attired in printed chiffon with white hat and accessories.

Mr. Charles Long, of Hoyle, acted as best man, and the ushers were Messrs E. Frost, R. Moore, of Hoyle, Mr. G. Moore, of Hoyle, gave the bride away.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble while the bridegroom's mother wore a rust crepe dress with black accessories.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Fisher, in Timmings. The honeymoon will be spent on a motor tour to the South. The bride's going-away suit was of blue tweed with platinum fox fur and grey hat.

On their return the young couple will take up residence in Lakeview. To both we extend heartfelt good wishes for a bright and happy future.

Brockville Recorder and Times:—Current newspaper illustration shows Hon. A. W. Roebuck hobnobbing with King Edward at Buckingham Palace, which represents considerable progress since the Attorney-General was editor, business manager, reporter, linotype operator and pressman of the Temiskaming Herald.

Huntingdon Gleaner:—"Hungry as a bear" is not idle phrase, as Charles S. McVerigh discovered in his camp near Sebago Lake, Maine. The bear got into the camp kitchen some time during the night, tipped over a 100-pound ice box and ate six dozen eggs, four pounds of butter and three pounds of bacon.

Canada's great ocean liner, the Empress of Britain, on which they travelled.
F. W. Schumacher, of Columbus, Ohio, was a guest at the meeting and expressed his pleasure at seeing so many of the men he had known in the early days of the camp.
Past President Arch Gillies was chairman for the meeting in the absence of P. T. Moisy, who was at the Quebec convention. Gordon Archibald was pianist and W. O. Langdon led in the singing for the day.
It is expected that S. D. Rendall, inspector of high schools, will be the guest speaker at the next Kiwanis meeting.

Mr. CAFFEINE - NERVES . . . he gets expelled from school

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU HELEN? YOU SEEM TO BE TRYING TO MAKE ME CROSS. WHY DON'T YOU BEHAVE?

SHE KNOWS YOU'RE NOT FEELING WELL. SHE MIGHT SHOW YOU A LITTLE CONSIDERATION!

YOU'RE WANTED IN THE PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE RIGHT AWAY, MISS SIMPSON.

IF THAT OLD BUSYBODY STARTS BAWLING YOU OUT, TELL HIM WHERE TO HEAD IN!

NOW, WHAT ON EARTH DO YOU SUPPOSE HE WANTS!

MISS SIMPSON, A NUMBER OF PARENTS HAVE COMPLAINED ABOUT YOUR BEING CROSS AND MEAN WITH THE CHILDREN.

I TRY TO BE EVEN-TEMPERED, MR. JONES, BUT I'M NOT SLEEPING WELL, AND HAVE HEAD-ACHES AND INDIGESTION.

AW—TELL HIM TO HUSH. MOST PARENTS ARE SABS ABOUT THEIR OWN CHILDREN! THEY'D COMPLAIN ANYWAY.

YOU SAY YOU DRINK LOTS OF TEA AND COFFEE? HAVE YOU SEEN A DOCTOR? PERHAPS YOU HAVE CAFFEINE-NERVES. WHY DON'T YOU GIVE UP TEA AND COFFEE FOR AT LEAST A MONTH AND DRINK POSTUM INSTEAD?

WELL... IF YOU THINK IT WOULD HELP ME I'LL TRY IT!

YOWEE! CURSES! AND JUST WHEN I THOUGHT I COULD GET HER FIRED... POSTUM DRIVES ME OUT!

MARVELOUS—WHAT A CHANGE! YOU HAVE BECOME SUCH A FAVORITE WITH THE CHILDREN.

I'M GLAD, SINCE I SWITCHED TO POSTUM I'VE BEEN SLEEPING BETTER, MY HEADACHES AND INDIGESTION HAVE DISAPPEARED, AND I FEEL LIKE LIVING!

MANY PEOPLE, of course, can safely drink tea and coffee. But there are thousands and thousands of others who cannot. And, without realizing it, you may be one of these.

The caffeine found in both tea and coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, upset your digestion or undermine your nervous system.

If you suspect that tea and coffee disagree with you... switch to POSTUM for 30 days. POSTUM is a delicious drink, and contains nothing that can possibly harm you. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. It is economical and easy to prepare.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—Free. Write for it to Consumer Service Dept., General Foods, Limited, Cobourg, Ontario.

Two Weddings Held at South Porcupine
One at Anglican Church and the Other at House of Father Gelinas. Other South End News.

South Porcupine, Ont., Sept. 23rd, 1936. Special to The Advance.

A very quiet wedding took place on Friday morning, Sept. 18th, at 9 a.m. in the house of Father Gelinas, South
