Fine Potatoes Featured at Market on Tuesday

One Settler Brought in Sixteen Bags of the Best Just as the Market Seemed About to Run Out of Potatoes. General Interest in This Mountjoy Brand of Potatoes.

Just when the Tuesday market was about to run out of potatoes, a farmer from Mountjoy township who owns a homestead about three miles from town and about a mile from the Mattagami river, drove in with a load of 16 bags of the finest potatoes seen yet at the market.

Other farmers who saw the vegetables were loud in their praise and wanted to know the exact location of the farm, the type of soil and everything else. "They didn't get a bit of the frost," he said. Farmers not far away lost almost all their potatoes and a good part of their other crops.

The "spuds" were all about the same size—two, three, and three and a half inches in diameter and were sold at the market's standard price—$2.00 a bag, 50 cents a 12 quart basket, or 30 cents a six quart basket.

Otherwise, Tuesday was a quiet market day. Some stalls were vacant but those that were occupied did a steady business. Meats were probably the most popular items of the day. Freshly cut pork and beef found ready sale.

If potatoes are scarcer than usual, carrots, beets, turnips, parsnips and other root crops seem to be plentiful. Turnips were offered at $2.00 a bag while the other stuff sold at six bushels for a quarter and four for fifteen cents.

Market on Thursday is usually busier than Tuesday but Saturday is by far the biggest day.

Hart House String Quartet Not Touring Canada in 1936

For the past twelve years the Hart House String Quartet has devoted its time almost exclusively to concerts in Canada, and has only accepted engagements abroad when these did not conflict with the Canadian tours.

This year the number of engagements outside Canada has increased to such an extent, that the Quartet has decided to devote the whole of this coming season to fulfilling these engagements.

For the first time since its inception in 1924, the Hart House Quartet will be unable to accept concert engagements in Canada, and the annual Toronto series of concerts in Hart House Theatre and O'Connell Hall will be suspended for one year.

The Quartet has left for New York, Mexico and Cuba until April 1937. It then leaves immediately for England where two London recitals and a tour of the British Isles is already booked. This will be followed by tours in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Holland and Russia. The Quartet will celebrate its return to Canada by resuming the annual series of Toronto recitals, the first of which will take place in December 1937.

Schumacher Dance by Firemen, Oct. 28th

Noted Annual Event Announced to be Bigger and Better than Ever.

Announcement is made of the annual dance of the Schumacher Firemen. The event this year is to be held in the Croatian hall, Schumacher, on Wednesday, Oct. 28th. There will be round and square dancing. This year there are to be three cash prizes, $25, $15 and $10. The floor of the Croatian hall is one of the very best, and that's that! The music is to be the best, as usual, and that's that! And the refreshments? Well, past successes have left memories of the excellent "eats" and that's that! So altogether the event may be expected in all confidence to be a most enjoyable occasion. In past years the Schumacher Firemen's Dance has attracted attendance not only from Schumacher but from Timmins, South Porcupine and other places in the district. This year this outside attendance should be even larger than usual for everybody these days likes a good time.

In the meantime it would be well to mark October 28th on the calendar.

Hit and Run Driver Injures Man at Scene of Accident

Sudbury police were searching this week for a hit-and-run driver who drove through a crowd of spectators and passengers at the scene of an automobile accident on the Copper Cliff Road, just west of Gatchell subdivision, at 12.35 Sunday morning, striking Leslie Wingrave, Copper Cliff Road, and knocking him to the pavement with a fractured leg.

While Wingrave was rushed to St. Joseph's hospital in a semi-conscious condition, Constable Joe Mulligan, of McKim township, who had been investigating the first accident, gave chase, but failed to overtake the fleeing sedan.

Wingrave was standing on the highway, while Constable Mulligan examined the brakes of the sedan owned by J. C. Rose, Frood Mine, which a few minutes before had crashed into the rear of Wingrave's car, causing considerable damage. Rose had sustained a slight scalp wound. Passengers out of both sedans were crowding around as the investigation proceeded, when suddenly the hit-and-run car hurtled into view, careening through the crowd and knocking Wingrave to the pavement.

In scurrying out of the path of the coming car, some of the witnesses shoved against the open door of the Rose car catching Constable Mulligan's leg and causing slight injuries.

Man With Record Given Six Months' Hard Labour

Charged with Stealing a Pay Cheque, Skladen Protested his Innocence, but was Positively Identified. Dismissed on a "Peeping" Charge. Albert Moses, Charged with Arson, Freed on $1000 Bail. Other Cases Tuesday.

How the Lady Learned to Drive the Old Motor Car

(From The Blairmore Enterprise)
He had offered to teach her to drive: "Now, we're all set. Just turn the jigger over and push on the hickey with your left hand and pull down on the other little jimcrack with your right; then press down the doodad with your foot and pull the thimblebob at the same time, and when it starts you push down on the doofunny with your left foot and yank the umptydiddy back; then let up on the foot dings and put your other foot on the hickey-madoodle; and don't forget to push down on the hootnanny every time you move the whatyoucallit, and you'll be hunkydoree, see?"

A man with a record of three convictions in Kirkland Lake and one in Cochrane had a fifth added to the growing list here on Tuesday when Magistrate Atkinson sentenced Joseph Skladen to a term of six months at hard labour. This time the charge was stealing a pay cheque from G. Blanchet, employee of the Delnite mine. Other convictions were for theft, breaking and entering, and forgery.

Skladen protested he was innocent. "There must be some mistake," said he when Mr. Kleinman identified him as the man who had tried to cash the $43.85 cheque at Friedman's store on August 26th.

Said It Was His Cheque
"There's no mistake at all," Kleinman told the magistrate. "He spoke to me for about 20 minutes. It was on a Wednesday near closing time. I asked him to come to the bank with me. When we got to the bank door, he ran away." The man had said it was his own cheque.

Skladen insisted he had never had the cheque, had never been to the store and had never seen the man. He admitted all his previous convictions but said he had a "good job now at the mine."

He was caught by police through an accurate description given of him by a woman who had seen him peeping in the window of her home one night.

Blanchet, the man who had lost the cheque, said he had never seen Skladen around the Delnite at all. On August 23rd he had left his pay cheque, and his purse, containing $2.50 in his pants in one of the bunkhouses at the Delnite. All had been stolen. The one produced in evidence was certainly his pay cheque, Blanchet said, but he had not endorsed it. He will get a new one.

Skladen was dismissed on the charge of "peeping." The woman who had identified him as the man who had been hanging around Elm street south did not appear.

"What am I going to do?" asked the magistrate. "There's no evidence."
That charge was dismissed.

Mosca Bail Set at $1,000
Albert Moses who appeared on a charge of arson, was remanded a week on the request of Dean Kester, K.C., who said he had been consulted just that morning and was not prepared to proceed.

Mr. Caldbeck explained that Moses had just been arrested the previous day but that since he had been a resident here for many years, only a small amount of bail—$25—was asked. But if there was to be a remand, he asked that bail be increased.

Mr. Kester agreed that if there was anything behind the charge, the bail was certainly small.

In the end Nick Ferris and S. Habib went bail of $500 each and Moses was bound over in the sum of $1,000.

Assaulted Roommate
Thomas Vilgus paid a fine of $10 and costs for assaulting Edward Mollar on September 20th. Mollar said he had received his pay check on Saturday and had told his roommate, Vilgus, that he would not be back until the following day. When he did return Vilgus had greeted him with the question: "Where's my $10.75?"

"He accused me of robbery," said Mollar. "He kicked me all over the back. My face and ears are marked. I didn't defend myself at all."

Leo Biegia, occupant of a neighbouring room, heard the scrap and went over, "kind of parted them," and went back to his own room. He had seen the two of them "locked up together."

Vilgus said the argument had started about Mollar wearing his clothes. They got into a fight. He didn't know who struck the first blow.

Fined for Indecent Exposure
Frank Kirwan was given the option of paying a fine of $25 and costs or going to jail for 30 days. He "didn't know what it meant" when he was accused of exposing himself indecently before an 11-year-old boy. When Constable Guolla and the boy had told their stories the conviction was made. Kirwan said the boys "wouldn't leave him alone" after he had bought a few of them ice cream cones. Constable Guolla's suspicions had been aroused when he saw the boy and the man disappear behind some logs.

Oliver Pajala pleaded not guilty to having stolen two fishing rods, a quantity of tackle, a haversack, a hunting knife and some other things from F. C. Robinson. Police asked an adjournment to complete their investigation of the case. Pajala is on summons.

Another House Made Public
Nick Pauff, 175 Maple street, north, pleaded guilty to having liquor not purchased in accordance with the regulations of the Liquor Control Act. He had 55 pints of beer on hand when the police stepped in. The fine was $25 and costs and the Pauff place was made public for a year.

"If they don't think enough of it to come here and give evidence, I'll let him go," said the magistrate when the chief witness in another "peeping" case in which the woman who had identified the peeker had failed to appear. "Don't go peeping in windows any more," the magistrate told the man. "You may go."

Blocking a laneway was the charge against one local hotel owner. It was discovered that the building inspector had granted permission, so the charge was dropped.

Must Pay Wages
G. L. McDonald admitted owing workmen a total of $102.75. He was told to pay them all within eight days or appear in court next week with his reasons. He thinks the contract will be completed within that time and he will be able to pay. "Try to get them all squared up," the magistrate advised him.

Six first offence drunks were fined $10 and costs but it was one young woman's second offence so her rate was $50 and costs.

A charge of selling liquor, laid by provincial police against Arthur Pa-pineau, was adjourned one week. Bail is $500.

Two speeders paid $10 fines; two who had defective brakes on their cars paid the same amount; two who had no driver's permits were assessed the same. Having no rear-vision mirror cost one truck owner $1 and costs; failing to stop at a stop sign, and illegal parking were convictions registered against three others.

Disorderly conduct on the street cost one citizen a $10 fine.

Here's a Cornish Joke Just for a Change in Humour

(From Simcoe Reformer)
In the train, bound for London, a Cornishman produced and devoured a large pastry. Soon he began to double himself up with an expression of acute pain on his face.
"It's that pastry," he groaned to a sympathetic inquirer. "My wife put some nuts in it, and she must have forgotten to shell them!"
"Good Heavens!" the other exclaimed. "And can you crack them just by bending?"

United States visitors by the score have been complaining about the absence of Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto. Just like going to South Africa and not seeing a lion.
