

Notable Address on Art at South Porcupine Event

North Temiskaming and Cochrane Teachers' Convention Outstanding in Every Way. Banquet on Thursday Evening and Dance Among the Special Features of the Occasion

South Porcupine, Ont., Oct. 14, 1936. Special to The Advance.

One of the best conventions ever held by the Northern Temiskaming and Cochrane (in part) Teachers' Association was the unanimous verdict of the members after this 1936 convention held in South Porcupine on Thursday and Friday of last week.

A detailed programme was given in last week's Advance, but of special interest was the address given by J. W. Beatty, R.C.A.; the banquet of Thursday evening; and the dance following in the High School.

Mr. Beatty's lecture was attended not only by all the visiting teachers, but by many interested townspeople. He gave a number of slides of pictures painted by Canadians at the end of his lecture, which proved a good finale to his address. His lecture dealt with art as applied to Canada. From the earliest year, 1834, that art at all was recognized in Canada, he gave its history to the present day. In the days of our pioneering forefathers art was a thing outside their ken—struggling with snake fences, and farming lands, the painting of pictures was left to Europe where people had time to do it.

The first "genuine" Canadian artist, born in Canada, was Paul Kane, whose parents came to Canada in 1813. In 1872 the Society of Canadian Artists, with W. H. Howland as its first president, was formed. Then in 1873 an exhibition of 250 pictures was given in Toronto by the Art Union. The Royal Canadian Academy was formed by the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise, and the membership was very select.

Mr. Beatty mentioned many artists—best known of all being Paul Peet and Tom Thompson. He gave the sad life history of the former, and mentioned the untimely death of the latter as a tragedy.

A vote of thanks to M. Beatty was proposed by Mr. Evans and seconded by Mr. Harkness.

At the banquet which was put on by the ladies of the United Church, and was excellent in every way, the Master of Ceremonies was Mr. J. D. Deyell, of Swastika. The toast to the King was given, and a toast to "Education" proposed by Miss Patterson, of Englehart. This was replied to by C. L. Martin, of Englehart. "The Teaching Profession" was a toast proffered by Miss Easton of Kirkland Lake.

During the banquet the singing of Miss McDonald, of Kirkland Lake, was much appreciated. Community singing between the courses was led by Miss Pülcher and Miss K. Wright.

The dance at the High School was an exceptionally pleasant social affair. Many of our leading townspeople were present and the visitors spoke in glowing terms of the hospitality received, and the good time given them in South Porcupine.

Miss B. M. C. Shaw, Miss Lynch and the other members of our teaching staffs desire to express their grateful thanks to all the good citizens of our community who opened their homes to the visitors and made them welcome. They appreciate extremely the many little acts of thoughtful kindness shown by townspeople in helping to put over this convention successfully.

Our teachers are doing their part in helping our children to be good citizens. We—as good citizens—appreciate their efforts, and feel that they are deserving of our co-operation at all times.

The new officers elected (as far as we could obtain names) are:—

Hon. President—Miss B. M. C. Shaw, South Porcupine.

President—Mr. Maloney, of Porquis Junction.

Vice-President—Mr. Henry, of Matheson.

Secretary—Miss Duhaime, of Iroquois Falls.

Treasurer—Mr. McDermid, of Kirkland Lake.

Librarian—Miss Mary Hutchinson of Iroquois Falls.

for temporary use.

Service taps for two residents were also granted.

No culvert across the ditch at Gold Centre is to be put in.

The relief officer, Mr. McKay, is to bring in a report on relief at the next council meeting.

Sidewalks are to be laid in the new Huot area—Dome street—at once.

Sidewalks are also to be laid on Kerr street, east side, between Golden and Bruce avenues.

Cy-Laws Nos. 441 and 442 were read. No. 441 states:—Being a by-law regulating milk and cream produced for sale—offered for sale, or sold within the township of Tisdale—be now read a first and second time, and forwarded to the Provincial Department of Health for their approval before receiving its final reading.

That By-law No. 442 being a by-law regulating the nature, sale, care and storing of ice-cream, be now read a first and second time and forwarded to the Provincial Department of Health for their approval before receiving its final reading.

Approval was given to the sub-division of plan of the south half of Lot 1, Concession 3 (Helmer townsite) in the township of Tisdale, made by C. V. Gallagher, O.E.S., dated October 6th.

Reference was made during the convention to K-Ray, official organ of the Ontario-Quebec-Maritime Kiwanis clubs known as one of the best district magazines on the continent, and to the work done on it by J. Smyth Carter, the editor.

Funeral

The funeral of Lyman Dillman, of Golden City, the 14-year-old lad who was so tragically killed in a car accident last Wednesday, took place on Saturday afternoon from his parents' home—the log house on Station road. All the residents of Golden City feel the deepest sympathy toward the sorrowing parents and brothers of the lad, who although only of four years' residence here, they consider of their own community. Major Hillier of Timmins Salvation Army, with Mrs. Smith, who holds services in Golden City weekly, conducted the short service in the home from whence the cortege left for South Porcupine cemetery where the burial took place. Many cars of sympathizing friends followed to the cemetery. His school chums acted as pallbearers—Douglas Smith, Bernie Rotondo, Alvin Bannerman, Franklin Maki, Jackie Wilson, Arvo Pishka, Ross Wilson and Robert Hortie. Besides the parents, two brothers, Jack, 19, and Mike, 17, are left to mourn his loss. We extend our sympathies in common with Golden City to the mourners.

Guide, Ranger and Cub News

The Girl Guides are now meeting regularly on Wednesdays in the parish hall. Owing to the girls having school homework to do, the time is to be made shorter. They meet now from 6 p.m. to 7:30. The Captain tells us that they have room now for a few more nice girls to join up with the Company. Apply through any Guide. And one social evening a month is to be granted them.

The leaders of the different patrols now are: Oriole, Betty Cummings, Marion Strand; Snowdrop, Valerie Bessette, Isabel Rapsey; Honesty, Elaine Dogue, Audrey Jamieson; Forget-Me-Not, Joan Maxwell-Smith and Lillian Kaufman.

The Rangers—open to all girls over 16 who would like to be Guides but are over age—are also meeting regularly at the home of their lieutenant, Mrs. Bessette. Last Wednesday they did social service work for the hospital, and made their own ties. This winter they are going to take up first aid and telegraphing with a possibility of French conversation.

The Cubs meet on Friday at the Scout hall, and arranged a social party in honour of Bill Hall, Scout leader, who has recently been married. A wedding present of a very nice cake plate was made to Bill during the evening. The presentation was made by Scouter J. Dogue, Senior Sixer of the pack.

Chimneys Must Be Safe

Two fire alarms during the storm of Sunday night put our firemen on their toes. Both proved to be chimney fires—one at the Finn boarding house on Bruce avenue, the other—which occurred just after the firemen had got soundly off to sleep again—was at the house of Mr. J. Johnston, Main street.

The fire chief says that the by-law regulating construction of chimneys should be strictly adhered to. The fire brigade is checking up, and any new construction contrary to the by-law will be condemned. For further instructions consult the fire chief.

Caught in Elevator; Lived Nearly a Week

Albert Zulis, 21-year-old Mill Worker at Buffalo-Ankerite, Dies from Injuries in Accident.

Caught in a bucket elevator at the Buffalo Ankerite mine last week when the machine was started, Albert Zulis, 21-year-old mill worker, suffered such severe injuries that he died on Tuesday of this week.

The tube mill had been shut down while repairs were being made and well before it was started again, the men were warned. Zulis crawled into the elevator through a small trapdoor at the top, without having told anyone where he was going. He left no sign outside the trapdoor and had no light inside.

An operator turned on the tube mill and the elevator, but stopped it again almost instantly when Zulis' screams were heard. "He was apparently anxious to finish the job and just took a chance—a chance he certainly should not have taken," a mine official told The Advance yesterday.

Zulis had been employed at the Buffalo Ankerite for the past six months and was well liked by his fellow workers. His body was so badly cut and bruised when taken from the elevator that there was little hope of his recovery.
