Timmins Kiwanis Meet at S. Porcupine

busy streets. Mr. Brown had a vision of the tremendous possibilities that could be realized by uniting the energy of a number of people in one object for the good of a community. That was the beginning of Kiwanis, now an international organization of nearly 2,000 clubs and nearly 100,000 members. Kiwanis has no creed or politics, he said, but stands solidly behind every church and organization that works for the betterment of underprivileged children. The sphere of Kiwanis activity has extended from the Mexican border on the south to Timmins in the north.
Canadians have often been prominent in Kiwanis International. One of the most outstanding international presidents was Henry Elliott of Montreal. At one international meeting, one of the best speakers was Rev. William Johnson then of Montreal, but now of Toronto. Though he spoke after a number of other prominent Kiwanians and his chances of being heard seemed small, he caught the interest of his audience from the beginning and held it all the way through.
Communities Need Service Clubs
Every community to-day should have a service club. Mr. Lynch said in explaining why South Porcupine should have a Kiwanis organization. Life at the present time is geared so highly that the finer things are being shoved into the background. "Our forefathers in a primitive way possessed a spirit of co-operation, and neighbourliness that was a great factor in building up Canada as we know it to-day," said the speaker. A member of a Kiwanis club enjoys the lighter side of life but behind it, all planning is constantly going on for the benefit of those who are less fortunate in the things of this life. "Kiwanis does not want a man's money. Kiwanis wants and needs the man himself and his personal effort."
There is no worldly gain in Kiwanis, Mr. Lynch said, and anyone is foolish who goes into a club expecting it. Kiwanis is bigger than creeds but not bigger than religion, he said. If a man is a good Kiwanian, he is a good citizen and the visitors to Mr. Lynch.

Council Seeking to Give Sewer Service

line," said the mayor.
The town's idea is to build a street at the same place as the sewer line to avoid making jogs in the new town streets that will have to be built there some time in the near future.
Mr. Cousins asked that a meeting be called right away to discuss the business but the mayor said they had agreed to hold a relief meeting after the regular session.
"Nothing But a Death Trap"
"It's nothing but a death trap down there," said a petitioner, referring to the district in which his home is. He told a story of a child that had fallen into a basement full of water and had nearly drowned. There is not a "full sized water main" in the neighbourhood, he said, and the fire danger is serious.
"It all goes back to previous work," said the mayor.
The petitioner had a scheme whereby owners of individual lots in the district agreed to give property for the sewer line that would make it take a jogging course through that part of the town.
More Money for Moneta Sewer
A resolution making a change in the amount of money set aside for sanitary sewers under a recent by-law raised that amount from $7,500 to $10,000. Under a new plan for serving the homes in Moneta near the Pine street crossing of the railroad, the sewer line will be taken through T. & N. O. property where there are better working conditions and an extra 12 homes will be served as a result of the new route. It makes a much longer sewer, but at a lower cost per foot, since there is practically no rock on the newer route.
Other council news appears in another column of to-day's Advance.

Haileybury Man Buys Car Barns at North Cobalt

North Cobalt, Nov. 12.—(Special to The Advance)—Announcement was made to-day that the large brick building here formerly used by the Nipissing Central Railway as a car barn for its rolling stock has been purchased by P. M. Fleming, Haileybury business man. The building has not been in use since the street railway service formerly maintained between Cobalt and New Liskeard was abandoned in February of last year. The new owner's plans have not been disclosed, but it is expected he will use the building for handling part of his contracting business. The sale price has not been revealed.

Woman Injured as Car and Truck Crash

After Collision Truck Slides into Board Fence.
One woman was admitted to St. Mary's hospital early this morning as the result of a collision between a car in which she was riding and a truck on Wilson avenue near Wilcox at 12.30 a.m. The truck was driven by Gerald Julien, 43 Middleton avenue, and the car by Euclid Chenier, 202 Elm street south.
After the collision, the truck slid on the road and ended across the sidewalk and against a board fence. The windshield, steering wheel and left front fender of the car were smashed.
No charges have been laid.

zen. Kiwanis makes a man think more deeply about his own home; he gives less feverish attention to his business and welcomes the opportunity to become better acquainted with his own family.
C. P. Walker, of South Porcupine, expressed the thanks of the club members and the visitors to Mr. Lynch.

Badly Burned Father of Five Children who Died in Fire at Home Last Week Making Brave Battle for Life.
Arthur Charbonneau, father of the five children who died in the fire here on Saturday evening last, and who was himself seriously burned as he tried to rescue them, is still seriously ill in St. Mary's hospital, according to a report from his doctor early this afternoon. There has been no improvement in his condition during the past few days.
He was so seriously burned that at first it seemed impossible that he should be able to recover at all. His fight to live and the skilful medical attention that has been given enabled him to hold his own during the first few days.

Temiskaming District Asks Special Films for Children

Owners and operators of moving picture theatres in the Temiskaming district will be approached by representatives of the Temiskaming District Children's Aid Society with the suggestion that greater provision be made for the showing of films suitable for children. Directors and officers of the Children's Aid of Temiskaming were in conference at Kirkland Lake over the week-end and it was thought by this meeting that some of the programmes shown were not at all suited to children, and yet were largely attended by youngsters. No fault was found with the programmes as shown so far as adults were concerned, but some did not seem the right sort for youngsters. The theatres that will be approached in the matter include theatres at Kirkland Lake, Cobalt, New Liskeard and Englehart.

Advertising Often Is a Nuisance on the Radio

(Toronto Mail and Empire)
Broadcasting has apparently come to stay as a source of pleasure and of information. But citizens who have paid considerable sums for their radio receivers are frequently annoyed by the intrusion of offensive advertising. They have a remedy by turning off the radio, but that remedy lessens correspondingly the value of the instruments to them. This in turn affects the business of manufacturing radio receivers representing a very large investment and employing many thousands of employees. On this feature, Radio Trade-Builders say:
"Many expert observers are of the opinion that spot announcements are making the grade steeper and steeper for the radio industry which relies upon programme standards for its existence. Let's hope the new radio board will do something to help the situation in Canada at least and level off the gradient of radio receiver sales resistance by eliminating many of these irritating spot announcements which are spoiling the listener's entertainment."
The British Broadcasting Corporation does not permit advertising. Circumstances in Canada are different and the money received from advertising is more firmly established. But the Canadian Broadcast Corporation can make a start by cutting out the offensive spot, claims the periodical to which we have referred.

Service clubs have attained much popularity in the North. In addition to the Kiwanis at Timmins and South Porcupine, and the Lions at Timmins and Schumacher, there has been talk of a Lions Club at South End. The Kiwanis have a strong club at Kirkland Lake, but at present it is understood the Rotary Club has been planning to organize at Kirkland, while there is also said to be a possibility of a Lions Club at Kirkland.

Says She was Carried Away in Nightdress

Story of Being Held by Force in Shack with Little Food Results in Arrest.

Alleging that she was taken from her home on Main avenue by force late Saturday night while dressed only in a nightgown, taken by car to a shack near Cook's lake and kept there on bread and butter and jam rations for two days, Irene Morin swore out an information for assault with intent to do bodily harm and a warrant for the arrest of a Timmins married man.

She shows the marks of battle. A black eye, and bruises on her face and arms she claims she suffered when she resisted the man who carried her off to the shack.

She was asleep Saturday night when this young man broke into the house, she says. He awakened her and forced her to go along with him. She tried to fight him off but couldn't, she says. The man dumped her in a car and drove off quickly out the Mountjoy township road toward Cook's lake where he kept her in a shack for two days with very little to eat. On Tuesday morning, he returned her to her home.

Same Triangle as Former Case
The young man, his wife and the woman in this case are the three who were mixed up a few weeks ago in a stabbing case, in which the man's wife alleges she found her husband with Irene Morin. The husband then alleged that she stabbed him in the back with a knife but the charge of stabbing was dismissed, after the wife had spent some days in jail.

This assault "with intent" charge will be heard on Tuesday afternoon before Magistrate Atkinson, if it is not withdrawn before that time. Police arrested the man and have him in the cells now.

London Times Again Does a Service for the People

(London Spectator)
It would be interesting to compute the number of desirable reforms which owe their origin to correspondence in the Times. Among the latest and the most desirable will be, it is hoped, a revision of the Government's seating arrangements on the occasion of the Coronation as the result of letters from Mr. E. F. Hitchcock, Mr. A. G. Gardiner and others.
It has been pointed out forcibly that the price of seats has risen to a figure out of most people's reach on the basis of scarcity value, but that the public authorities (principally the government itself) commanding some 60 per cent. of the potential seating accommodation along the route could find room for an immense number of persons at a reasonable figure, and that the profits accruing from the sales of tickets might most appropriately be devoted to the King George V Memorial Fund, or the Jubilee Trust Fund, or both.

Earl Stanhope, First Commissioner of Works, has at once taken the suggestion up, and it is understood that as a result of a conference between him and representatives of the chief ticket-selling agencies plans are to be worked out which will permit of a large increase of seats on the lines suggested by the Times' correspondents.

Plan Luncheon for North Delegation

President Langdon Receives Reply from the Toronto Board of Trade.

President W. O. Langdon this morning received a reply to his latest letter to the Toronto board of trade. In acknowledging the letter from the president of the Northern Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, F. D. Tolehard, general manager of the Toronto board of trade, thanks Mr. Langdon for the very complete report given on the conditions and attitude of the people in this part of the North. The Toronto letter continues:—"This board is most sympathetic and wishes to be of every assistance possible in co-operating with you in endeavouring to have the roads placed in proper condition and in generally promoting the development of Northern Ontario." The letter then refers to the plan of the Toronto board of trade to visit this part of the North, weather conditions now making it necessary to defer that visit until the spring.

The letter again urges that Northern Ontario send as many delegates as possible to the meeting of the Ontario Associated Boards of Trade at Oshawa on Nov. 20th, so that the case for the North may be fully presented and co-operation secured from Southern Ontario in seeking a fair deal for the North. If a delegation is sent from the North, the Toronto board would like this delegation to be the guests at a luncheon on Nov. 19th, so that matters may be talked over and the Toronto board secure the fullest possible grasp of the problems of the North so as to be in better position to back the requests from the North. A similar letter has been sent the New Liskeard board of trade.

Toronto Globe:—Newfoundland circus runs on rocks while on voyage to Nova Scotia. Lots of similar shows have done the same thing without going to sea.

Peterborough Examiner:—Premier Hepburn should be interested in the announcement from New York that a society has been organized to protect the onion from defamation.
