Entries Wanted in the Kiwanis League

Also Ask for Volunteers to Referee the Games Closing Date for Entries is December 24th.

The sports committee of the Timmins Kiwanis club met this week and laid plans for their juvenile hockey leagues for the winter. Very few changes were made. Some teams were entered and there's room for more entries yet.

The closing date for entries is December 24th so all clubs wishing to enter teams should make a note of the date. Entries have to be in Percy Molesley's hands on or before that date. Anyone having entries can leave them at Molesley and Ball's drug store and they will be looked after.

The committee also asks that any men who can find the time to referee some of games see Mr. Molesley as soon as possible. The league can always use all the referees they can get and it's an important work too, helping the "kids" get the proper start in Canada's national game.

There will be three divisions in this year's Kiwanis leagues. The junior under fifteen; the intermediates under 17 and the seniors under 20. Ages as certified by school principles or by baptismal certificates will be accepted.

In the junior league there are entries from Trail Rangers, Canadiens, 2 or 3 teams from the High School, and teams from the Scots. In the intermediates there will be teams from Canadiens, Tuxis and 2 teams from the High School. In the senior there will be Tuxis, Canadiens and High School. Those are entries that are sure so there will be enough teams in each division to form a league. There will probably be twice that many in each division because the T.P.A.A.A. are being sent invitations to enter teams and they have a lot of material.

The sports committee of the Kiwanis club will be the board of arbitration in all questions arising and will settle all disputes.

The league expects to begin operation about the first of the year.

Tekimas Won Opening Game at Kirkland Lake Tuesday

Tekimas were the winners in the opening N.O.H.A. match in Kirkland Lake last Tuesday evening. The score was 6-2. The game was very rough and was played on poor ice. A fairly good crowd turned out. The opening ceremonies included the dropping of the first puck by Reeve Carter to officially open the season.

To Keep Lane Open For Use of Stores

Also for Fire Protection During the Holiday Rush.

There was a special meeting of the Fire and Light Committee this week to deal with a couple of questions that had arisen. One of these was the case of a three-story frame building used as a rooming and boarding house. The owner did not wish to go to the expense of equipping the building with a fire escape as required by the regulations and town by-law. Committee considered the matter and decided that the by-law provisions in this respect were very necessary for the public safety and that there was no valid reason for making an exception in this case.

The other matter was the request of merchants and others on the north side of Third avenue and elsewhere in the block affected. They wanted the lanes alongside the new theatre kept open during the Christmas rush both for use in the matter of bringing goods to their stores and also as a matter of assisting fire prevention and fire-fighting in the block. Work had been started in the matter of installing waterworks and sewerage connection for the new theatre, and this work if continued would block the use of the lane. The committee felt that there was no particular rush about this work and that it could easily be deferred for a few weeks without inconvenience to anyone. On the other hand, the leaving open of the laneway appeared very necessary at this time. It was desirable for the protection of the merchants as well as for their convenience in taking in new stocks or delivering present stocks. In the matter of fire protection Christmas time was a period when all fire prevention and fire fighting facilities should be maintained to the fullest extent. Accordingly the decision of the committee was that the laneway should be kept free and open at least during the Christmas rush, so that the public advantage might be served without injury or disadvantage to any.

Mae West Wins in Action Regarding Alleged Wedding

Although despatches from New York credit Mae West, the famous comedy actress, with winning in the court action brought against her by Frank Wallace, vaudeville actor, the case so far as the public is concerned remains much the same as it has been for some time. In a nutshell the situation from the public standpoint of this—Wallace, as well as one or more others, have claimed that Mae West was married some years ago. Wallace goes so far as to say: "I am the man in the marriage case."

On the contrary Mae West says with genuine scorn that she is not married, was not married, will not be married, and so on. A court action that would decide whether Mae West has or has not been married, and if so why, and who's the lucky man, would be a good suit from the viewpoint of public curiosity. But the court case referred to herewith does not do any of this. Instead, the New York case seems to be more or less a case of winning on a technicality. Frank Wallace had sued in a case before Justice Callaghan to have Mae West declared his lawful wife, after the actress had established the fact that she "had neither residence nor domicile in New York State for many years. Justice Callaghan held that the affidavit signed, sealed and delivered by Wallace showed that the couple were separated for many years by mutual consent and that Wallace "went so far as to marry somebody else from whom he has since been divorced." Justice Callahan also ruled he could not serve her with notice of action of publication in newspapers in New York State. Accordingly the decision of the New York court means in effect that Frank Wallace under the laws of the State has no chance to prove that Miss West is in reality at least the former Mrs. Wallace, but at the same time the whole question is left as it was before the suit commenced so far as the establishment of the idea of a marriage is concerned.

High-Grade Samples from Week's Run of the Press

Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution—The trick in campaigning is to give them plaudits without fear or favour and straight-from-the-shoulder generalities. Huntsville Forester—A woman has secured a divorce from her husband on the ground that he refused to take her to the movies unless she paid her own way. Did his name start with Mae, by any chance? Renfrew Mercury—At a Rotary Club luncheon in Peterboro on Monday of this week a 10-year-old school girl who had been badly crippled but whose physical defects had been corrected through the philanthropy of Peterboro Rotarians, entertained her benefactors with an intricate tap-dance. The child was born with two dislocated hips and for the first five years of her life was a cripple. This sort of service has been coming as a boon and a benediction to many an Ontario child.

The recent improvements and extensions in the Bank of Nova Scotia premises add materially to the fact that the block on Pine street from Third to Fourth avenue is becoming more and more the "Wall Street of Timmins," outstanding for the number of permanent, modern, fully equipped financial institutions. The Bank of Nova Scotia now occupies the complete ground floor of the Massie block at the corner of Pine street and Third avenue, and inside and outside has handsome appearance. The interior has been completely redecorated, new public desks of the latest type, new cages and other new equipment being installed throughout. It is now one of the handsomest and best equipped bank branches in the North, with ample room, well lighted and well equipped. The main entrance to the bank is now on Pine street at the corner of Third avenue. Behind the vestibule at the entrance, offices are partitioned off for the manager, stenographer and other staff. The rest of the large premises is given over to the accommodation of general banking business. Among the new conveniences installed is a booth where those using the safety deposit boxes may enter to clip coupons or for any other purpose where they may desire privacy. The interior decorations are just being completed this week, and from present appearance the bank will have handsome as well as convenient quarters.

Schumacher Ticket Won in Grads Draw

Hugh Calverly the Winner of Radio. Success of the Draw Means More Christmas Cheer Baskets.

The dance in the Oddfellows hall last night, sponsored by the Timmins Tuxis Grads was the grand finale to a very successful Christmas Charity Draw. The admission was only the purchase of a draw ticket and almost everyone in town had one. The hall was overcrowded all evening and dancing continued till two o'clock.

The music for the dancing was supplied by Andy Cangiano and a five-piece orchestra. Both round and square dancing were featured. A refreshment booth was opened for the dancers' convenience.

Shortly after twelve the draw for the door prize, an R.C.A. Victor 8-tube radio, was made and the winner was announced. Though the winner was not at the dance the radio will be delivered to him. The winning ticket was number 35 in series 14 and was purchased by Hugh Calverly of 70 Second avenue, Schumacher. The winning ticket was sold by Garth Porter. The ticket was drawn by Mr. P. T. Molesley, honorary president of the Tuxis Grads.

Although the actual figures are not yet released it is known that the draw was a bigger success than anticipated. The result is that more hampers of Christmas Cheer will be distributed by the Grads next week.

Toronto Man Acquainted with Midshipman Johnson

(Globe and Mail) Squinting on the bridge of a battleship at midnight and drinking cocoa out of a dirty basin may not be the King of England's idea of fun. But it certainly meant a lot in 1913 to a slender, 18-year-old midshipman called Johnson and a ruddy-faced 17-year-old Scottish signalman, who snatched his heels whenever an officer came on deck to bellow the name "Curnow!" Many a monarch might have felt his dignity somewhat fluffed if he had been forcibly held down in the gun room of that battleship and whacked with the flat of a dirt-wielded in the hands of an angry sub-lieutenant. But that was all part of the training which transformed the young midshipman called Johnson into the real man he is to-day.

And yet, still smarting under those blows, the pale young midshipman would say but little and quietly wait until midnight. For the chances were best then, he knew, of being able to sneak up unseen to the bridge where he could always count on the consolation of that basin of cocoa and the friendly conversation of signalman William Curnow.

Twenty-three years have rolled past, and to-day the young midshipman sits on the throne of England. The young cocoa-making signalman, on the other hand is a porter in the Royal York Hotel and wears a uniform on which are the letters "R.Y." to remind him every day that he is now working for an establishment that had been named after his old friend, "Midshipman Johnson."

Twenty-three years have passed, and in that time neither the signalman nor the midshipman have once seen each other. Curnow, however, is quietly nursing a secret hope that the present King will make a tour of Canada in the near future.

"Because if he does we might meet again," he remarked. "I think he'd still remember."

Edmonton Journal—Prisoners at Headingly jail, Winnipeg, demanded roast chicken instead of beef stew. It is understood they get beef stew.

Perth Courier—Plenty of sleep says an authority on the subject, is the "best route to beauty." Obviously a lot of people have been taking detours.

Schumacher Lions Building Ski Cabin

Also Sponsoring Christmas Decoration Contests in the Township of Tisdale.

The Schumacher Lions Club held their regular weekly meeting last night and heard an interesting address by Mr. W. K. Wylie, assistant principal of the Schumacher public school, on "Child Psychology in Child Education." In a very interesting manner Mr. Wylie pointed out that the system of education is rapidly changing and that the modern methods are being put into use more and more each year. For instance, he said, there used to be examinations very month and sometimes often but now they sometimes have only one examination in a term. The address was well-prepared and well-delivered and the Lions were appreciative.

The Schumacher Lions are building a ski cabin midway between Schumacher and South Porcupine and it will be a well-equipped cabin. It will be about 30 feet square and will be a sort of a two-storey affair. There will be one part of the cabin for skiers to take off their skis and then they go up into the main room of the cabin. This eliminates the snow from entering the main room.

The Schumacher Lions are also sponsoring the Christmas decoration contest in Schumacher for both stores and homes with prizes for the best decorated. They are also sponsoring a Community Christmas Tree and will give all the children Christmas presents at the station in Schumacher on Christmas Eve. Another Christmas Tree may be sponsored in South Porcupine.

There will be no meeting of the Schumacher Lions next week as the meeting date is too close to Christmas.
