Funeral of James Morrison at Clarendon Last Week
 Relatives and friends in this district, of the late James Morrison, of Clarendon, Quebec, will be interested in the following report of the funeral as given in The Shawville Equity:—
 "Despite the very treacherous condition of the roads, due to ice, there was a large attendance of old friends and acquaintances at the funeral of James Morrison, on Wednesday afternoon, from his late home in Austin section, Clarendon, to Austin United Church and cemetery.
 "Service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Taylor, who was assisted by Rev. A. F. Fokes, pastor of Shawville United Church, and at the home, Miss Bessie Olmsted, of Shawville Pentecostal Mission, a friend of the family offered prayer. Rev. Mr. Taylor preached a comforting sermon from the scripture passage: "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble."—(Psalm XLVI:1). During the service Mrs. Taylor sang a solo, "No Disappointment in Heaven" and Miss Evelyn Palmer, the organist, sang "The Old Rugged Cross."
 "Chief mourners were the aged widow and family of two sons and nine daughters, namely, John and Edward, on the homestead; Mrs. John Cunningham, of Starks Corners; Mrs. Wilbur Horner, of Shawville; Mrs. Roy McMillan, of Arnprior; Mrs. Henry Hamel, of Montreal; Mrs. R. J. Connolly, Mrs. Thomas Farrell and Mrs. Jack Johnson, of South Porcupine; Mrs. Fred Stevens and Miss Lorena, at home; twenty-three grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
 "The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. Olmsted, Russell Dean, D. T. Hodgins, J. W. Horner, Emerson Cotic and Geo. Palmer.
 "A large number of floral tributes were received including the following: "Pillow, the family, Wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMillan and family; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Connolly and family; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hamel and family; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farrell and family; Pearl and James Baker, Sprays; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Farrell; Dorothy Farrell and Cyril Pierce; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevens; Jason, Beth, Ethel, Florian and Edward Cunningham; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott and family, and Mrs. J. Baird and son, Robert."

Red Wings to Play in Schumacher To-night
 Porcupine Red Wings meet Schumacher Juveniles to-night at Schumacher. It was announced this morning. The game is to begin at eight o'clock and will be played on the Schumacher public school rink. The teams are well matched and there should be very keen competition throughout the hour's play.

Say that Timmins has Many Accidents

To Celebrate Coronation
 Austin Neame, president of the Legion asked what consideration had been given to a celebration of the coronation of King George VI. He said the Legion would do all in its power to assist the town in such an event and he asked that the Legion be given permission to sell souvenirs on that day, proceeds to be used for Legion relief work. This permission will be granted and the mayor said that a committee would be appointed to see about a celebration.
 An "expert valuator" will be appointed to assist the assessment commissioner temporarily, it was stated in a motion passed by the council. "We feel there are buildings that may not be assessed correctly and we want an expert to assist," the mayor explained.
By-laws Before Court
 Officers of the Retail Clerks Association complained that "so far nothing has been done" about the refusal of some stores to close on Wednesday afternoons, despite a municipal by-law. "We feel that it is not fair to other merchants," one representative said. "They say that if the by-law is not enforced immediately, they will remain open too."
 "The matter is before the courts now," said Councillor Cousins, chairman of the police committee.
 "If they want to continue to take the risk of a fine each time they stay open, why that's their business," the mayor said.
 The clerk said he had been served with papers to appear in Supreme Court at Osgoode Hall where the validity of the by-laws will be tested. The finance committee will recommend that the town have legal representation in Toronto when the motion is heard there.
New Town Hall Mentioned
 The proposed new town hall was mentioned only once when a letter from Archie Gillies was read in which the architect made application for the job of drawing up preliminary plans, final plans and supervising the work for five percent of the cost.
 The ladies of the Catholic Women's League applied for permission to hold a tag day on March 17th, St. Patrick's Day. This was referred to the finance committee.
 Timmins Citizens Band applied for a grant of $500. The finance committee will report on this.
 An application for a post as fireman was referred to the fire and light committee.
 I. E. Dunn, relief officer, will report on a case in which a woman claimed her son supported the home and was being assessed at the mine for poll tax.
 A friend of a widow who appeared at the meeting said that "she feel like paying but has no money" when he spoke of the taxes on a lot that is in the woman's name. She lives on a Mother's Allowance and supports two children.
Sell Candy at High School
 A complaint from a local storekeeper that candy and other things were being sold inside the high school was received by the council. The high school board will see that the business is stopped, the council believes.
 The recent fire underwriters' and fire chief's reports are still under consideration by the fire and light committee. Councillor Wren said, but that since both involve the expenditure of money they will have to be dealt with when the time comes for striking estimates.
No Group Insurance
 At a combined meeting of the fire and light and police committees, it was decided not to have group insurance for the police and firemen. "It wouldn't benefit the men and they would be left more independent if things are left as they are," the mayor explained.
 No action has been taken in regard to the appeal made by the Salvation Army for funds to help in their women's work in Toronto. Nor has the Sudbury resolution dealing with indigent hospital cases been considered.
 A five dollar fee for the mayors' association was ordered paid.
 The public works committee will consider snowploughing the road over the Mattagami west of the town. The government road to the north has already been cleared.
 Authority was given the mayor and clerk to carry on the banking business of the corporation at the Imperial Bank.
Lot Transferred to Moneta
 The famous Lot 21 will be transferred to Moneta Porcupine Mines. This is the one over which Mr. Bartleman raised such an objection last year and during the election campaign. "I have no choice," he said, when the resolution was passed.
 The tax collector was instructed to return the roll on which taxes had not been collected for 1936.
 Two raises in salary for police who had passed the three-months probationary period, were ordered paid.
 Accounts amounting to $8,578.59 are to be paid.
 All members of the council, with the exception of the chairman of the finance committee, P. H. Laporte, were present at the meeting. Mr. Laporte is still ill.

Picketing of Stores was Continued Yesterday
 Picketing of the three stores that have so far refused to observe the Wednesday afternoon closing by-laws was continued yesterday afternoon for the third week.
 This time the boards carried by picketers were more ornate than previously and carried cartoons to further impress upon the public the fact that the by-laws are being fought.

Supports Police in Their Work

 "Armstrong had done all in his power to qualify," said Mr. Lieberman. "He was misled by town officials."
 Quoting from Judge Cron's report and from an affidavit by Mr. Armstrong that had been read in court, Mr. Lieberman placed the onus of paying the legal expenses on the town, rather than on the man. "He was lulled into the belief that he was qualified," he said. "Information was brought out afterwards that could easily have been brought out beforehand. He should not be penalized for mistakes made by others than himself."
 "Last Revised Assessment"
 Mr. Lieberman insisted that "the last revised assessment roll" on which the election was based was that of 1935, and that there Mr. Armstrong was listed as a separate school supporter. He had applied for transfer to the public school supporters' list and this had been done but not in time for the election.
 Assessment officers state that Mr. Armstrong was on the "last revised assessment roll"—1936—as a separate school supporter, but that the 1937 roll, on which the last voters' list had been based, is not yet revised. On the 1937 roll, Mr. Armstrong is listed as a public school supporter, following his application for that alteration.
 "His personal courage and integrity are such that certain persons wanted him ousted from the board," said the lawyer of Mr. Armstrong. "A technicality was made the basis of a motion that the seat be declared vacant."
 The lawyer also said that Mr. Montgomery had on one occasion been "overzealous" in the matter of qualifications.
Mr. Wren Criticizes
 "It is regrettable that Mr. Lieberman gave room in his plea to the motives. I saw no reason for bringing that into the discussion," said Councillor William Wren when Mr. Lieberman had finished his address. "Is it not the responsibility of qualifying on Mr. Armstrong's shoulders and not on the town?" he said.
 "I'm not here to make any imputations. I was simply reading from the affidavit," Mr. Lieberman said. He admitted the town had no legal responsibility for Mr. Armstrong's expenses but as a matter of "equitable rights" he said the corporation should pay.
 "Was 1935 the first year in which he was entered as a separate school supporter?" asked Mayor Bartleman.
Never Gave Instructions
 "At no time did he ever give any town official instructions to be placed on the roll as a separate school supporter," said Mr. Lieberman, launching into a criticism of the manner in which the assessment commissioner's department conducted its business.
 The clerk said he had been told that Mr. Armstrong accepted his assessment as a separate school supporter and "never objected." Councillor Cousins said that most certainly Mr. Armstrong had known, for he had asked him what to do about changing from separate to public school. Councillor Wren agreed that Mr. Armstrong must have known that Mr. Wren then told the mayor that a resolution was ready for reading. Mr. Bartleman thought this a discourtesy to Mr. Lieberman. "Really, I intended no discourtesy," replied Mr. Wren, "but we have heard the case."
 In the end, about five minutes later, the resolution moved by Mr. Wren and seconded by Mr. Cousins, was read. It referred the whole matter to the finance committee. This was agreed.

Delightful Event by Ladies' Auxiliary

Unusually Varied and Attractive Programme on Monday Evening.
 There was another of those pleasant social events of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion on Monday last. Those present voiced the thought that it was one of the best. Mrs. C. Keates and Mrs. W. A. Devine, convener of the social committee secured a fine list of local artists to entertain and these along with the dancing made a most enjoyable evening.
 Mrs. George Jenkin starred for the evening, her beautiful mezzo-soprano voice being heard to perfection in her two beautiful renderings. The insistent applause spoke truly the thanks of the gathering. Mrs. Jenkin was accompanied at the piano by Mr. George Jenkin.
 George Burgin, the talented tenor vocalist of the town, was in fine form and rendered two very appropriate solos. Both of these were greatly appreciated. W. H. Wilson accompanied.
 Not to be outdone by his son, George Burgin, Sr., 65 years old, but spry as a kitten, had all in his repertoire with his comical songs and actions. His first number referred to a "real old spree" and the way he stumbled about made one hope the police would not enter. His second after loud applause dealt with "his mother-in-law." Both songs were popular favourites of the London music halls years ago, and the artist rendered them in real Cockney style. His son played for these selections.
 Miss Peggy Shaw's sweet voice was heard in two very fine solos. Always a favourite, Peggy finds a warm spot in Legion circles. W. A. Devine accompanied this young artist.
 Mr. Watkins, another tenor vocalist of repute sang two old favourites. Mr. Watkins was also in fine form and his listeners received the benefit. Mr. H. Hopkins was the pianist for this artist.
 Mrs. K. Johnson won the prize in the card dance; Miss Peggy Shaw and Dorothy Chenoweth, the spot waltz prizes.
 An eight-song reel made a big hit on the programme.
 Refreshments were served, these being of the usual high order. Geo. Nippers made a capable M. C. W. H. Wilson, was the pianist for the dancing being relieved at times by W. A. Devine. At an early hour the large and happy crowd went home after singing the National Anthem.
Shankman Building Nearly Completed
 Handsome and Modern Structure with Stores, Offices and Apartments.
 The new brick building that has risen on the site of the old Shankman building on Third Avenue near the corner of Mountjoy street is now nearly ready for occupancy. It replaces the building that was destroyed by fire in August last year.
 Two pleasantly designed stores occupy the lower floor of the new place, while offices and apartments are located on the second storey. The exterior of the front is constructed of a brick carrying vertical lines on the face. Rough finished white plaster over the show windows and doorways adds to the modern effect.
 The interior is all in white plaster. Floors throughout are hardwood, with a natural oil finish. Woodwork is walnut stained British Columbia fir.
 Much of the construction work was done in the winter time and the finishing touches have been left until warmer weather.
 The Porcupine Construction Company had the general contract for the job.
Whist Drive and Dance by District Pipe Band
 Another of the happy whist drive and dance events by the Porcupine District Pipe Band is to be given in the Hollinger Recreation hall, Timmins, on Friday evening of this week, Feb. 12th. Refreshments will be served during the evening. All attending are sure of an enjoyable night. There are twelve fine prizes offers. Whist will start promptly at 8.15 p.m.

Bar Two N.O.H.A. Players for Season

Following his attack on Referee Steve Vair immediately after a game at Kirkland Lake last week, Warwick Roberts, centre player for Wright Hargreaves, has been barred from playing N.O.H.A. hockey for the rest of the season. W. A. Thompson, secretary of the N.O.H.A., has announced.
 "Red" Hammill, former South Porcupine player, now with the Sudbury Juniors, has also been barred for the remainder of the playing season. He attacked a North Bay player during an exhibition game at the Gateway City.
 These two incidents, culminating a series of like exhibitions in many parts of the N.O.H.A. group, brought a letter from W. A. Thompson to all the clubs, saying that play must be better controlled and that the hockey association is ready to "clamp down" on those involved in all future scenes.
 Mr. Thompson has still to receive a detailed report on Rene Lortie's performance at South Porcupine on Tuesday night when it is said he rushed Referee Wilder.
 Mrs. D. W. Reeves, of North Bay, was a recent visitor to Timmins.

 All of the above are graduates of the Timmins Business College and were recently placed in the above positions through the service of the College employment department. This service is for the assistance of the employer as well as the graduate. We take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to employers for their many calls and the co-operation which has brought the College Employment Service to its present stage. Graduates are being placed in positions regularly.
 Night classes as well as day classes are held at the Business College throughout the year. If you cannot attend the day classes enroll in the night classes. Be a graduate of the Timmins Business College—it pays.
 Typewriters may be rented by firms and individuals through the College rental service—special rates to students.
 Our method of individual instruction permits students to enroll any time. Students enrolling now would be prepared for the fall and winter positions.
