

Late Mrs. Haneberry of South Porcupine

Notable Tribute Paid to Esteemed Resident who Died on Saturday.

South Porcupine, Ont., Feb. 17th 1937. Special to The Advance.

Mrs. James Haneberry, who died on Saturday, Feb. 13th, was laid to rest yesterday (Tuesday) in the South Porcupine cemetery.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Fraser in the United Church which was filled to overflowing with numbers of our community who attended to show their sympathy with the family and the affection and esteem in which the deceased was held. Her death was sudden and circumstances surrounding it called forth the greatest sympathetic feelings from us all. She had been ill for four months following the birth of her baby son, Brian, but latterly the reports of her recovery were brighter, and it was with a sense of shock that we heard of her sudden passing on Saturday.

She was woman of a bright and lovable nature, liked by young and old and until the past year active and interested in sports of all kinds, skating and hockey particularly. (Her son Victor is one of our star hockey players). She will be missed from these things, but more sadly missed in the home, and by her children to whom she was a devoted mother. To her sorrowing husband, and to Victor, Newsham, Helen and baby Brian, we offer our sincerest sympathy.

In his address yesterday afternoon Dr. Fraser eulogized Motherhood, and spoke of the glory and sacrifice, the love and lives given ungrudgingly by Mothers through all time.

The hymn "Abide With Me" was sung at the service by the congregation, and at the close Mr. J. Trueblood sang as a solo "The Old Rugged Cross."

Old friends of the family acted as pall bearers—Messrs G. Spence, Wm Gagnon, A. Ewing, W. Rayner, H. Miller and W. Fairhurst. Several friends and relatives from out of town attended the funeral, among them being Mrs. M

Hill, Noranda; John Heneberry Charlton; Mr. and Mrs. H. Mills, Noranda; Victor Campbell, Toronto; Duncan and Blair Campbell, Noranda; Phillip Heneberry, Charlton; Lucy H. Heneberry, Kirkland Lake; Margaret Heneberry, Charlton; Mrs. R. Altheison, Connaught; Mrs. H. Blood, Cobalt; Mrs. A. Wood, Connaught, former neighbour, Mrs. G. Spence, Timmins.

Surviving Mrs. Haneberry are her mother Mrs. A. Campbell in Toronto, who was unable through illness to be present at the funeral; four sisters, Mrs. J. McCord, of Toronto; Mrs. L. Harris, of Kelwood, Manitoba; Mrs. M. Hill and Mrs. H. Mills, of Noranda three brothers, Victor Campbell of Toronto; and Duncan and Blair Campbell, of Noranda.

She was predeceased by one brother John Islay Campbell, of Goodwater, Saskatchewan.

Mrs. Haneberry, who was born Jessie Campbell in Islay, Scotland in the year 1886, came to Canada in June 1914, to reside in Charlton. She lived for the past twenty-two years in South Porcupine. She was a daughter of the late Angus Campbell and Jessie Newsham Blair Griffiths, of Campbelltown and Islay, Scotland.

Concert Association Membership Grows

Here is a partial list of the artists available, as an indication of the quality of musical entertainment that may be expected:

Coles and Yanova—Two-piano team, recently guest artists with the Rochester Civic Orchestra.

Bettina Vegara—Youthful Canadian violinist whose work has been highly praised by critics everywhere.

Jean Chown—Soprano, recently returned to Canada from Hollywood, and available at this time.

Ernest Seitz—Well-known Canadian pianist and composer. Writer of one of the world's most popular songs, "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," and others.

Adolph Wantroff—Operatic baritone, whose recent appearance on the Metropolitan Opera, auditions presentation, stamps him as a singer of high calibre.

Toronto Trio—Strings at their best. The Toronto Trio thrill all people who enjoy string trio arrangements.

Reginald Stewart—Pianist and conductor. Noted in both capacities for his artistic interpretations of the masters. Has conducted many of the finest European symphonies, as well as the General Motors Sunday Night broadcast, the Toronto Promenade Symphony, and others.

Frances James—Soprano, another Canadian who is fast climbing to a position of eminence in the world of music.

Pengelly Jean—At present singing with the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Toronto Conservatory Quartette—A group of musicians who join in the translation of the finest in music, through the use of stringed instruments, to the delight of audiences everywhere.

This is not the complete list of artists available but it is an indication of the class of talent that the new association intends to present, if there are enough people in the community who wish to hear the best in music.

To the Advance the committee stressed the fact that it cannot make a definite announcement as to the artists who will appear until after the sale of memberships has been completed and the financial budget made up, but it also makes clear that whatever the budget may be, the best of artistic talent possible will be chosen in an effort to make this the beginning of a campaign for better music in this district.

Gordon Archibald, who heads the selection committee, has the assurance of the Canadian Artists Association that in an effort to encourage so fine a movement, the artists will co-operate in every way and, in the first year particularly, will do everything possible to make the series of concerts a real success.

Joseph A. Bradette, M.P. Ordered to Take a Rest

His hosts of friends and admirers in the North, and especially in this riding which is so ably and earnestly represented by him in the Dominion House, will regret to learn that Joseph A. Bradette, M.P., has been ordered by his physician to take a short rest to recover his usual health. Word from Ottawa is to the effect that the doctor's verdict is to the effect that Mr. Bradette must ease up in his activities, at least for a time. It is understood that Mr. Bradette's condition is not serious or alarming, and that with a short rest he will be his own healthy self again in a short time, but that in the meantime it is imperative that he place less strain upon himself in his laudable efforts to serve his constituents in every particular. Mr. Bradette has taken the duties of his office very seriously and very earnestly. No matter what the calls upon him he has never shirked a single duty to his constituents. He has been steadily and faithfully "on the job all the time." In addition to his parliamentary duties, Mr. Bradette has been devoting some of his leisure time to the study of law. He graduated last summer and now is fully qualified to enter the profession of law.

The wish of all through this riding and throughout the North—irrespective of party, creed or other division—that Mr. Bradette make the fullest and speediest recovery of his wanted health.

Toronto Telegram—Report says Premier Hepburn has lost 16 pounds. Dangerous, for a light-weight.

Child Flown to Toronto Hospital from Halleybury

A plane piloted by D. F. McDonald left Halleybury at 8.30 on Tuesday morning and landed at the Toronto Flying Club field at 10.55. The purpose of the flight was one of those errands of mercy for which Northern planes and pilots are so justly famous. The plane took eight-year-old James Cumming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cumming, of Halleybury, as a passenger. The youngster was rushed to the Toronto General hospital for treatment for an illness that it is feared may be spinal meningitis. Whatever the child had, the youngster was very ill and her case seemed to baffle the doctors in the North. It was all a matter of time, however, as to whether or not Toronto specialists' treatment would be of any avail. The airship gave the child a chance for life, thus adding to the heroic list of those good deeds that have brought such notable credit to the flying men of the North.

Successful Bridge and 500 at Iroquois Falls
