QUEEN ELIZABETH ATTENDS GALA PERFORMANCE IN LONDON

These are very busy days for Queen Elizabeth who, in addition to numerous engagements on the social calendar, has to prepare for the Coronation, which is only six weeks hence. We see Her Majesty arriving at a gala performance of Ballet at the Piccadilly Theatre.

Operetta at Iroquois Falls Cleverly Given

"Green Cheese" by Iroquois Falls High School Students Makes a Decided Hit. Close to a Thousand Delighted With Event. Some of the Highlights.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., March 25th, 1937. Special to The Advance.
Almost one thousand persons attended the presentation of the operetta "Green Cheese" by the pupils of the Iroquois Falls High School, under the direction of Principal G. W. Cushnie and staff, at the town hall Wednesday afternoon and evening. Over 500 were present at the evening performance, which taxed the capacity of the hall. About 100 had to stand.

The receipts are to be used for a fund to assist worthy high school graduates in obtaining university education.

The terrific amount of work and time expended by Mr. Cushnie and staff in preparing the presentation was reflected and rewarded in the excellence of the performance. The choruses and cast were very well trained and the stage setting was exceptional.

Gerald Dove acted well the part of Jimmy Sheriff, a young American who came to the Swiss village of Upendown to obtain a cheese recipe developed by Johann von Bimmers, cheese manufacturer's son, Harry Abramson acting this part. Trini Schultz (Geraldine St. James), Johann's fiancée, and Freida (Olive Cameron), Trini's best friend, and fiancée of Hans (John Brewer), Johann's best friend, built great dreams about the hope of going to America with Sheriff to become great actresses which were exploded by the announcement that Sheriff was after the cheese recipe not movie talent.

The part of Peter Schultz, Mayor of Upendown, was very well taken by Blake Foy, and Chester Harbottle was Eric von Bimmer, Johann's father. The entire cast was well selected and each part well played.

Seventeen separate songs beside the dialogue comprised the three acts. These were: "Holiday" opening chorus; "A Man of Mystery" (Trini, Freida and Jimmy); "A Most Unusual Village" (Ensemble, Mayor, Women); "Johann's Cheese is Best" (Mayor); "Pick 'Em Up, Put 'Em Down" (Chorus and Hans); "With Each Little Lantern Gleaming" (Girls); "A Swiss Chalet" (Trini, Johann and Ensemble); "Life is a Game" (Jimmy); "Life's Oldest Game," Hans.

Trini, Freida, Jimmy; "Here Among the Alpine Swiss" (Jimmy); Milk-Maids (Milkmaids); "Festival Song" (Ensemble); "Folk dance (Trini and Ensemble); "Soon I'll Be Famous (Trini); "Tell Me, Echo" (Girls Two-part Chorus); "Life is a Beautiful Song" (Milkmaids, Ensemble)

In addition to the cast those taking part were—

Chorus: C. Cosgrove, E. Richer, V. Mainion, C. Hay, J. Benson, N. Whitehead, D. Ethier, E. Charron, A. Crotin, H. Jennings, J. Roach, F. Sabourin, E. Dawson, W. Perlmutter, A. Shisko, M. Hurter.

Milkmaids: C. Corcoran, J. McGrath, M. Quirk, M. Regimbal, J. Neddham, M. Cameron, R. Dove, D. Soderston, A. Leclair, B. Jamieson.

Off-stage Singers: B. Brinsky, M. Crotin, B. Stack, D. Kussner, P. Dawson, R. Brinsky, P. Cannon, M. LaFortune, P. Cameron, D. Doyle, F. Gignac, S. Stoughton, G. Fraser, W. Lang, J. Trotter, M. Trotter, J. Campbell, G. Columbus.

Orchestra: Albert Delean, Vello Sandrin, George Sandrin, Miss Michelle Delean, Miss Therese Delan, G. W. Cushnie.

Committees: Decorations: N. Powers, N. Whitehead, W. Shisko, M. Regimbal, R. Chatelein, F. Sabourin, A. Shisko, L. Crotin, J. Racine, D. Charron, P. Cannon, J. Morrison, W. Hill, J. Brindle, B. Philbin.

Advertising: M. Lukonovich, E. Richer, W. Lang, A. Shisko, F. Sabourin, F. Hurter, G. Sandron, B. Philbin, B. Brinsky.

Lights: J. Eaton, E. Foy, N. Smith, G. Columbus.

Properties: J. Freeman, F. Hurter, E. Dawson, G. Dove, G. Columbus, E. Charron, O. Cameron, G. St. James, H. Abramson, N. Sullivan.

Costumes: F. Hurter, C. Hay, J. Benson, A. Leclair, C. Harbottle, C. Cosgrove.

Miss Marion Henderson of the public school staff was responsible for the painting of the Swiss mountain background and Alf Peterson was in charge of lighting arrangements. Albert Delean's string orchestra supplied music during intervals and for the many songs and dances of the operetta.

The high school staff consists of G. W. Cushnie, B.A., principal, Miss H. Cleaver, B.A., Miss S. Colclough, B.A., Miss C. Hinds, M.A., Mr. E. T. Palmer, B.A.

The programme was opened with choruses by the school: "When My Dream Boat Comes Home," "La Marsellaise" and "May Peace and Love Attend His Throne."

Rev. E. Hayes, rector of St. Mark's Anglican Church, presented scholarships won during 1936. Staff scholarships of $15.00 each for junior matriculation standing went to Diane Ethier and Harry Abramson. A staff scholarship of $10 for year progress was won by Ruby Nichols. Patricia Cannon won the Ian Young Memorial Scholarship for entrance standing.

In his short address Mr. Hayes stressed the value of education—"Something we can never lose"—and pointed out that whereas Canada formerly imported their better educated men from the Old Land, this was no longer the case and that there is now an ever increasing field of opportunity for Canadian graduates.

Card Party Wednesday by C.W.L. Junior League

Announcement was made last week of a card party to be held on Wednesday, March 31st, in the basement of the Church of the Nativity, Timmins, under the auspices of the Catholic Women's Junior League. The event will be a very interesting and enjoyable one. A special feature of the evening will be the awarding of the hope chest to the holder of the lucky ticket.

Planning for New Tisdale Hospital

Site Not Yet Decided Upon. Active Board in Charge. Other South Porcupine News.

South Porcupine, Ont., March 27th, 1937. Special to The Advance.

Many people are wondering if, and when, the proposed $50,000 hospital for Tisdale is to materialize. The fact that the Tisdale council voted $15,000 toward the fund at the last meeting proves that the hospital idea is more than a vision.

Upon enquiry we find that nothing definite can yet be said regarding the site of the proposed hospital tentative plans for which are in the hands of the Hospital Board. It is hoped, however, that part of the municipal lands north of the ball grounds will be available, which will be central for a public hospital.

The mine managers of mines in Tisdale are to be approached regarding donations toward the fund, and individuals are to be canvassed for the same purpose.

Those composing the board are Drs. Kinsman and McLaren, Mr. A. H. Cooke of Schumacher, with Mr. F. C. Evans as secretary, and John Fell, of the Dome, as chairman of the board.

Mrs. Muirhead, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Horner, of Bloor avenue, all winter was called back to Campbell's Bay this week to a sick relative.

Miss Verne Laforest returned on Tuesday from a holiday in Toronto.

Miss Mary King, who is in charge of the school at Hislop, near Ramore, is home for the Easter holidays with her parents in Golden City.

The Misses Betty Mawhinney and Audrey Bennett are spending the holiday in Halleybury.

Rev. Fr. O'Gorman at Funeral at Pembroke

Preached Sermon at Last Rites for Father W. L. Murray.

There are many in this district who will be particularly interested in the following reference to the funeral of the late Rev. Father W. L. Murray. This reference is from last Thursday's issue of The Eganville Leader:—

Pembroke, Ont., March 23.—St. Columba's cathedral was thronged here this morning for the funeral of captain the Rev. W. L. Murray, M.C., native of Pembroke and parish priest at Campbell's Bay since 1919, whose death occurred on March 17 in Los Angeles, California. Citizens of Pembroke, where Father Murray was widely known and admired, of all creeds and classes were present in large numbers and there were many from a distance. His Excellency Right Rev. P. T. Ryan, D.D., Bishop of Pembroke, officiated at pontifical high mass, assisted by Rev. J. L. Bourke, LaPasse, as arch priest; Rev. L. Lesage, Mayo, Que., and Rev. H. E. Letang, Allumette Island, as deacon and sub-deacon of honour; Rev. J. L. Enright, Calumet Island, and Rev. A. O'Neill, Ottawa, deacon and sub-deacon of the Mass, and Rev. W. P. Breen, Pembroke, and Rev. Dr. R. M. Clarke, Pembroke, masters of ceremonies. The sermon was preached by Captain the Rev. John R. O'Gorman, of Timmins.

In the Sanctuary
Almost all the clergy of the diocese were present in the sanctuary, as well as several others from a distance, among whom were former classmates of Father Murray in his college days and comrades who served with him in the Great War.
Pembroke and Renfrew branches of the Canadian Legion were represented by large delegations attending in a body and Pembroke Council Knights of Columbus was represented by a good body of members. A detail of 26 men in uniform from the Pembroke and Renfrew companies of the Lanark and Renfrew Scottish Regiment, under Captain A. A. Wallace, formed a guard of honour.

Former Chaplains
Honorary pallbearers were four former chaplains, Rev. Father Costello, London, Ont.; Father Stanton, Chelsea, Que.; Father J. R. O'Gorman, Timmins; and Father H. E. Letang, Allumette Island, and Father Paul McCauley, Peterboro; Father J. L. Enright, Calumet Island; Father A. O'Neill, Ottawa; Father J. J. Quinn, Renfrew, and Father Ewen McDonald, Alexandria.

Active pallbearers were: Dr. F. J. Dodd, T. M. J. Galligan, K.C., J. P. Duff, W. O. Bedard, A. M. Meehan and P. J. Hennessy.

A most impressive sermon was preached by Rev. J. R. O'Gorman of Timmins, an intimate friend of the late Father Murray and a padre with him overseas. The sermon was based on the text: "Thus did this man die leaving not only to young men but also to the whole nation, the memory of his death for an example of virtue and fortitude."

Tribute to Life and Work
Referring to the late Father Murray's ordination in the Pembroke Cathedral, his life and his twenty years in the priesthood, Father O'Gorman said, "To-day the diocese prays sadly by his bier and not only here in the Ottawa Valley which claims him as one of her noblest sons, but from the foothills of Alberta to the coasts of New Brunswick a great soldier-priest will be sincerely mourned by the men of his old brigade."

Touching references were made by the preacher to the late Father Murray's many unusual talents, to his striking and attractive personality, to that power within him "all the more effective because held carefully in restraint." The dead priest was, however, one whose heart was so large, whose sympathies were so great "none could refuse to acknowledge the breadth and depth of his capacity for friendship."

Reference was made to the late Father Murray's lengthy chaplain service overseas at Vimy, Lens, Passchendaele, wherever the men of the green patch won their glorious battle honours, the chaplain of the 50th was with his men, the faithful minister of the God of Love.

To Former Parish
Following the funeral Mass the body was taken to the C.P.R. station where it was placed on the afternoon train and taken to Father Murray's former parish at Campbell's Bay.

Losses Distinguished Son
In the death of Father Murray the Pembroke diocese has lost one of its most outstanding priests, an able administrator, a profound scholar, a gifted speaker and a faithful pastor to the people of the parish. He was widely known throughout the district and was held in high regard by all. Since the war in which he served with the chaplain services in France and was awarded the Military Cross and bar he took an active interest in the returned men's organizations and was a member of Renfrew branch of the Canadian Legion.

On Thursday afternoon a few of the Schumacher High School pupils came over to South Porcupine—to take part in a debate with the S.P.H.S. pupils. The auditorium was the scene of a lively discussion on the following topic:—"Resolved that $15,000 is more beneficial to a person of 21 years of age than a college education." The leader of the affirmative was Miss Marianne Cooper, of Schumacher, assisted by Miss K. Christopher. Miss Marjorie Jamieson and Harry Pyke upheld the negative side of the argument for the South End High School. The students of the S.P.H.S. supplied an attentive audience and the final result was in favour of the cash. Miss Josephine Ceconal, president of the Debating Society, acted as chairman for this debate.

Miss Lillian Huot, of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, is spending Easter with her parents in town.

Children from 10 to 16 years of age will be eligible to

ALGONQUIN PARK BRINGS MANY VISITORS TO CANADA

Brockville Recorder and Times: Algonquin Park, 2,721 square miles of lake and river and unspoiled forest in the Province of Ontario, attracted more than 6,000 visitors during the summer of 1936, and preparations are now being made for an increased number of tourists during this coming season. In addition to a host of visitors from various points in Canada during last year, tourists also came from 21 States across the international border, representing territories from coast to coast. The excellent fishing waters of this area, containing speckled trout, salmon trout and small-mouth bass, lured 1,725 anglers, who found in these lakes and streams ample opportunity to satisfy their piscatorial instincts.
