

Annual Meeting District Board of Anglican W.A.

Woman's Auxiliary of Anglican Church of District Met at Iroquois Falls Last Week. Interesting Programme for Sessions. Officers Elected for Ensuing Year.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., June 12th, 1937. Special to The Advance.
The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Anglican District Board of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary was held in the Parish hall at St. Mark's church, Iroquois Falls, on June 9th and 10th. There was a good attendance of delegates and visitors.

The session opened at 9:30 Wednesday morning with Holy Communion and address in St. Mark's church, celebrant, Rev. Ernest Hayes.

At 10:30 officers and delegates registered and received their badges in the Parish hall, and the meeting opened with prayer led by the Diocesan president, Mrs. Johns.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Striles, president of St. Mark's branch, and the reply by Mrs. Richardson, president of Porcupine Junction branch.

Letters of greeting were read from many members unable to be present.

At the lunch hour, Rev. Mr. Powell, of Cochrane, gave an interesting address on "Women, Their Influence in the Home and on Their Children and in the Church." His remarks left much food for thought.

The minutes intersession on Thursday was taken by Rev. Ernest Hayes, and was very inspiring.

The reports of the different branches were most encouraging.

The delegates left on the 6 o'clock train for their various homes.

On Wednesday evening the visitors and members of St. Mark's congregation were entertained in the Parish hall. Mrs. E. G. Hewson, of Toronto, Girls' Secretary of the Dominion Board of the W.A., was a welcome guest, and gave a most interesting address. A very splendid programme arranged by Miss Edith Banting was much enjoyed. The programme included—Guitar recitals by Jack Stables and Vernon Jessup; songs by Miss Henderson and Mrs. Don Brewer; violin solo by Sheila Necham; a diologue "The Missionary Magazine" by four little girls from Monteith, members of the Junior W.A., was very well presented. Mrs. Blackburn, Diocesan Girls' Secretary, showed several lantern slides taken at Moose Factory, which were also interesting and instructive.

Funeral at Midland of Mrs. J. Thompson

Burial at Milverton on Monday of Last Week

The following report of the funeral of Mrs. J. E. Thompson, who died in Timmins recently, is from last week's issue of The Milverton Sun, Milverton, Ont.:

Mrs. Jas. Edward Thompson

There passed away on Friday, June 4th, 1937, at the home of her daughter Mrs. F. S. Adams, at 31 Cherry street, Timmins, Mrs. James Edward Thompson after a lingering illness dating from February, 1934. Mrs. Thompson, who has been with her daughter in Timmins since August 1936, was a former highly esteemed resident of Mornington and Milverton and was in her 70th year. In February, 1934, while living in Milverton she took the first stroke and the second one in April 1934; a third in the spring of 1935 and in January, 1937 she suffered another stroke which was followed by a fifth in April since which time she had been in a paralytic condition. Mrs. Thompson, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Jane Johnston was born in Mornington Township on the farm recently owned by Mr. William McKay (Irish-born) and was the daughter of the late James Johnston and Jane Huston. In October, 1897, she was married in Mornington by Rev. Mr. Fear of the Methodist Church to James Edward Thompson, who pre-deceased her twenty-nine years ago on June 21st, when the members of their family were all quite young. After farming for a short time in Wellesley they moved to Milbank where they lived for about three years, then they moved to Milverton where Mr. Thompson was engaged in the Pfeffer Milling Co. to the time of his death. Mrs. Thompson was a devout member of the former Methodist Church and later the United Church. She was a very active member of the W.M.S. and Ladies Aid while she was able. Deprived of the help of her husband while her children were so young Mrs. Thompson laboured faithfully to raise her family and direct them in the proper paths. Surviving are two sons, Wellington and Winney of Milverton and two daughters (Blanche) Mrs. F. S. Adams, of Timmins and (Vera) Mrs. Jack Kreuter, of Kitchener. Three sisters and one brother also survive: (Agnes) Mrs. J. W. Allingham, of Walden; (Margaret) Mrs. Wm. Robinson Millbank, (Esther) Mrs. John Coulter, near Milverton, and Alex. of Milverton. There are four grandchildren. Three brothers pre-deceased here: John Wm., Jas. B. and Geo. T. The funeral was held on Monday from the residence of her son, Mr.

Wellington Thompson, to St. Paul's United Church, Milverton, where service was held. Rev. R. A. Brock, a former pastor, officiated, assisted by Rev. G. T. Watts. Dr. T. J. McDowell sang "The Sands of Time Are Sinking." Floral tributes were sent by Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Adams and family; Mr. and Mrs. A. Lago and family; the Chalmers family; M. and Mrs. Brown and family of Timmins.

The following were the pallbearers: J. E. Rouleau, John Zimmerman, W. S. Moore, S. J. Scott, J. T. Reid and R. H. Coulter. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Film This Week Deals With Smashing the Loan Shark

"I Promise to Pay," the special Columbia picture showing at the Palace theatre on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, June 16th and 17th, is a picture with a purpose. Its aim is to help smash the loan shark preying on the unfortunate and the harassed. The picture shows how these loan sharks get their grip and how they bleed them and oppress them. A souvenir booklet gives interesting sidelights on the picture, while the picture itself not only exposes the evils of the loan sharks, but also indicates how these gangs may be avoided. All should see this picture this week at the Palace.

POLICE ORATORS

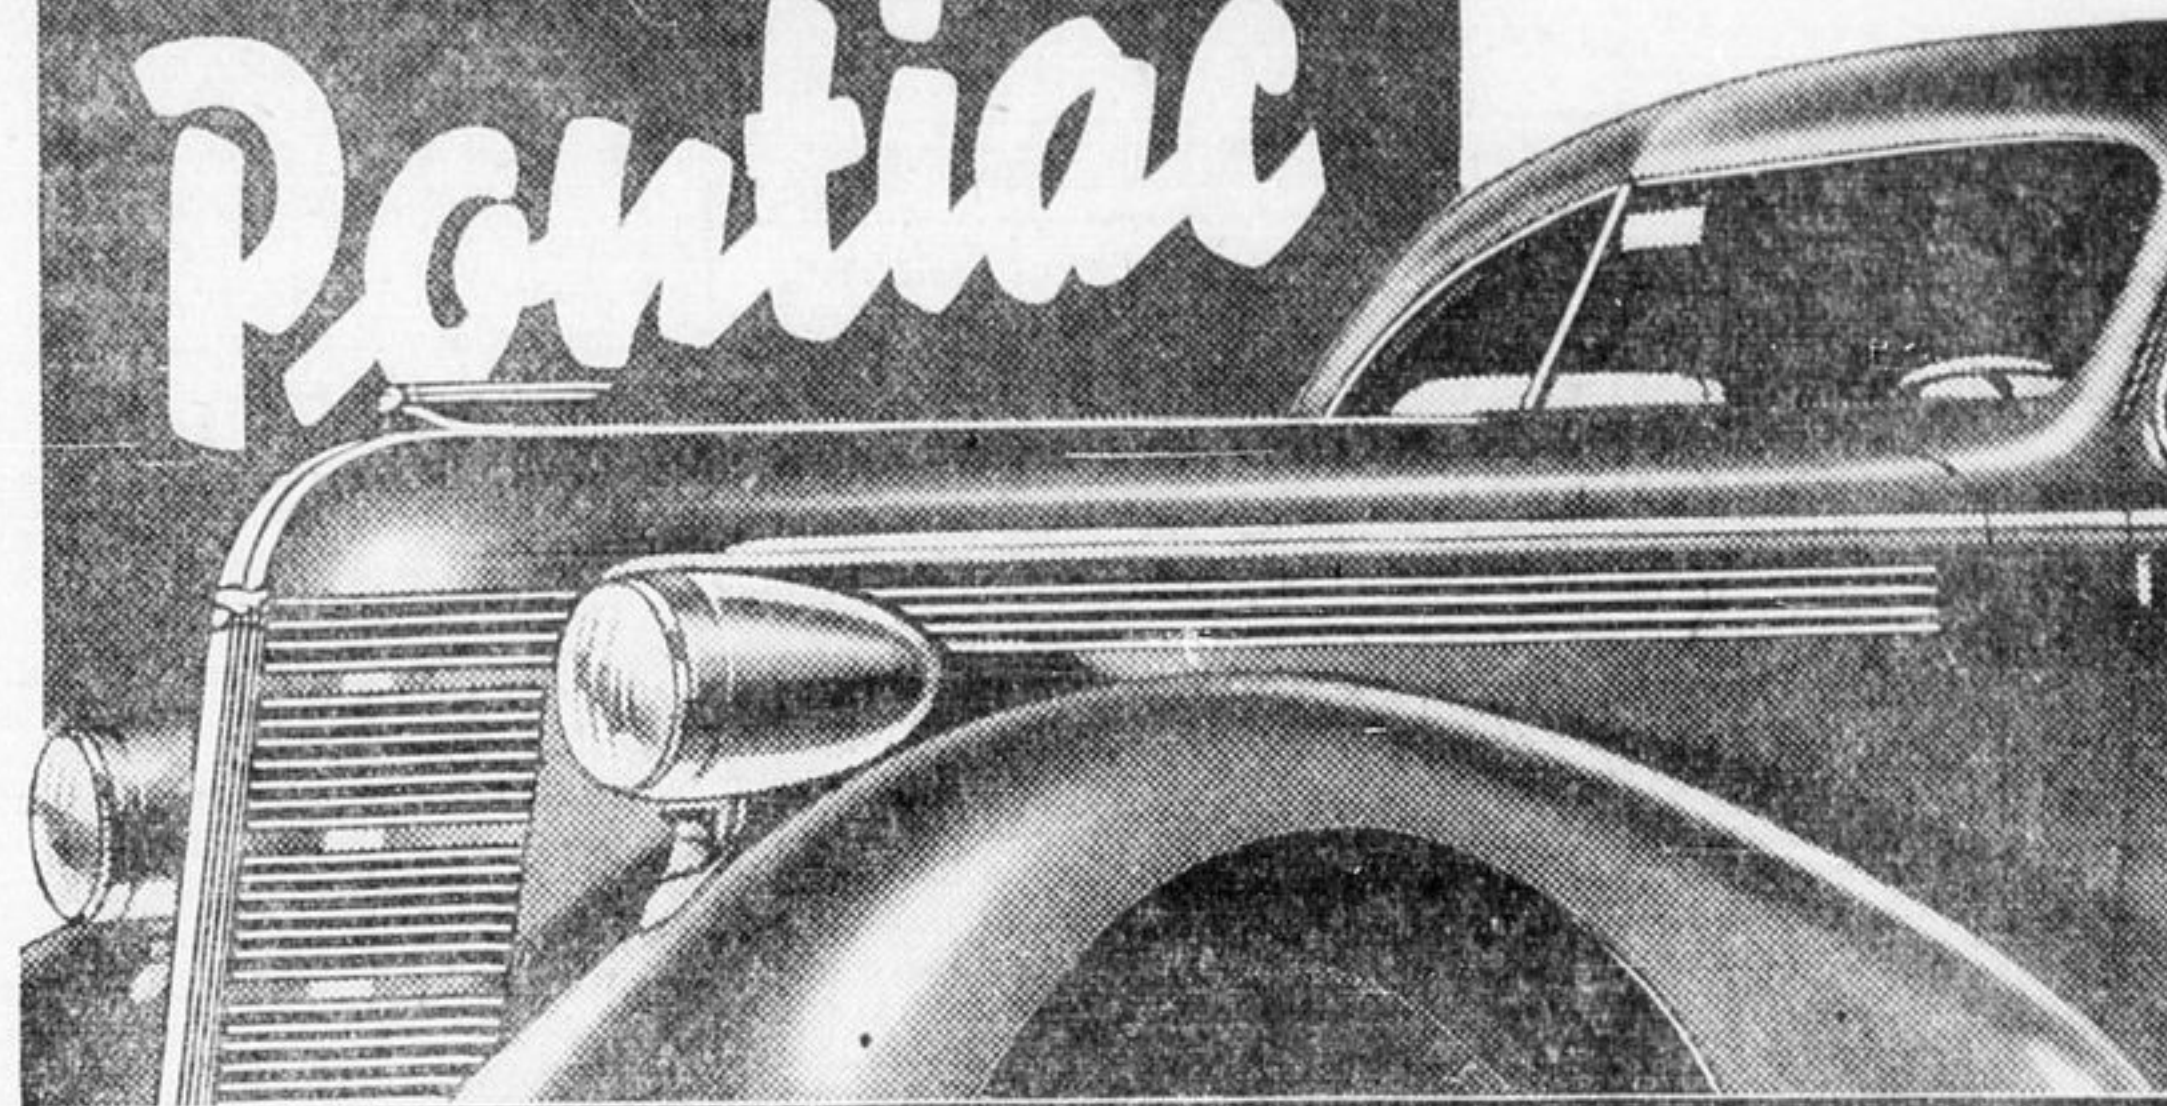

Classes in public speaking have been arranged for policemen at Kansas City. Much ill-feeling between the police and the public will thereby be removed, says Captain Hugh M. Dougherty, who is responsible for the innovation. "The traffic officer," Captain Dougherty explained, "often becomes irritated when a motorist questions his observations with more high-flown language than he can command. If an officer can express himself clearly and concisely, the motorist will have little or no comeback. The officer, being more sure of himself, will not be led so easily into revealing anger."
