Marriage at Regina of Dr. G. C. Armitage

Bride was Miss Elizabeth Pears, Regina. Couple to Reside in Schumacher.

Readers of The Advance will be interested in the following account of the marriage of Dr. George Clifford Armitage, of Schumacher, and Miss Elizabeth Pears, at Regina, Sask., on June 26. The Leader-Post printed a double column halftone photo of the couple, together with the following report of the wedding event:—

Fashionable Regina Wedding
Climaxing one month of extensive prenuptial entertaining, one of the most fashionable Regina weddings of the early summer season took place Saturday afternoon, June 26, at St. Paul's Church, Miss Ethel Elizabeth Pears becoming the bride of Dr. George Clifford Armitage. Miss Pears' engagement was announced May 26 by her brother, T. A. Pears, Assiniboia, who gave her in marriage. The groom, who arrived a few days before the wedding, from his home in Schumacher, Ont., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Armitage, Arborfield. He is an arts graduate of the University of Saskatchewan. The bride, who is a bachelor of music, was music instructor in Regina Normal, Balfour Technical, and Commercial High schools.

In accord with the summer season the colour harmony of the bridal picture reflected the ivory of the bride's gown and the pale blue and rose of her attendants. The church interior was tastefully decorated with peonies and gladioli in pastel shades, ferns and palms, the floral arrangement being concentrated about the light standards in the fore part of the church. White tulle bows and peonies marked the guest pews.

The Mendelssohn "Bridal Chorus" and Lohengrin "Wedding March" were played by B. M. Laubach during the processions, and the choir in attendance sang "God Is Love." Rev. Canon Parker and Rev. E. H. Lee officiated. The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Pears, sister of the bride, Winnipeg, and Miss Vera Pritchard, and the best man was Jack Armitage, brother of the groom. Don Scott Calder and Gordon Grassick acted as ushers.

Filmy Wedding Gown
Filmy and exquisite in ivory silk net over ivory satin, the bride's gown was a copy of a Molyneux model in princess style with close-fitting bodice. The skirt was shirred in panels from the hips and finished with a deep frill of the net which flared to the train at the back. Wide, elbow-length sleeves repeated the same shirred panel effect from the shoulders. Lovers' knots of the satin were suggested at the point of the neckline and dotted the panel edges about the skirt. A piping of ivory satin outlined the waist, tapering to a point at the back, from where a line of tiny self-covered buttons continued to the neck. The bridal veil of French em-broidered net framed the bride's hair in a wing halo effect and was caught at the back with orange blossoms, falling in cascades to the end of the train. The bride's formal bouquet consisted of a blend of Columbia roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Round matched bouquets of pastel gladioli, delphiniums and sweet peas enhanced the similar bridesmaid gowns worn by Miss Louise Pears and Miss Pritchard, the former in blue and the latter in rose. Full skirts, fluted bodice, V necklines and full puff sleeves featured the styling of these point d'esprit over taffeta gowns. Three rolls of contrasting shades of taffeta edged the skirts, the same shades being used for braided girdles which fastened with ties falling to the floor in front. Large picture hats of mohair and maline completed the ensembles.

Reception at Hotel
The bridal party, Mrs. W. Conyers, sister of the bride from Winnipeg, and the parents of the groom received about 150 guests after the ceremony at a buffet supper in the blue lounge and library of the Hotel Saskatchewan. Mrs. Conyers wore a navy sheer gown with matching taffeta hat, and a corsage of Talsman roses. The groom's mother was lovely in a black and white crepe gown with fingertip jacket and white felt hat. Her corsage was composed of Templar roses.

The table, centred with the three-tiered wedding cake surrounded with wispy pale green tulle dotted with smilax, was tastefully decorated with slender silver vases holding pale pink roses and blue delphiniums, and tall ivory tapers were alight. Mrs. Andrew Thomson, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. F. E. Duckett presided at the urns. Mrs. B. M. Laubach had charge of the servers, who included: Mrs. W. J. Ward, Mrs. F. J. Weir, Mrs. A. J. McCulloch, Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Don Scott Calder, Misses Violet McAfee, Zelma Teed, Mildred Thomson and Lillian Grassick. The bride's health was proposed by O. L. Latam.

Motor Honeymoon

The happy couple planned a month's motor honeymoon through American states and Eastern Canada, taking up residence in Schumacher early in August. Boucle delaine in royal blue and gold featured the travelling ensemble chosen by the bride, the skirt of blue and the double-breasted jacket of diagonal check in the two colours. The cravat and turban were of gold satin crepe, a gold and pearl beakle the only ornament on the turban. Her corsage was of Talsman roses.

Among the wedding party were the following from out of town: Mrs. W. Conyers and Miss Louise Pears, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pears, Assiniboia; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Armitage, Arborfield; Mr. Harry Armitage, Saskatoon; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Watterson, Mrs. Jack Midwinter and Mr. Jim Allen, Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Duncan, Prince Albert; Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Swanston, Moose Jaw; Mr. and Mrs. T. Perry, Misses Ruby Gleason and Helen Rattray, Estevan; Mrs. Claude Horning, Girvin; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramsay, S. A. G. Rawlinson, Mrs. W. Vicars, Misses Helen and Elizabeth Ramsay, Qu'Appelle.

Generally Fine and Warmer This Week

This is the Forecast Made by the Weatherman.

"Generally fine and warmer with possibly occasional thundershowers," is the prediction made by the weatherman of the atmospheric conditions which will prevail during the next few days. The average maximum temperature for the week-end was 77 degrees and the average minimum was 49 degrees. The individual temperatures were as follows: Friday, July 2nd, max. 71, min. 45; Saturday, July 3rd, max. 76, min. 48; Sunday, July 4th, max. 84, min. 54. The mercury dropped to a low of 58 degrees during last night and at 8.00 a.m. to-day it registered 60 degrees.

Precipitation:—Rain fell last night from 7.30 until 8.30 p.m. and another shower at 10.30 p.m. The total measured .15 inches.

Barrie Examiner:—One sees some queer spelling on signs along the road. The other day we noticed one "Cedar Point," near Lafontaine. This, however, is no worse than the Ontario Highways Dept. sign which bears the spelling "Tollandale" to direct people to the historic Tollendal.

South Porcupine Won Some Prizes at Tourney

First Prize for Best Dressed Parade, and Third Prize in the Ladder Race. Other Events at Timmins. Annual Convention Proves Very Satisfactory. Other News of South Porcupine and the Dome.

South Porcupine, July 3.—(Special to The Advance)—The rain interfered with everybody's enjoyment of Dominion Day, even pursuing our Fire Brigade to Amos and thoroughly drenching them in the parade. But even at that they won the distinction (and the prize) for the best dressed fire department there. Also third prize in the ladder race.

The fire departments from New Liskeard and Halleybury, which intended to fly in by plane, were prevented by the weather from going as no plane would take them, so, as the teams were not complete neither Halleybury nor New Liskeard took part in the competitions.

Congratulations to the brand new team from Val D'Or which won first in the ladder race—a team which has had to practice in their own home town with no water and inferior equipment but which did splendid work in making the grade in 17 1-5 seconds.

A very heavy track made the going slower than usual. A part from the weather conditions every visitor to Amos had a wonderful time. The townspeople were most hospitable and the freedom of the town was theirs (with all that that implies).

This is the first time that Amos has entertained the Temiskaming Firemen's Association on July 1st.

The results of the tournament are as follows:—

Amos, ladder race, 34; wagon race, 90. Schumacher, ladder 20 1-5; wagon 63 1-5.

New Liskeard, no run.

Rouyn, ladder 26 1-5; wagon, 53 4-5 (tied with Noranda Mine).

Swastika, ladder 24 2-5; wagon 76 3-5. Kirkland Lake, no run.

Malartic, no run (new team lately joined to T.F.A.)

Noranda Mine, ladder 22 2-5; wagon, 53 4-5 (tied with Rouyn).

Val D'Or, ladder 17 1-5; wagon, 69.

South Porcupine, ladder, 19; wagon, 64.

Noranda, ladder, 18 1-5; wagon, 56 1-5.

Results of tie-run—Rouyn, 80 2-5; Noranda Mine, 70.

Dome Mine Ambulance Competition

On Tuesday evening (June 29th) the initial inter-department competition in ambulance work among Dome Mines employees was held in the Dome Community hall.

The trials were well attended and it argues well for the future success of these competitions because of the interest displayed by the audience of both ladies and gentlemen.

The judges were:—Dr. J. B. Kinsman and Dr. J. Barry, and they had a difficult time deciding which was the best team; eventually however, the splendid silver shield trophy was given to the team composed of Messrs Ron Mansfield, Harry Rogers, Webb Acton, and Wes. Murray.

Individual awards will be given to the successful team later, and Mr. R. E. Dye, the donor of the awards, stated that a banquet would be held to present them.

Great credit is due Mr. R. S. McWilliams for his painstaking efforts in training the team and in the complete success of the affair.

William C. Thuerck Hands
Over Offices to Others

In the Thursday issue of The Haileyburian the following item of special interest appeared:—

"William C. Thuerck, who, for the past two and a half years has held the positions of sheriff, district court clerk, registrar of the supreme court and registrar of the surrogate court, for the District of Temiskaming, received orders from the Department last week to hand over these offices to other court officials, under an order-in-council dated June 23rd, 1937. Records, etc., of the sheriff's office went to the deputy sheriff, H. Clifford, while those of the other offices were turned over to the crown attorney, J. B. Robinson, in accordance with the provision of the Act governing these departments. Mr. Thuerck said that his plans for the future were indefinite."

To Try Kirkland Man in Manslaughter Case

Committed for Trial Following Death of Wife in Car Crash.

Haileybury, July 5.—(Special to The Advance)—Magistrate Atkinson, his usual schedule of sittings upset by the holiday, had a busy time here last Saturday, and among the cases before him there were two accused who drew a penitentiary term and a sentence in the Reformatory, respectively, and a third committed to the Temiskaming Fall Assizes, opening before Mr. Justice Hogg on October 4 next, on a charge of manslaughter. This last defendant is Nelson Vinkle, of Kirkland Lake, who is charged in connection with the automobile fatality in which his wife, a passenger in his own car, was the victim. Three witnesses testified in his case, but there were no new developments from the inquest evidence into the death of Mrs. Rosie Vinkle, who succumbed to injuries sustained at Argente on June 20 in Misericordia hospital here two days later.

Robert Nepton, who pleaded guilty to two charges of breaking and entering and two more of theft, all at Matachevan within a few weeks, was given two years at Kingston on each of the first two and six months on each of the others, all concurrent. The court heard Crown Attorney Robinson read and accused admit a lengthy record of convictions in different parts of Ontario, in Montreal and in Belgium, and the bench observed leniency apparently had not checked Nepton. Nicholas Pairant, Cobalt man convicted of assault, drew six months for an alleged attack on his former landlord. He was leaving the place, it appeared, and William Stinson, witness in the case, said he had to intervene three times between accused and the host he was leaving on request.

Provincial Police
Raids in District

Several Charges in Regard to Alleged Violation of Liqueur Laws.

The provincial police made three arrests over the week-end, all in dealing with alleged violations of the Liqueur Control Act.

Constables Joannston and Strickland raided Pine Grove Inn at Cook's Lake and arrested Thomas Sullivan on a charge of illegal possession of liquor. The raid was made Saturday night and the police seized 120 pints of beer. The same house was raided on June 11th, and Mike Gentile was convicted on a charge of illegal possession.

Frank DeLuco, McDonald Hill was arrested last night and was charged with keeping liquor for sale.

Dominic Brant, McDonald Hill, was also arrested yesterday and charged with obstructing an officer and illegal possession.

The constables raided Frank Otonicer, McDonald Hill, last night, and although he was not arrested, a charge of illegal possession will be laid against him to-day.

REBUKED BY DUKE OF WINDSOR

Sir Gerald Wollaston, Garter King-of-Arms of England, whose allusion to former King Edward's demand that he hasten the arrangements for the funeral of the late King George V., has drawn a sharp public rebuke from the Duke of Windsor. Sir Gerald is shown above reading the proclamation of Accession when Edward succeeded to the Throne.
