Toronto is getting all primed up for the big boxing night at the Maple Leaf stadium tomorrow night. The main bout will be between Tommy Bland and Gordy Wallace. The winner will likely meet Frankie Genovese for the championship in the welter division.

Mr. Evans, who has trained Tommy Farr since the latter was elevn years old, says that all bets are as safe as the money in the bank and there will be lots on Farr.

He seems to be the only one that is giving Farr any chance to win at all, so don't be surprised if he is right. I don't know much about Farr, but I still say Louis has only met one good man and was beaten by him. As for Farr he has met some good men and has beaten them all. He clipped Walter Neusel in short order, while at the same time Walter held Schmelling to a decision over ten rounds, with Schmell-

Why the Lumberman Could Not Take Sides in Fight,

(From "Grab Samples" in Northern Miner)

In the early days of the Porcupine camp a new bank manager came to replace a casualty in the financial rank and few knew who he was at first. He went into one of the local hotels one evening taking his dog with him. The hotel proprietor didn't like dogs and proceeded to kick this one out with ceremony. The bank manager naturally resented his rudeness and words began to fly. Presently fists were introduced into the argument and a nice little battle developed. The only bystander was a lumber dealer; who looked on passively. When some men rushed in off the street and separated the combatants one of them asked the lumberman: "Why didn't you stop the fight?" The lumberman, who had recognized the bank manager right off the bat, replied: "How could I? I owe a month's board to the hotel man and have a $500 overdraft at the bank.
