Old-Timer Urges Riding to Let Her "Go Gallagher"

Has Known Charlie Gallagher a Long Time and Supports Him Gladly Because Mr. Gallagher has Always Been the Active Friend of the Workingman, the Businessman and the North.

South Porcupine, Ont.,
Sept. 27th, 1937.

To the Editor of
The Advance, Timmins.
Dear Sir—I have known Charles V. Gallagher ever since he first came to Porcupine. I have been waiting for a long time for Mr. Gallagher to contest this riding in the Ontario elections, and chance to support him for the simple reason that I have always found Mr. Gallagher to be a real friend of the working class, as well as of the business man of the Porcupine and the North.

Mr. Gallagher was instrumental in getting the highway routed through the business street of South Porcupine and if elected he will make it his business to see that we will get a first-class highway to Matheson through the farming areas east of Nighthawk Lake, thus saving the car-owners quite a few miles travelling to the Ferguson highway. I feel pretty sure that if lots of men who have been successful in business here at Porcupine were in the same position as Charlie Gallagher that they would be living here in a handsome home, but instead would be in Toronto or Southern Ontario. If Kamiskotia gets busy I am sure Charles V. Gallagher will get busy on the question of a road there, or any other place in his riding. Say what you like about Mitch Heppburn or any other Liberals, but it is quite sure that you are away wrong if you try to make out that Chas. V. Gallagher is not the real friend of the working class and the business people. He has already proved himself to be so. As an old-timer as well as a present resident, I feel certain that there is no better man to elect to serve the North, so on Oct. 6—election day—I urge you to Let her "Go Gallagher".

Stop Salvaging of Metal at Kirkland Lake Dump

Last week the Kirkland Lake town council issued notices to the effect that no one was to take scrap metal from the township ground except as might be arranged by the council. With the wars in progress overseas causing a big demand for material, scrap metals are bringing good prices and consequently there has been a brisk trade in Kirkland in this material. The dump has proved a sort of "mine" for those seeking old metal and it is understood that some men have been making good money by scavenging the dump for old metal. Old auto bodies, broken stoves, and discarded articles of various kinds have been salvaged from the Kirkland dumping ground as a result of the demand for old metal. The Kirkland council now is of the opinion that perhaps a contract may be made with some of the regular dealers in scrap material and that the town may be able to make some money from the business originating on the dumping ground. With this idea in mind, the Kirkland Lake council has stopped all salvaging on the dump until arrangements can be made for the town to get its share of any profits.

North Young Couple Wedded at Toronto

Miss Marjorie Elizabeth Wright and Mr. Reginald Beatty Follett Married Last Week.

At Christ Church, Deer Park, Toronto, on Monday evening, September 20th, the marriage took place of Marjorie Elizabeth Wright, of Schumacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wright, to Reginald Beatty Follett, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Follett, of Islington.

Yellow chrysanthemums and asters made a pretty setting for the ceremony which was performed by a life-long friend of the groom, the Rev. Gerald Burch.

The bride wore her travelling costume, a tailored brown suit, with pink blouse, brown hat and brown suede shoes. Her corsage was of yellow roses and bouvardia.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Muriel Wright, of Buffalo, who wore green wool sheer with black velvet hat and corsage of sweet peas and cornflowers.

The groom's cousin, Mr. James Follett, played softly throughout the ceremony, after which a reception was held in the Guild room of the church, where Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Follett received the immediate friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Follett spent their honeymoon at the Kawartha Lakes, later leaving for the North, where they will live, the groom being employed at the Buffalo-Ankerite Mine at South Porcupine.

Premier to be Heard on Saturday Over the Air

Expected to Make Important Announcement at Meeting in Toronto. A. G. Slaght, M.P., to be Another of the Speakers for the Occasion. Interesting Programme of Addresses and Other Features.

Toronto, Sept. 29th.—Toronto's historic Massey Hall, where many political battles have been fought, will be the scene where Premier Mitchell F. Heppburn will fire his final shots in the Ontario election campaign. The Toronto Central Liberal Association has organized a gigantic public rally in honour of Premier Heppburn this Saturday night, October 2, when final rebuttal to his opponents and an announcement of provincial-wide significance will be made by the premier.

Premier Heppburn's address, starting at 10 p.m. will be broadcast over a wide provincial network of radio stations in Toronto, Fort William, Hamilton, Kirkland Lake, London, North Bay, Ottawa, St. Catharines, Sault Ste. Marie, Sudbury, Timmins, Windsor, Wingham and Waterloo. The stations carrying the speech are: CKPR, CHML, CFRC, CFPL, CFCH, CRCO, CKTB, CJIC, CKSO, CKGB, CFRB, CKLV, CKNX, and CKCR.

Flanking the premier on either side on the platform will be seventeen Liberal candidates who are running in Toronto and York. Behind these candidates will sit their wives. Massey Hall has been elaborately decorated for the big political meeting, and Toronto Liberals predicted today that not only would every seat in the hall be occupied, but hundreds will have to listen to the proceedings outside the building. Loud speakers are to be installed for their benefit.

Only other two speakers during Saturday night's meeting will be Arthur G. Slaght, K.C.M.P. (Parry Sound), and Mrs. Daniel Strachan, mother of Ian Strachan, who is a candidate in St. George riding. Mrs. Strachan is a former president of the Toronto Women's Liberal Association, and will speak in behalf of the Liberal women of Ontario. Mr. Slaght, who will introduce Mr. Heppburn, will speak for 20 minutes.

Sharp at 10 p.m. Ontario's premier will be introduced. His speech, will go out on a provincial network that includes 15 radio stations will occupy an hour. Radio authorities state that the Prime Minister's address will have as extensive a hook-up as ever before attempted in Ontario. Engineers are already at work checking and testing lines to make certain that transmission will be perfect.

Demand for tickets started early this week when first announcement of the meeting was made. Tickets were being distributed through Liberal candidates' committee rooms. Many requests for tickets have reached Liberal headquarters in Toronto from people in towns and villages throughout Ontario. Community singing will feature the gathering. Don Linden, well known choir leader and song director, will lead the audience in old favourites. Luigi Romanelli and his celebrated orchestra will entertain the throngs for a half hour before the meeting officially starts at 8.30 p.m.

It is estimated that Premier Heppburn's audience in Massey Hall and in their own homes listening to his voice over the radio, will be by far the largest audience reached by any one speaker in the present election.

STILL SMILING

Premier Mitchell Heppburn as shown in one of his most recent photographs. He is amused at something—probably hearing that the Bartleman party candidate is increasing the price of pulpwood for the settlers in the North.

Pioneer Says North Needs C. V. Gallagher

Knows the Country and has Always Worked for It.

South Porcupine, Ont.,
Sept. 29, 1937.

To the Editor of
The Advance, Timmins.

Dear Sir—South Cochrane needs Gallagher to represent it because if there is any other things South Cochrane really needs C. V. Gallagher will go after them and make it a point to get them. He has been doing it for a quarter of a century regardless of what party was in power.

Keep eyes on the country south of Porcupine Camp for future gold mines. Gallagher will get the road to them.

Elect Gallagher to go after your interests in South Cochrane, as he has been doing for twenty-five years.

Gallagher knows the North like a book, having travelled over most of it and surveyed a considerable lot of it. He is the right man in the right place as Member.

If Better Roads in the North are needed Gallagher will get them if anybody can.

All other mining towns in the North seem to have long stretches of road kept open during the winter. Porcupine, the Pioneer Camp, needs the road kept open to the railway. Gallagher will work hard to have it done.

More Roads and Better Roads to the settlers! Gallagher will go after them! No better friend of the settlers than C. V. Gallagher. Mark your ballots for Gallagher!

Yours truly,
Harry A. Preston.

Hon. Geo. Henry Collapses on Platform While Speaking

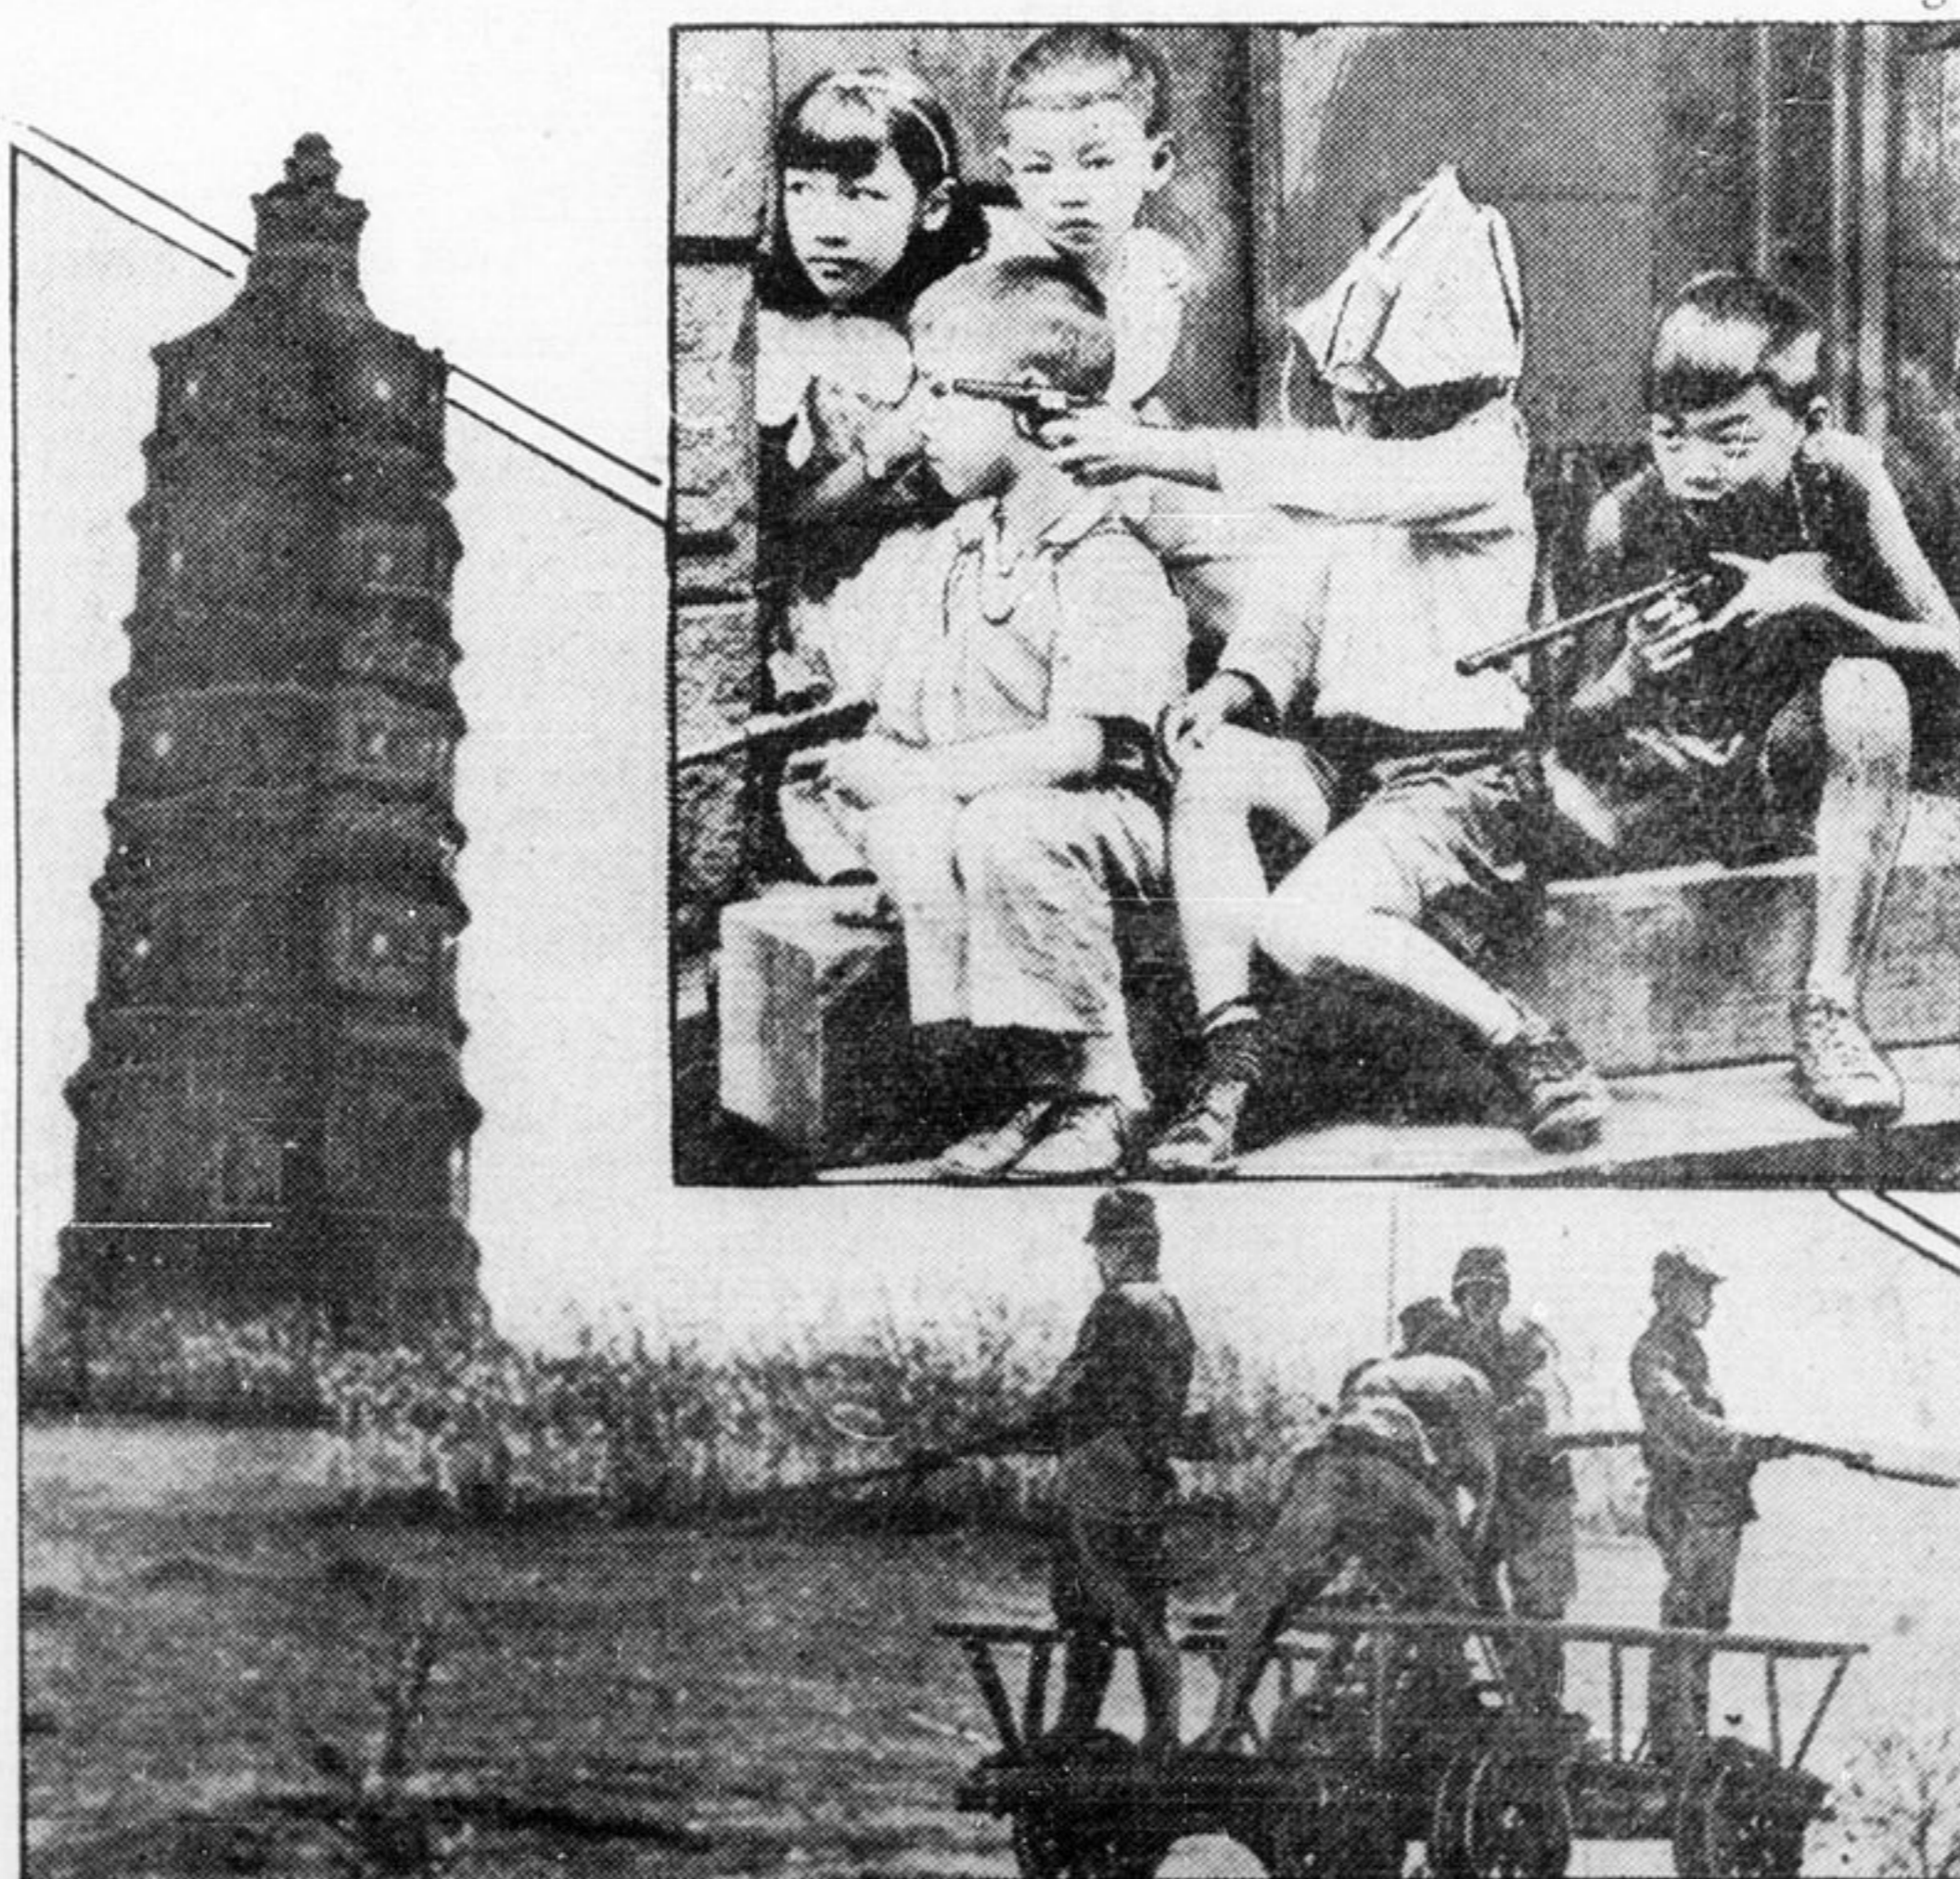

Hon. George S. Henry, former Prime Minister of Ontario, collapsed while addressing a meeting of his supporters in the Veterans' Hall in Todmorden Monday night.

The former premier had been speaking for over twenty minutes, in a stuffy atmosphere, when suddenly he halted, gripped the table with both hands, and then slumped to the floor.

Friends on the platform immediately rushed to his aid, and were successful in bringing him to consciousness before Dr. H. R. Elliott, Pape Avenue, arrived.

Mr. Henry had overcome with the heat in the small hall, but refused to leave, and after the meeting had been suspended for some minutes, he took his seat back on the platform, stating that he was eager to complete his address.

About Good Luck and Four-leaved Clover

If Given Away, Luck Given Away for Seven Years, Says Book Quoted by Writer.

Timmins, Ont., Sept. 27, 1937
To the Editor of

The Advance, Timmins.

Dear Sir—We have been reading about the four leaf clover in The Advance and were very much interested.

In July, 1916, I found one solitary four-leaf clover on Salisbury Plain, England, and on August the twenty-second, 1917, I was still carrying it when a bullet went through my left arm and cut through the muscle and hit a shovel which I had inside my equipment and over my heart.

Our girl found a four leaf clover two weeks ago and since then she has had—what to her is—wonderful luck.

On the other hand, about eight years ago my wife found a patch of them in our garden. She was very much excited and we both search. My wife found another patch while I found one. We gave away a lot and the rest we kept ourselves. We have them yet. However, from that time on everything went sour. We couldn't do anything right. Yet the people to whom we gave the clover began to hop ahead like mushrooms.

We were just getting used to expecting everything we touched to go wrong when my wife read in an English book, that: "To find four leaf clover is good luck to the finder. To give them away is to give your luck away. However, the person to whom you give it will have
