IN TIMMINS

From data in the Porcupine Advance Files

The new District of Cochrane Children's Aid Shelter, corner of Vimy Road and Hollinger Lane, Timmins, was formally opened ten years ago, Mr. J. J. Kelso, of Toronto, superintendent for the province of the Children's Aid Societies, and of the Department of Neglected and Dependent Children for Ontario, coming here for the occasion. Other special visitors from out-of-town included:—Mr. W. O'Connor, Toronto, inspector of R. C. children who are wards of the society; Mrs. Peever, matron of the North Bay C.A.S. shelter, and former popular resident of town, being greeted here by many old friends who remembered her very kindly from the earlier days of the camp; Mr. J. McCracken, superintendent of the Temiskaming C.A.S., Haileybury; and Mr. Geo. T. Smith, of Haileybury, treasurer of the Temiskaming Society, and a worker for many years in the children's cause. During the day about 300 people inspected the new shelter and were delighted with everything about it, especially with the homelike attractiveness and the complete furnishings and equipment. At 4.30 p.m. on Monday, October 31st, the formal opening took place, the downstairs part of the home being crowded for the occasion. Mr. Kelso's address in opening the shelter was much appreciated. Before introducing Mr. Kelso, G. A. Macdonald, president of the District Society, expressed the thanks and appreciation of the Children's Aid and the children to the District Building Committee, the Finance Committee, the Kiwanees, the town, the Hollinger, the Power Co., and all the others who had helped to make this beautiful and complete shelter a reality. Mrs. H. W. Darling, president of the Kiwanees, was called upon and in brief but effective way thanked all who had helped to make the Kiwanees Fair the big success it was. By this fair some $6000 had been raised for furnishing the shelter and most of the money was then expended Mrs. Darling said. She also stated that all felt it was a pleasure to work for the children. In the address that delighted and inspired all, Mr. Kelso referred to the work of the C.A.S. in helping children and the purpose and value of the shelter. He complimented all concerned, and especially the Kiwanees, on the beautiful and complete home here. It was not a place to keep children permanently, but rather a temporary home until foster homes could be secured for the children. Children nearly always carried the good influence of the C.A.S. home into the foster homes that adopted them. Oftentimes the child proved a genuine blessing to the home into which it was adopted, Mr. Kelso giving interesting illustrations of cases along this line. In closing he thanked all for the interest shown and urged them to continue their consideration for the children, as the work paid wonderful dividends in better citizenship.

Ten years ago, at her home at 112 Spruce street north, the beloved wife of Mr. Melvin Cavanagh passed to the great beyond after a long illness. The late Mrs. Cavanagh had wide circles of friends, and was an active member of the Timmins Rebekah Lodge before her illness. The funeral took place from her late residence to the United Church where Rev. J. D. Parks conducted the funeral service. Rev. Mr. Parks spoke of the fine life of the late Mrs. Cavanagh and gave comfort to those who mourned her death. The Rebekah Order walked in a body to the church and from there to the cemetery where their impressive ceremony formed the last sad rites at the graveside.

Hallowe'en was observed in Timmins on a Monday night ten years ago on a more extended scale than ever before that time. There were a couple of masquerade dances scheduled for the evening, together with a number of private parties, and these drew a large attendance in each case. The bulk of the people, however, seemed to be gathered on the principal streets of the town, where there were literally hundreds of costumes and make-ups, chiefly of comic type. Some of the bands of masqueraders had their own little orchestras or bands with them and thus made very interesting feature of the evening.

The feature of the weekly luncheon of the Timmins Kiwanis Club ten years ago was the inspirational address by Mr. J. J. Kelso, superintendent of the Children's Aid Societies for Ontario, and head of the Ontario Government department for neglected and dependent children. Mr. Kelso's address gave a clear and comprehensive review of the work being done for the betterment of the chances of children for the best in life and the opportunity this sort of work gives for the finest of service in building good citizenship. The address was listened to with the closest attention and won the heartiest appreciation and applause. Dr. Lee Honey, president of the Kiwanis Club, occupied the chair in his usual able and agreeable way. Des. Murphy's "Hot Potato" orchestra, with Murphy himself at the piano, Victor playing the accordion, and Gene Colombo on the violin, furnished the liveliest and most attractive of music for the occasion. There were half a dozen visitors, prominent in Children's Aid Society work, present as guests of the Kiwanis Club.

Tag day ten years ago for the Victorian Order of Nurses work at Timmins was very pleasingly successful, over $600 being realized from the subscriptions taken and the sale of tags. Mr. P. Dougall, president of the local V.O.N. committee, interviewed the business places of the town and secured a neat amount in subscriptions. There were about 25 ladies who kindly volunteered to do the work of selling the tags, and to these and to the general public for the generosity shown, the local V.O.N. was very grateful. The results of the tag day exceeded expectations in material way, and the work went on with renewed encouragement, there being the satisfaction that the work had the hearty support of the people.

At the annual meeting of the Northern Ontario Associated Boards of Trade which was held at Englehart, October 26, 1927, ten years ago, C. W. Wright, of Englehart, was elected president, unanimously, on motion of Geo. T. Smith, of Haileybury, seconded by G. L. Cameron of Iroquois Falls. Geo. T. Smith was elected vice-president on motion of A. A. Sutton, of Iroquois Falls, and Jos. Branchaud, of Haileybury. A large amount of business was attended to.

Announcement was made ten years ago at Toronto by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, premier of Ontario, that the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway had earned its full interest charges, and the total to be turned over to the provincial treasury was the nice sum of $1,300,000. This was the announcement for the year 1927, and was $300,000 more than was turned over the previous year, being a record for the railway.

A young fellow not long in town, and not much longer out from the Old Country, was given seven days in jail ten years ago on a charge of being drunk in charge of a motor cycle. The young fellow, while salubrious, picked up a motorcycle on street and went for a joy ride. To make the matter worse than the usual in this type of technical theft, the lad picked upon the police department motorcycle. He got it running in fine shape, being a mechanic of some cleverness, apparently. As a helmsman, however, he did not seem so good, the cycle making all sorts of turns and dashes. The police heard of the reckless motorcycle driving and went out after the offender, shortly locating the young fellow and finding him ripe enough to lock up for drunkenness.

All attending the United Church ten years ago were inspired by the interesting and compelling address of Mr. J. J. Kelso, superintendent of Children's Aid Societies for the Province of Ontario, and for thirty years head of the department established by the Ontario Government to see that every child in this province has a fair chance in life. Mr. Kelso held the keenest attention of the large gathering for nearly half an hour, and all left with a keener appreciation of the good work accomplished by the Children's Aid and the Government department for neglected and dependent children. Rev. J. D. Parks conducted the services and introduced Mr. Kelso. The latter, in commencing his remarks said that, perhaps, the object of the address might best be accomplished by simply telling the story of how God's hand had guided one life to the service of children. This was the story of his own life.

In the South Porcupine news ten years ago: "There is on exhibition in the United Provision Co.'s window this week a small (?) specimen of what can be grown in this North. It is a head of cabbage, weighing only 26 pounds, eight ounces. It was grown in the garden of I. P. Wilson, Golden City. This is November and in our own garden there are perennial phlox and roses still in bloom, that have never once been covered to protect them from the frost. Perennials have been in bloom since May. Seven months is not such a bad period of blossoming for what people are wont to call "the frozen North."

One of the most enjoyable social features of the season ten years ago was the masquerade dance held in the McIntyre Recreation hall, Schumacher, by the Timmins Branch, Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. There was a large crowd present for the dance, a large percentage being in costume, both Hallowe'en and other fancy costumes. Prizes were awarded for the best fancy costume and the best comic costume.

The euvre and bridge social ten years ago on behalf of the Roman Catholic Church of South Porcupine proved a wonderful success. The street in front of the Continuation School, South Porcupine, was crowded with cars from the district. The vast hall of the school was filled to capacity, and a dozen tables had to be added to accommodate the players.

Ten years ago at the Roman Catholic Church in South Porcupine the wedding took place of Mr. Donat Dagenais to Miss Alma Dagenais. Rev. Father Lagrevol officiated.

Among the local news items in the Advance ten years ago were: "Mrs. L. Gillespie, of Toronto, was a visitor to Timmins last week." "Mr. Morris Daher left on Wednesday morning for Toronto to undergo an operation for goitre." "Born—in Timmins, Ont., on Tuesday, Nov. 1st, 1927, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Martin, 13 Fifth avenue—a daughter." "Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Molsley and baby are spending the Thanksgiving holiday at their old home in the South." "Born—to Mr. and Mrs. S. Kent, on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, 1927, at 28 Main avenue, Timmins—a daughter." "Mr. W. A. Gordon, barrister, of Haileybury, was a visitor to town last week, being the solicitor for one of the men charged with being concerned in the high-grading here recently. Mr. Gordon's client was freed from all cnus in the matter, the case being dismissed against him." "Mr. Cecil Dunham, of Hamilton, spent a few days in the camp last week, the guests of friends here." "Born—in Timmins, on Tuesday, Nov. 1st, 1927, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Springham—a daughter (Constance Florence)."

BLACKHEADS
Blackheads go quickly by a simple method that just dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, rub this with a hot, wet cloth gently over the blackheads—and you will wonder where they have gone. Have a Hollywood complexion.

Huntingdon Gleaner: Financial strain to pay his winter coal bill in a lump sum, started a Chicago man saving his pennies. That was a year ago. Recently he walked into a coal company office, placed a 32-pound bag of coppers on the counter and ordered seven tons of coal. The pennies, 5250 of them, paid the bill.

Strong Man Given Heavy Term for Illicit Still

When R.C.M.P. officers raided the premises occupied by Alphonse Ouellet, in the bush near Remi Lake, a few miles east of Kapuskasing, they found a complete still, with 80 gallons of mash and four gallons of distilled spirits.

Appearing in Kapuskasing police court this week before Magistrate E. R. Tucker, Ouellet pleaded guilty to operating the still. Evidence showing that this was his third offence, the court sentenced him to pay a fine of $500 or serve six months, with an added six months' imprisonment.

The fine was not paid and Ouellet will therefore face a 12-month jail sentence.

The accused man has a reputation in the district as a strong man and is well known as a weight lifter. The last occasion on which he was arrested for the same offence he escaped from the custody of the police and was not re-arrested for a year. At that time he was sent to jail on charges of breaking custody and of operating a still.
