To Consider Renaming Many Timmins Streets

Council Regrets Was Not Consulted Before Houses Renumbered. Much Confusion and Some Expense Has Been the Result. Businesses Suffered

At the regular meeting of Council yesterday afternoon the town clerk was authorized to prepare a by-law changing the names of many Timmins streets and giving as yet unnamed extensions of streets, titles.

It was unfortunate, said the mayor, that the council had not been consulted before the changing of numbers took place. No notification of the act had been given the municipal body.

Following is a list of streets, their present name and location, and the suggested new name:

Table with 3 columns: Present Name, Location, Proposed Name. Lists streets like First Avenue, Second Avenue, etc., and their proposed new names.

The pre-school and baby Health Clinic, under Nurse Fowler, held every Wednesday in the town hall, is steadily growing in registration numbers, over 60 now being on the roll.

A separate entrance on the east side leads to the waiting room for patients, fitted with conveniences, and south of which are Dr. McLaren's consulting room and examining room.

Upstairs is a modern large apartment, which will be used by Dr. McLaren as living quarters. Dr. Rutherford, of Kirkland Lake, who is an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be in attendance on certain days at the clinic.

Moose Drop Turkey Stag for This Year

Lack of a Suitable Hall the Reason for Discontinuance of Annual Charity Event

A letter received this week from T. H. Richards, secretary of Timmins Lodge No. 1658 Loyal Order of Moose, says:

"Owing to the lack of a suitable hall in which to hold the annual Charity Turkey Stag, the officers of the above lodge have reluctantly decided to let it drop for this year."

The letter asks The Advance to make this known to the public through the medium of this newspaper.

The news will be received with general regret by many as the Timmins Charity Turkey Stag has been an outstanding event in the winter season of each succeeding year since 1923.

The feature was started by A. Lapratie (known to every one in the North as "Lap"). He made the Turkey Stag a big feature, introducing all sorts of novelties. It was continued each year under "Lap's" management until he was transferred by the C.I.L. to Toronto.

The event, under Lap's dynamic management was an entertainment that people talked about for months. It was also copied in many other towns, but in none of them with the notable success shown here. The Whiskering contest that featured one year's Stag made not only the event but the town as well famous all over the continent. Newspapers were here from Chicago as well as Canadian cities to take pictures of the whiskers on display by the contestants and the crowds at the Stag.

Under Lap's management the event was a top-notch affair as an entertainment, while it was equally successful in bringing in the money, providing each year hundreds of hampers for those in need in town or district at the Christmas season.

The balance between entertainment and charity was very cleverly adjusted, the Christmas hamper feature always being kept in mind.

After Mr. Lapratie was promoted to the charge of the Toronto district of the Canadian Explosives branch of the C.I.L., the local Order of Moose public spiritedly took up the feature and has carried it on for some years. There will be general regret that the lack of hall facilities has made it necessary for the feature to be dropped this year.

Mayor Bartleman gave a short address and the hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past", was sung. Mr. Neame, in a brief talk, thanked the Dominion Bridge Company for the flag pole and the Hollinger Mine.

The parade then formed and marched back to the Legion hall. The police force led and the Timmins Citizens' Band followed. Then came several enlisted men of the Algonquin Rifles and standardbearers. The fire department was on parade and many of the members of the Timmins branch of the Canadian Legion.

The Girl Guides marched, the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion and representatives from the Roumanian, Czechoslovakian, Ukrainian, Polish and Italian societies. The Porcupine Pipe Band assisted the Timmins Citizens' Band with the music.

There were many wreaths laid on the cenotaph by societies, associations, merchants and private individuals. Among them were wreaths from the St. John Ambulance Society, the Gold Nugget Rebecca Lodge, the I.O.D.E., the Daughters of England, the I.O.O.F., the Eastern Star, Kiwanis Club, Scouts and Cubs, Lions Club, Police Department, Fire Department, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Town of Timmins, Sons of Scotland, L.O.B.A., Buffalo Ankertite, Hollinger Mine, Hebrew Society, Mrs. J. Farrer, Girl Guides and Brownies, Algonquin Rifles, two from the Provincial government, the Legion, the Polish White Eagle Society, the Canadian Ukrainian Prosvita Society, the Loyal Finns, the Roumanian Society, the Italian War Veterans and the Dominion government.

Mrs. Charlton placed the wreath from the Provincial Government sent to Timmins, and Mr. Mansfield, of South Porcupine, the wreath for the Porcupine.

Mr. Mustard, then was considered so honourable to believe in and work for peace. The passing of the former Prime Minister, Ramsay MacDonald, recalled the storm that surged around him during the war when he stoutly fought for peace.

Why, asked the speaker, should it be thought so impossible to have unanimity of feeling and brotherhood between nations. In this camp men and women of different races, creeds and classes lived peacefully together working in co-operation for the betterment of the community and building it up.

He advised the crowd of more than a thousand people who turned out for the service, to make this day a hallowed day, to make this day a day to be remembered, to make this day a day to be remembered, to make this day a day to be remembered.

After the singing of the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers", which opened the service, and Mr. Mustard's address and prayer two bombs were discharged and the Hollinger whistle blew. Two minutes silence were observed and again bombs were discharged. The "Last Post" and "Reveille" was sounded by A. Pierce and a lament played by the pipers of the Porcupine Pipe Band.

Arrested on Charge of Threat of Death

Man Recently Fined at Halleybury Taken to Sudbury for Trial.

Halleybury, Nov. 10.—Fred Mullens, who hailed from Sudbury, is on his way back to that city in charge of an officer of the Sudbury police force to face a charge of threatening to kill his former employer F. Chisholm.

Mullens, who is stated to have successfully escaped from the Guelph Reformatory in 1935, has had an eventful career in the last few weeks. After his escape from Sudbury he came north and ran into grief for two offences. He got too much to drink and while in that condition he walked or rather motored off with several of the road flares put out to guide passing motorists around some of the many detours. He was, however, arrested for illegal consumption of liquor for which he paid $100 and costs at a special Saturday court held here a week ago. Then he went north, and when arrested he had just entered into a contract to cut 5,000 cords of pulpwood for the Woolings Co. at Connaught.

Five Hundred Pupils Hear Fine Address

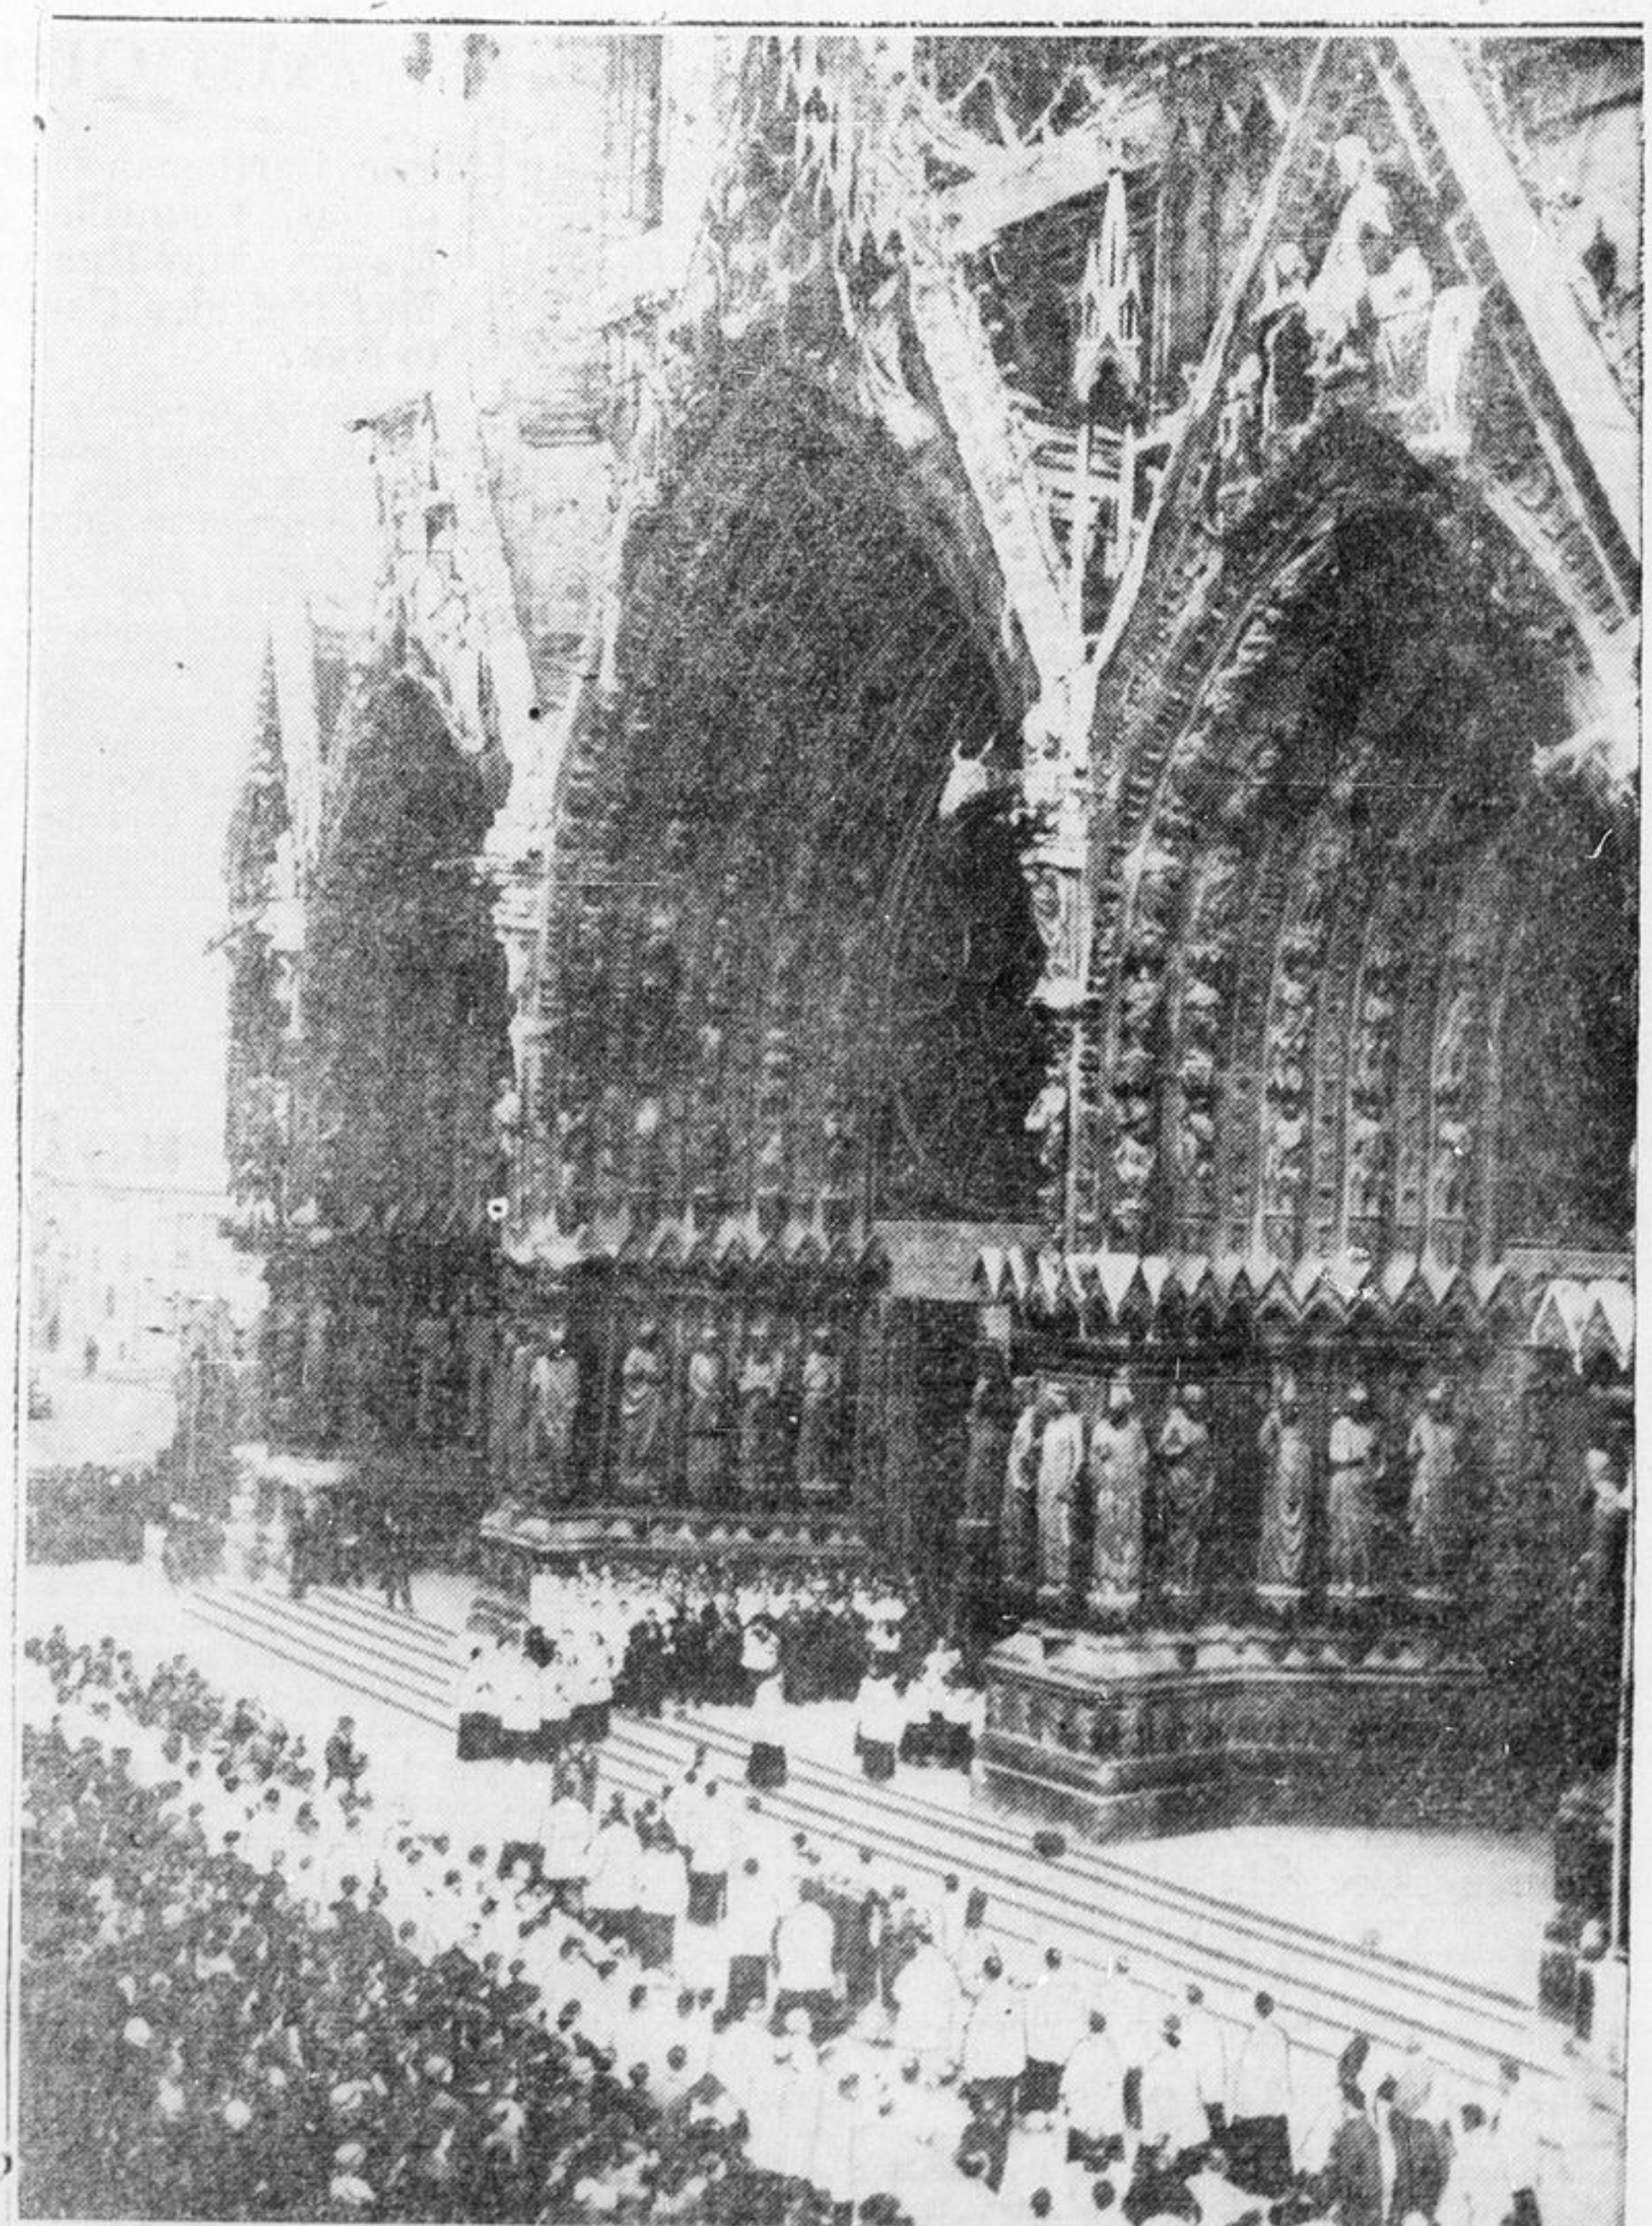

P. A. Boyce Speaks on Remembrance Day at Timmins High and Vocational School.

Mr. F. A. Boyce, of Schumacher, spoke to the Senior assembly of the Timmins High and Vocational Schools students on Tuesday, on behalf of the Canadian Legion. His topic was Remembrance Day, and what it should mean to the people in the world of today.

He stated that the Great War was supposed to have been "a war to end war", but, looking around him today, he realized that its object had not been attained.

In the present day world there are numerous men between forty-five and seventy years of age, who were permanently disabled, and others who were unable to find employment. These men make the poppies that are sold on Remembrance Day, November 11th, and, Mr. Boyce stated, it was the duty of every student to urge his family to help these war veterans by "buying a poppy on Poppy Day." The address was greatly appreciated by the students, who were keenly interested in everything he had to say.
