

Two Chinamen Suffer From Use of Long Knife

Sam Boo, Recently from Vancouver, Under Guard at Hospital to Face Wounding Charge and Attempted Suicide Case. Joe Chow, Proprietor of Grand Cafe Suffers Injury to Head and Hand from Knife.

Alleged to have run amok without any apparent reason, Sam Boo, 48-year-old Chinese dishwasher employed at the Grand Cafe on Third avenue, seized a knife twenty inches long at three o'clock Tuesday morning and slashed the part-owner of the business, Joe Chow, over the head. Chow fell to the floor with a wound on the right side of his head seven inches long that required twelve stitches to close. After the attack Boo is alleged to have run into the basement and had partly drunk a quantity of iodine when the glass was knocked from his hands by Sgt. Gilbert Desroches, of Timmins police department, who with Constable Gualla, were on the scene a few minutes after the attack took place.

on the scene the kitchen of the cafe presented a ghastly sight. The floor was covered with pools of blood, with Chow lying in one corner bleeding profusely. Immediately a call was sent for more officers and in five minutes three more policemen, Constables Munroe, Lepic and Boissoneault, were on the scene, having been summoned on their beats from headquarters by the police signal system. Chief Gagnon was called and on his arrival took charge of the investigation.

Just as Boo is alleged to have reached for the knife, Chow is said to have told him to go to bed. Instead Boo is claimed to have aimed a vicious knife stroke that his victim was unable to dodge quickly enough.

Boo is confined to hospital with the tips of the fingers of one hand almost severed to the bone, the result, it is alleged, of his terrific struggle to maintain his hold on the knife when Chow and Chi Jen, the cook at the cafe, tried to disarm him. In the savage battle that ensued Chow received a bad gash across the right hand.

Both men were given first aid by the police officers, Chow being taken a few minutes later to Dr. Minthorn's office for medical attention. After being sewn up he was removed to his home and is under the doctor's care.

Boo, who was taken to St. Mary's hospital, is being kept under constant police guard until he has recovered sufficiently to be moved to the cells. He is charged with wounding with intent to maim and attempted suicide.

After being given preliminary attention by Dr. Boutin, Boo was taken to hospital in the police car and a guard was immediately posted at his bedside.

Whole Ansonville Roll to be Appealed

Claim Assessment Act Provisions Not Observed.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., February 8, 1938.—(Special to The Advance)—An appeal against the whole assessment roll as drawn up, was made at the regular annual court of revision, held in the Ansonville town hall on Monday, February 7th.

Mr. E. A. Lapalme, Mr. J. DeLaplante and Mr. Geo. Brewthal, who constitute the court of revision, were on hand to hear appeals from the 1938 assessment roll.

Court opened shortly after 10 a.m. and after discussing an appeal against the whole assessment roll, the court decided not to hear any appeals, and adjourned until Monday, February 21st, on grounds that the court was not properly set up under the Assessment Act, which provides the following: "That after the assessment roll is accepted by the council, there shall elapse 14 days for appeals, and a further period of ten days elapse for notices to be sent to those making appeals."

Quite a large number of tax payers were present at this meeting, several making appeals on the assessment of their own property, and these people were quite indignant over the procedure, but were somewhat satisfied with the adjournment, hoping that the council will make some provision to have the assessment roll properly drawn up.

Mr. J. V. Trudel, of Kirkland Lake, made the assessments of property in Ansonville, and it is reported that this person will serve two years less one day in the common jail, being found guilty of falsifying the books of the Separate School in Kirkland Lake.

Mr. E. A. Lapalme, Mr. J. DeLaplante and Mr. Geo. Brewthal, who constitute the court of revision, were on hand to hear appeals from the 1938 assessment roll.

Number of Ministerial Changes in Temiskaming

Englehart, Feb. 10.—(Special to The Advance)—A number of ministerial changes are forecast for the coming summer in the United Church Presbytery of Temiskaming, whose jurisdiction extends from Temagami to Noranda and the Quebec mining field. At least four pastorate are likely to have new occupants later on this year, it is reported, the number including Elk Lake, where Rev. J. M. Boyd is minister, and where the manse are occupied by Rev. Charles G. Higginson and D. A. McKerracher, respectively. The February meeting of the Presbytery will be held in Haileybury shortly, at which some intimation of this phase of the work of the church in Temiskaming and Northern Quebec will be made, it is understood here.

Blame Parked Truck for Damage to Auto

Driver of Car Says Lights Out on Truck, $300 Damage

Haileybury, Feb. 10.—(Special to The Advance)—A truck whose driver had shut off the lights to save the battery when the vehicle stalled on the highway near town as the gas supply gave out figured in a crash early last Friday that allegedly caused damage approximating $300 to the automobile which ran into it, according to provincial police who investigated. The truck, which escaped damage, was driven 63 feet by the impact, Constable Louis Needham, traffic officer, said. He indicated a charge under the Highway Traffic Act would be laid against A. Cook, driver of the truck.

The officer said the car, driven by Austin Williams, taxi driver, ran into the parked truck about 2.45 a.m., three of the four occupants of the machine being injured in varying degree. Williams himself had to receive treatment at Misericordia hospital for a cut on the head and a damaged knee. A. Gauthier and N. Sammon were slightly hurt and R. Rhoads escaped injury. Cook's truck had been parked only ten minutes when Williams, who applied the brakes but skidded on the icy pavement, ran into it.

Astigmatism

This is the condition when the eyeball is not round. It may occur alone or may be in combination with long sight or with short sight.

Astigmatism is usually congenital but may be acquired from a peculiar shape of the bony cavity of the eyeball and the pressure of structures outside the eyeball.

This condition often causes headache, tired eyes and other troubles, and requires a very accurate fitting of glasses.
