

By ALROY WEST PUBLISHED BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

REINSTATED

I don't mind admitting that I place job to the fact that Henry Benn, the All the same he was quite satisfactory a reasonable high value on your ser- mate of the Lady Luck, had met with as a cook and very willing-so long as vices. This gold has complicated an accident and would be in hospital he thought he would benefit by good things so I think we might as well have for three or four weeks. He wondered behaviour an understanding. My original offer now whether Benn was one of the crew Wellings became so gloomy that still holds good. It's no good me try- who had sailed with Wicks in the John Peter decided to have a word with ing to conceal from you the fact that | Dawson. it's going to be tiresome crossing the Atlantic without a navigating officer cabin and went forward. Wellings was man. "Things will be all right."

sible for me to get anybody to take your It would never do for Wicks to suspect oil tanker which passed on the starplace. I had a shot at it last night, but that Wellings might not be loyal. there was nothing doing. It's lament- It was not long before he went on see what's going to become of us. The the town. With a fitting response, Mr. spirit of adventure.

wheel, but he isn't reliable.

as a trawler. As I told you, I had some- you thing to do with her construction and "I don't need anybody." Peter told "But they wouldn't believe me!" Wel-I had a long voyage in mind. She'll him. Wicks scowled. stand the crossing quite well, and I'm "That's what I don't like about a you if you've enough money to pay going to knock some of the old disci- trawler," he complained. "Especially a a smart lawyer to tell lies for you.

voyage. I will pay you good money and have anything to do except supervise. so much as bothering to give me a undertake to land you at some place What some of my old pals would say trial!" which we can determine later. It is if they saw me taking a trick at the understood that you do not require a wheel I san't imagine. Maybe it's as share in the gold."

help me at all. I shall still be helping bridge. Drew was very thoughtful as I'll be able to get you away from the you in the conspiracy. Instead of being he stood at the wheel. The course Lucky Lady. Only don't get talking a conspirator, I become an accessory which Wicks had set would take them too much to the others. They're not after the fact - I believe that is the diagonally across the Bay of Biscay | your friends, you know.' legal term for foolish people who assist and would bring them near to Cape "I know they're not," Wellings com- held in the Ansonville United Church criminals to effect an escape."

"That sort of talk isn't going to help | Captain Wicks meant either Central or you." he said impatiently. "You can South American waters. suit yourself. Either you can be knocked over the head right away, or you'll MURDER ON THE HIGH SEAS American waters."

Peter spread out his hands.

at the opportunity. He hoped to be At times her screw raced wildly out of creased to a moderate gale. There able to put a very effective spoke into the water and seemed to jar every inch were one or two fishing boats, and Wicks's wheel long before the trawler of the deck. left European waters.

Wicks grunted. "I've been knocking time there. The actual crossing of the the hands into shape a bit. They Bay took three days. know what I propose to do, so you need- They were important days marred by shelter. Evidently they expect some- children, of ages varying from six to n't anticipate that you'll be able to a tragedy which put an end to the turn them against me."

that." Peter answered.

stretched your legs a bit you can re- which could not be put right quickly.

"Very good, sir," Drew replied. mind, but it was certain to be a crook- | Wellings over it. ed one. Opportunity, however, had Howe was the cook. When he had come a shade earlier than Wicks had any time to spare he left the galley even dared to hope. In a way, it was and lent a hand with the other work-rather bad luck that opportunity but he was a little man with bird-like "Being a mug in respect doesn't in- should come along at a time when eyes, just the type who would make terfere with your capabilities as a mate. Wicks had a new mate. Drew owed his certain that there was no time to spare

COPYRIGHT

"Do try and cheer up!" he urged the

"I'm not so sure. Mr. Drew," he moan.

lings complained. "They only believe

"Cheer up, man," he cried, "You just try to keep calm, and be prepared

Wellings shook his head.

him about it.

forced into this."

Peter laughed at him.

shook his head.

Wicks wanted to know

"A bit off colour, I think," Peter told

"He'd better get well again as quickly

Trouble did come. The wind in-Wicks remained on the bridge, al-werse." Peter declared, as a giant wave seemed to fling itself at the trawler.

The water swept forward like a solid wall and then crashed down on the foremast and reached the bridge. Wicks hurried away to shout instructions. The water. The trawler lurched from side deck was more than ankle deep in

The onslaught of the long waves be-the storm. The sight of the water awe. But these feelings passed. It bea bottomless abyss.

watch now.

Drew asked.

trawler.

"Very good.

bridge and took the wheel.

"Who?" he demanded.

they started to make for shelter.

After lighting his pipe he left the who can take the bridge and relieve on deck and gave him a smile of wel-

"I've realized that," Peter said quiet- Peter was about to move over and ed. "There's so many things I don't speak to the man when he realized that like. I'd give my right arm to be "I expect you have. It wasn't pos- Wicks could see him from the bridge, aboard one of them tramps, or that able the number of people who lack the the bridge and took the wheel from men are talking about going all the way Parker mentioned that he had enjoy-

"But to get to the point, because I "We're going right across the bay," America. I've got a girl I want to town's continued success. can't spare very long away from the Wicks told him. "Keep the present see again pretty soon. Like as not if bridge; Crocket is doing a trick at the course and it will be quite all right. No we do get back we shall all be chucked need to ask Gallop to increase the into prison." "Suppose you merely carry out your speed, we're doing very nicely. You "You'll be quite safe if we can get duties as a mate. We can't regard this can't have anybody on the bridge with back." Peter assured him. "You were small one like this. I prefer a good- shouldn't stand a chance. Maybe "I want you to be the mate for this sized crew. A captain ought not to they'd send me to Dartmoor without well that I can't!"

"It doesn't seem to me that that will | Chucking at his humour, he left the | to obey my orders implicitly. I think Finisterre. That was obviously not the plained. They cught to call this old on Thursday evening, under the aus-Wicks took a step back and scowled. best place for the start of a run across hulk the Lucky Lady. Maybe she is pices of the Ladies' Aid. For a moment it seemed that he would the Atlantic. He realized that Wicks lucky, but not for me. was becoming increasingly clear that suspicion CHAPTER VI help me to take the Lucky Lady into The crossing of the Bay was far from pleasurable. The breeze fresh- him. ened considerably and there was a "What can I do but agree?" he asked. heavy sea running. The Lucky Lady as possible. I can't have invalids on He was careful to give the impression seemed to be buffeted from wave to board. We're going to have trouble that he was unwilling to continue with wave. Everything movable shifted before long. Look at those clouds!" his duties, although actually he rejoiced from side to side as the trawler rolled.

Wicks had picked up his supplies off "You realize what's best for you," the coast of Brittany and had wasted though it was not his watch.

scheme which Peter had been envolving. "I shouldn't be fool enough to try He kept on perfectly amicable terms with Gallop, who did not seem to be at "Good for you that you realize it." all worried about the gold. His only Wicks hesitated, and then spoke in a anxiety in the world seemed to centre very different tone. "I'm going back round the engines. The only thought on the bridge, Mr. Drew. Come on which he voiced was that Gordon was deck whenever you like. After you've clumsy and might do some damage

When it was safe to do so, Peter walked to Wellings, who was clearly to side and then seemed to shake her-He smiled as the captain left him, becoming more and more uneasy as the self free. Evidently Wicks had been planning hours went past. They sighted plenty some sort of mischief ever since he put of ships, and Wellings invariably some of his money into the conctruct- watched them with longing eyes. Drew ion of the trawler. It was impossible was not the only one to notice this. to guess what sort of scheme he had in | because he overheard Howe chipping

BARGAIN COACH EXCURSION

TORONTO

Hamilton, Smithville, Dunnville, Welland, Buffalo, Galt, Woodstock, London, Detroit, Kitchener, Guelph, Chatham and Windsor via North Bay and Canadian Pacific

THURSDAY, MARCH 3rd 1938

Tickets to U.S. Destinations sold subject to Passengers meeting Immigration Requirements of U.S.A.-Going and Canada-Returning.

Tickets valid for travel Train No. 2 from Timmins, Thursday, March 3rd, connecting at North Bay C.P. Train No. 857 and at Sudbury with C.P. Train No. 28.

All tickets valid to return so as to leave Toronto not later than C.P. Train No. 27,11.10 p.m. Sunday, March 6th. arriving North Bay and connecting with T. & N. O. Train No. 1, 12:45 p m Monday, March 7

Tickets on Sale from Regular Stations ONLY

Tickets Good in Coaches Only. Children 5 years of age and under 12, when accompanied by Guardian

No Baggage Checked

For Fares, Departure Time and Further Information Apply to Local Agent. Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway

The Nipissing Central Railway Company

}

in time to see something mighty interesting.

"What?" Peter demanded.

"Crockett was dropping a belaying pin over the side. I did wonder why he did it. Then, of course, I realized. Wellings was becoming rather difficult. imagine."

Peter's mouth went dry. "You mean they-they murdered him?" he asked.

Gallop yawned. "I expect so. It's bad enough for Wicks to have to watch you. Anyway if I were you, I shouldn't let anybody get too near with a belaying pin." Saying that, he clambered into his

(To be Continued) (The characters in this story are entirely imaginary. No reference is intended to any living person or to any public or private company.)

D. H. Parker Given Honour at the Falls

Iroquois Falls Town Council Shows Appreciation to Former Manager of Mill

Iroquois Falls, Ont., February 24th 1938 .- (Special to The Advance) - The Iroquois Falls town council assembled together on Monday evening at the home of Mr. D. H. Parker, to wish him farewell, and thank him for his kind co-operation with the council during the past two years. During the evening, Mr. T. J. Hogg, on behalf of the council, presented Mr. Parker with a lovely silver comport board bow about an hour back. I can't dish, in appreciation of his services to to America. I don't want to go to ed working here, and hoped for the

> Mr. Parker will be leaving here shortly, having resigned his position as manager of the Iroquois Falls division of the Abitibi Power and Paper Co., which he had held for the past two years.

Trousseau Tea

A delightful trousseau tea was held by Mrs. T. J. Hogg, for the many friends of her daughter, Miss Helen where she is to be married in the near

Many of Helen's friends viewed her gergeous trousseau, and remarked on its exquisite beauty, expressing their best wishes for her happy future.

During the afternoon, the ladies enjoyed the lovely tea and lunch which was served by the hostess. United Church Bean Supper

A most enjoyable bean supper was

With tempting dishes of lovely brown strike out with his enormous fists, but evidently intended to make the African Drew realized that Wicks was watch- beans, and accessories, topped off with he gave an impatient shrug of his coast before making his voyage to ing, and moved away from the man as lovely home-baked pies, the supper shoulders and contented himself with American waters. And by American it quickly as possible without rousing proved most enjoyable to the many people who took advantage of this fine Wellings still stared out to sea and feed.

The proceeds derived from this supper will be used for local church needs. "What's wrong with that man?"

> If You Like Books

It seems that the young school girls and boys have certainly beaten their also dislocated through the fall. parents as far as poems go. For not "See them?" he asked, pointing to one parent so far has professed to the fishing craft. "They're running for have a favourite poem, while several the High School student, have eagerly "Shouldn't think it could get much come forward to say that they like THIS PARTICULAR poem. And surely the parents, and other older people, have read poems that they have treasured. Don't you remember those days deck. Spray spattered against the at school, when, no matter if you did think that you hated poetry and "memory work," there was always one poem that had a special appeal for you? Think back, and surely, if no other poem, you will think of "The Village Placksmith" (because it was so easy to memorize!). Here is a poem that came monotonous. At first there was the writer found hidden away in the back of an old school book.

a wild sort of joy in fighting against My Little Tease crashing down on the deck inspired A mischievous fairy, With step light and airy came a monotonous reiteration of mis-Has just pulled my hair, and is running ery and dampness. Every second or so the ship dived down into what seemed Two rows of baby pearls, Head full of yellow curls, The sky became darker and soon lit- Brimfull of mischief she's thought of tle was visible except the driving rain and the spray. Wicks came on the She runs first to greet me, Comes romping to meet me. "You go below," he said. "It is my Racing ahead and holding the door Stealing my easy chair,

"Wouldn't you like me to remain?" Pulling me here and there, If I get tired she teases me more. "Don't bother. You'd better have some rest so that you can relieve me. Delightfully bright little, Graceful and slight little, As Peter left the bridge, Crockett Airy and light little wight of a tease hurried up to join Wicks. Ah! life would be weary. Once in his cabin, Peter flung him-Be lonely and dreary, self down in his bunk and rested. He without thee, my deary, thou mite of felt as though the seas had been tuga tease. ging at his body instead of at the Joyous and glad little, Not a whit sad little,

The movement of the ship rendered Not a bid bad little heart's joy and ease The sun would be mazy, sleep more or less impossible. At any Seem clouded and hazy, moment he expected to receive a call If this household daisy were not here to go on deck and lend a hand.

After a time Gallop came in his to tease. clothing saturated. Little tongue never still, "We've just lost a man," he an-Laugh like a mountain rill, nounced. Peter shot out of his bunk.

Wellings. He was swept overboard Low sinks the summer sun, by a wave that nearly flattened the Soft twilight stealing on, entire ship out. I felt the wave, but Little head nodding, how drowsy she I didn't see him go." grows.

Eyes full of fun and her cheek like

Peter bit his lips. When the long day is done "Poor old Wellings," he muttered. Slumbers my darling one, "No chance of lowering a boat of Fired and weary, her head on my knees Downwards the eyelids creep, Quiet, but sound asleep, course?" "Not an earthly. The wave rocked the ship so much that I came up to I love thee, I love thee, my own little see what damage was done. I was just

GIRL TIMMINS

Guides of the 51st I.O.D.E. Company met at their new headquarters at the Hollinger hall on Wednesday, Febru-

The flag was raised and the National Anthem sung.

Two of the recruits, Gwenville Appleby and Lucette Hansen, were enrolled as Guides, and four new Guides entered the Company.

A game of "Tunnels" was played in which several Guides took part. Patrol corners were then held, during which time badge work was done.

Therriault, passed some Guides in Several Guide songs such as "Come Out, Ye Campers," "White Coral Bells' and others, were sung during campfire.

Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Morin and Mrs.

meeting closed with "Taps." A Court of Honour will be held by the 51st I.O.D.E. Guide Company nex Wednesday at the Hollinger hall at Miss McMahon, Dominion Field Sec retary of the Girl Guides, will be in Timmins this week from Wednesday to Friday. In order to give all opportunity to meet her, the 51st I.O.D.F. Company invites the other Guide Companies in Timmins to be at the Hollinger hall on Wednesday at 7.15 p.m will be made later.

C.W.L. Company of Girl Guides was "Girl-Shy" and those who are not to the prizes range in value from $250 to held in the Nativity parish hall last say "Don't miss this!" If you would $50. Tuesday evening. The Guides were di- like an agreeable evening of happy envided into patrols with the following Patrol Leaders:-Mary Beatty, Doreen Murphy, Joyce Lalonde, Marian Howard, Betty Morin and Viola Hunt.

Inspection was taken by Captain-in- and 3rd. Training Landers, and Lieutenant Wil-Kinson read out the marks. The pa- iters:trols then practised the forming of the Hogg, who is leaving for Montreal, horseshoe. The National Anthem was Doug. Bethune. sung and then a letter from the District Commissioner, Mrs. Tomney, was

> Games were played for about 20 min- thy Taylor. utes and then the Guides had corners to learn the whistle signals. Practice | H. MacIntosh. was then held. A circle was formed for campfire. The meeting closed with

Guides who have not yet bycught |-Fred Penrose. heir 12c are asked to do so on Tues-

Breaks Leg While Answering Phone

Iroquois Falls Lady Meets With Unusual Accident.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., February 24, 1938 -(Special to The Advance)-Endeavcuring to answer the insistent ringing of the telephone during the early hours of the morning, Mrs. R. Sawyer met with a very unfortunate mishap, when on reaching the bottom of the stairs C.G.E. Seeking to Rouse she slipped on the mat that was placed there and suffered fracture of both bones just above the ankle, which was

Medical assistance was summoned immediately, and Mrs. Sawyer will be confined to her bed for some time, awaiting the complete recovery of the | made possible through the development

"MOVERS OF FINE FURNITURE"

VANSICKLE the MOVER

Packing Crating Storing

Dustproof Moving Vans Modern Storage Warehouses Local & Long Distance Moving

Fumigating Demothing Deodorizing

Call us for FREE ESTIMATES on your next moving

PHONES: 510, 1733, 435, 240 EVERY LOAD INSURED

COR. KIRBY & SPRUCE TIMMINS, ONTARIO

Timmins Y.P.S. to Present "Girl-Shy"

Happy Comedy at Harmony Hall on Wednesday and Thursday Evenings. Three members of the committee,

"Girl-Shy" is the happy title of the week, March 2nd and 3rd, by the Young | Canada. The flag was then lowered and the People's Society of the Timmins United Church. In the past few years the until April 16, the contest is not re-Young People's Society has won en- garded as a temporary sales promotion viable name for plays presented here. Enterprise but as a definite education-The event on Wednesday and Thursday al effort. Contest officials express the is expected to even excell past successes. hope that it will result in a truer ap-The play itself-a comedy in three acts preciation of life and living: that by Katharine Kavanaugh is a most people will come to realize the vital and many laugh-provoking situations, the home. Those who have had the privilege of In all sixty-three prizes will be seeing rehearsals say that every mem- awarded, it is announced. The first ber of the cast fills his or her role with prize is a certificate of $2500 to be approfessional skill and rare ability and plied on the purchase of electrical Arrangements for Brownie meetings that the general effect makes an eve- merchandise. The second and third ning of delightful entertainment. It is prizes are certificates for $1000 and The second meeting of the new the best of advice to those who are $500 respectively, while the balance of tertainment attend one or the other evenings of this show; if you would like two merry evenings, attend both nights -Wednesday and Thursday, March 2nd

The following is the cast of charac-

"Tom Arsdale," who is girl-shy-"Oke Stimson," who isn't-F. Bale-

"Caroline." Tom's aunt-Miss Doro-"Anthony Arsdale," Tom's father-

"Sylvie Webster," Tom's pet aversion Miss Mary Porter. "Dean Marlow", dean of the college

"Peaches Carter," Oke's present weakness-Miss Marg Bethune. "Asma," a coloured "wash lady"-Miss Mabel Durrell.

"Birdie Laverne" a movie aspirant-Miss Lilian Nelson. "Barbara Sanford (Bobs)"-Miss Hilda Reesor.

"Alfred Tennyson Murgatroyd," the college post-Cecil Hawes. "Chuck Mayo," Birdie's late affinity -Lloyd Black.

$10.000 Essay Prize Contest Announced

Greater Public Consciousness of Value of Electrical Equipment

A greater public consciousness of the happiness, comfort and labour-saving of modern electrical appliances and equipment is the aim of the national $10,000 essay prize contest announced to-day by the Canadian General Electric Company Limited. This simple contest, the announcement states, calls for no investment. Contestants are asked to secure official forms on which to write, in a hundred words or less, why the electrical way of living appeals to them. These forms, giving detailed information on merry comedy to be presented in Har- the subject, are obtainable from Genmony hall, Fourth avenue on Wednes- eral Electric dealers, power companies day and Thursday evenings of this and electrical contractors throughout

Commencing March 1 and continuing amusing one, with a host of witty lines role which electrical servants play in

R. A. McInnis to be the Speaker at Toronto Club

R. A. McInnis, president of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Association and Past President of the Northern Ontario Associated Boards of Trade, is to be the guest speaker at the regular Monday luncheon meeting of the Canadian Club at Toronto (to-day), Monday, Feb. 28. Mr. McInnis will take as the subject of his address "The National Importance of the Canadian Pulp and Paper Industry."

Kincardine News:-Mankind's worst enemies are those who would wreck the world to rule it.

The old dollar sure goes a lot farther when you buy Pontiac. For prices now start at the lowest in history for new "Special" Six-and Pontiac has no peer for all around economy. Here's a car with a great list of features topped by Safety Shift Gear Control—the greatest driving aid since the self starter. So get acquainted with Pontiac—the "buy" in the low-price field - an easy "buy", too, thanks to the General Motors Instalment Plan.

MARSHALL-ECCLESTONE LIMITED

Showrooms, 7 Third Ave. Phone 229

Timmins