Banquets Last Week Held at Schumacher

Other Items of Interest from Schumacher and District.

Schumacher, May 10th, 1938.—(Special to The Advance)—Born—Friday, April 29th, in St. Mary's hospital, Timmins, to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Pree, 49 Second avenue—a daughter.
Miss Giffen, of Cobalt, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. James, left Saturday for her home.
The Child Welfare Clinic will meet in the public school on Friday afternoon, May 13th, from three to five.
Miss A. Dube, who has been a patient in St. Mary's hospital, is able to be home again.
The local firemen intend holding their annual dance on Friday, May 27th, in the Crocacia hall.
Mr. W. F. Schumacher, of Columbus, Ohio, paid a visit to the Schumacher public school last week, when all the children had the pleasure of meeting the Schumacher school Santa Claus, who is held in very high esteem by the pupils of the two schools. Mr. Schumacher addressed the children and took pictures of the classes before leaving.
Mrs. C. Hannah and son, Kenneth, returned last week from a vacation in Perth.
Mrs. F. Davidson left last week for a vacation with her parents in Grand Valley.
Mrs. Ridley and baby, who have been visiting Mrs. Ridley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Phelps, for the past few weeks, are leaving Thursday for their home in Matachewan.
The Young People's Society ended their season's activities on Monday evening when the members were tendered a banquet in the church hall, the ladies of the W.A. catering. Rev. M. Tait addressed the gathering and spoke of their fine organization and their splendid co-operation in the past months. The president, Arthur Higginbottom, spoke on behalf of the club and its members. Rev. Mr. Tait was then presented with a pen and pencil set from the society for his very generous assistance to them during the year.
Miss Barber, of Kirkland Lake, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Stiles, over the week-end.

Maynard Raycroft, of Kirkland Lake, is visiting his sister, Mrs. T. Clarke, and friends in Timmins. The many friends of Maynard will be glad to see him back after two years spent at Muskoka taking treatment. He is now fully recovered from his illness.
Mr. Jackson, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was called to Toronto last week owing to the death of his sister.
Mr. T. Thompson spent the week-end visiting in Kirkland Lake.
On Friday evening Trinity United Church choir held a banquet for the members, and those who assisted the members with the Easter cantatas. The banquet was in the church hall and after the repast each member was the recipient of a photo of the choir taken by the Royal Studios on Easter Sunday, which was much appreciated by the members.
Mrs. J. Barrer, who has been visiting at her home in Eau Claire, returned home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Hancock left last week to spend the summer on their farm at Hoyne.
Mr. L. Zanchin is visiting in Toronto this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Armitage left Friday to spend a week in Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Georke Leck of the Omega Mine, Larder Lake, spent Sunday visiting their parents in town.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Hammerstrom have moved to Golden City this week.
Mr. N. Williams returned last week from Queen's, Kingston, and he and his wife, (formerly Miss Mamie Green of Newcombe beauty parlor) left Wednesday for Sudbury, where Mr. Williams has accepted a position and will reside there in future. Mrs. Williams will be missed in the younger set as she was always interested in young people and other organizations and gave very generously of her time and talent. She has owned and operated the Newcombe beauty parlors for several years, and it was the most patronized hairdressing salon in town, her business ability winning for her many friends who will all wish her the very best of luck in her new home.
On Monday, May 1st, the tax collector will be in town and at such time the first instalment of the 1938 taxes falls due, payable at par. Payment may also be made at the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

PRETTY WEDDING YESTERDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bastien caught by the camera as they left St. Anthony's church yesterday morning after the wedding ceremony that united them as man and wife. The bride was formerly Miss Della Chenier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Chenier, of Timmins. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bastien, of 117 Wilson avenue. laws. The town has no other alternative but to pass a by-law when 75 per cent. or more of any class of merchant send in a petition. Councillor Eyre humorously suggested that the easiest way to get around the by-law would be for merchants to stock a few bottles of patent medicine and hang out a sign, "Drug Store."

Town Planning
Councillor Roberts broached the subject of the appointment of a town planning commission, which he felt would solve a number of problems in this regard that are continuously coming before council. The mayor suggested that other organizations should be interested in the matter and the public relations committee, of which Councillor Brunette is chairman, were instructed to make the proper inquiries.

Instal Refuse Cans
A request from Sponce's Sign Service to instal refuse cans for waste paper at twelve different corners in the downtown area was referred to the public works department. The cans would be placed in use by the company without charge to the town, the cost of same to be defrayed by the sale of advertisements on the various receptacles.

Town Hall Hours
The town clerk was authorized to arrange the hours of employees at the town hall so that the collection and permit department will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. A motion was passed at the last meeting that for four months, commencing with May, office hours be 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The early closing, it was thought, prevented many who work at the mines until 4 p.m. from getting a chance to transact their business with the municipality.

Buy Relief Wood
The contingent committee under Councillor Karl Eyre was authorized to buy 2000 cords of slabs from the Rudolph-McChesney Lumber Co. at a price of $1 per cord. The wood will be distributed through the relief department.

Cemetery Board
Announcement has just been made that in future, cemetery boards will be under the jurisdiction of the Board of Health. The local board will be requested to make the necessary appointments at once.

Store Permit
After a lengthy discussion regarding stores in residential areas, P. Burke, 279 Cedar street north, was granted permission to build a store at the corner of Murdoch avenue and Tamarack street. In support of the application a petition bearing twenty-four names was submitted.

Publishers' Meeting
In a letter from W. O. Langdon, president of the Board of Trade, council was requested to defray the cost of a banquet for the members of the Ontario-Quebec division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, who will visit Timmins on June 3. In referring the matter to the public relations committee the mayor glanced over at the reporters and suggested that the papers should put on the party.

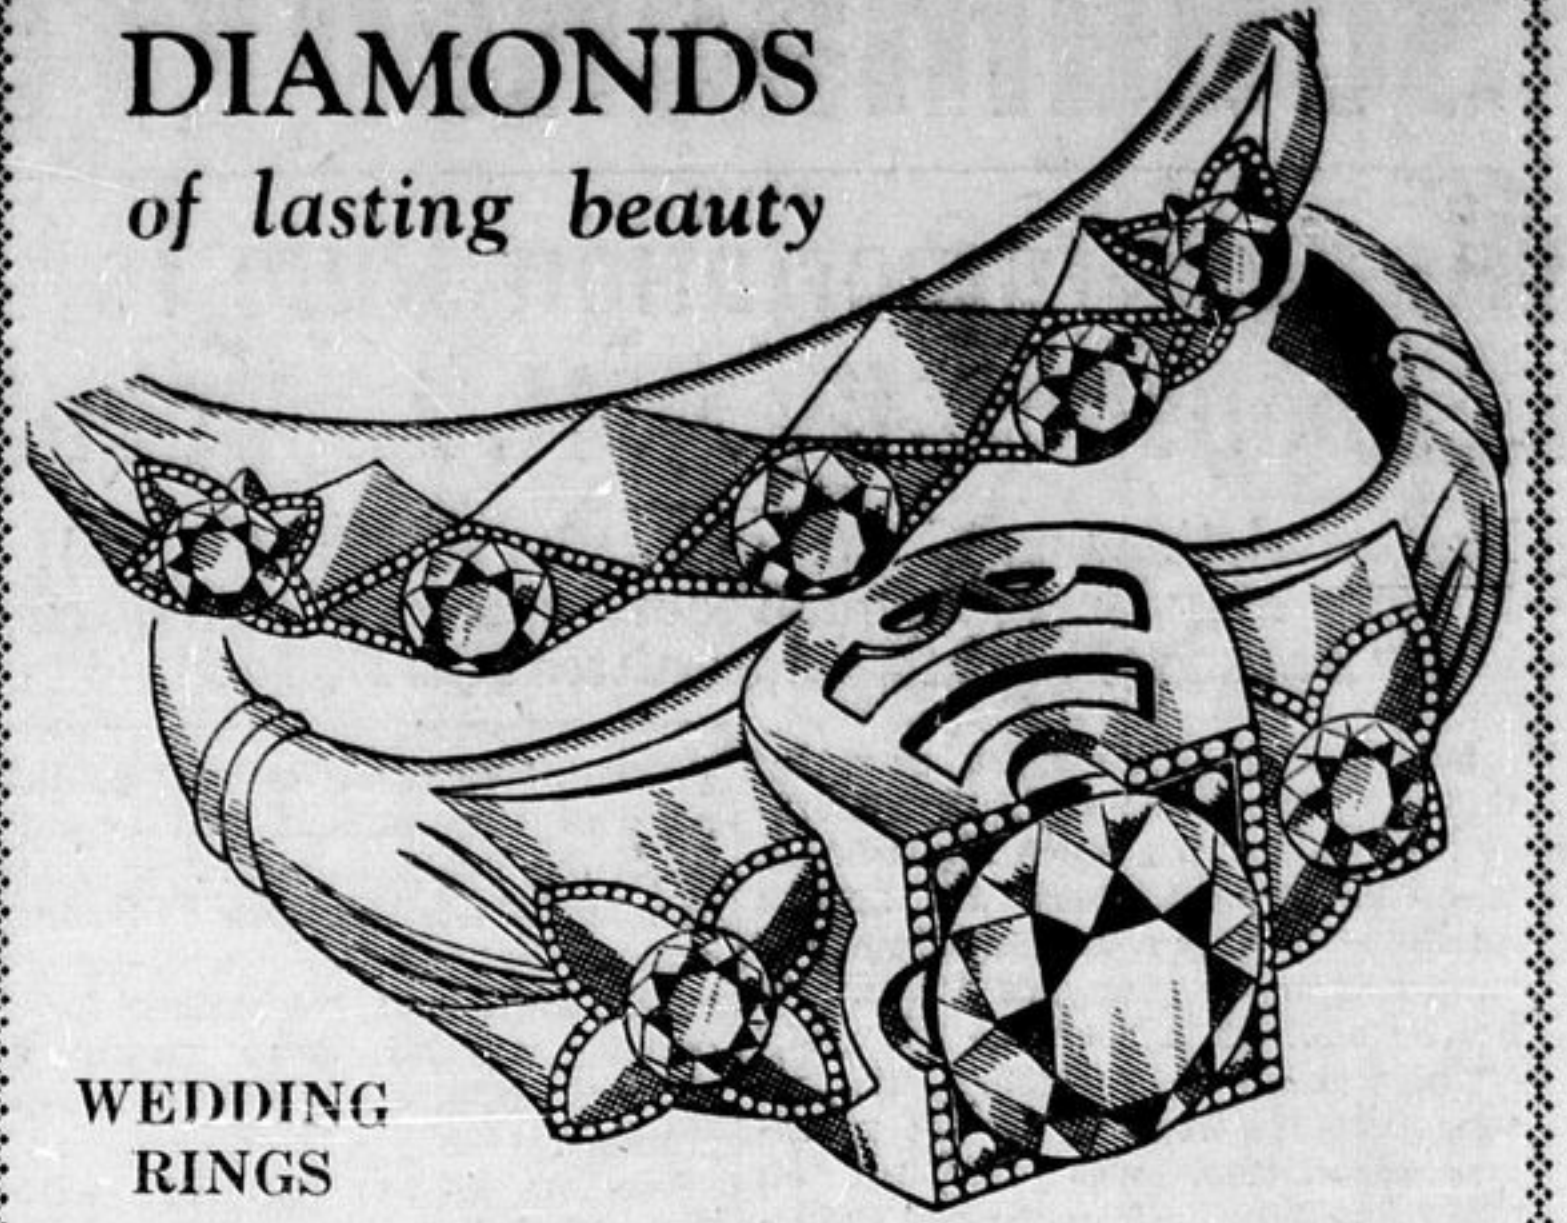

Asks Tax Exemption
The minister of the local Ukrainian Church addressed council and asked for exemption of taxes on their property which is being used entirely for church purposes. Referred to the finance committee.

Sale of Car Tickets
The local branch of the Canadian Legion asked permission to use a lot at the corner of Maple street and Third avenue to display a car and sell tickets on same. Referred to the public relations committee.

Engage New Policeman
Upon a recommendation from committee, the council appointed John Franklin to the local police force at a probationary salary of $125 per month, bringing the total strength of the department to twenty. It was agreed that an additional man will be needed when the proposed traffic by-law goes into effect.

The appointment of C. R. Stibert as revenue collector at $125 a month and Miss F. Foote, office employee at $70 a month, was also ratified.

No definite action was taken regarding a request from the local Friends of China for a tag day to raise funds to buy an ambulance to send to their countrymen engaged in war with the Japanese.

Asks for Damages
Mrs. Jenny McCorry, 155 Birch street south, asked for damages of $35 caused to her clothing and that of her young son when a water main burst.

T. E. Germain asked some help from council in paying an account of $330 required to repair and clean the building at the corner of Fifth avenue and Pine street, which was for some time occupied as a town hall. Both requests were referred to the finance committee.

Firemen's Uniforms
H. Herman's tender for supplying fourteen uniforms for members of the local fire department at $35 each was accepted.

By-Laws
A by-law authorizing the building of a number of sidewalks was passed and a second enactment covering traffic regulations was read. This will be formally passed at an early date following approval by the Ontario Highways Department.

Directory Publishers Ask Co-operation ants; classified buyers' guide, showing the names of all firms, classified under the heading to which they belong, with phone numbers and post office box numbers.

If a new directory is issued, it will cover, Timmins, Schumacher, South Porcupine and Dome, completely and accurately with all the information referred to above, and in addition will carry a full list of all receiving mail at the following post offices in the district.—Porcupine, Pamour, Sandy Falls and Mattagam Heights.

It is interesting to note that the directory will go to 487 directory libraries in board of trade and chambers of commerce in Canada and the United States and this will prove of much value to the outside world as a reference book as well as serving a very useful purpose for the people of this community.

Present Campaign Will Advantage Carrier Boys

Some present readers of The Advance who have been getting their paper through carrier boys whom they want to help along, ask if putting the subscriptions on yearly basis in the present campaign will mean a loss for the boys. Instead, it will mean a profit, as the boys will have larger routes, no collections to make, and be freed from danger of any missed accounts.
