10th Birthday Observed by the Ladies' Auxiliary

Pleasant Banquet Monday Night Followed by Social Evening and Most Enjoyable Programme. Presentation Made to Mrs. Hemming, for Services as Secretary.

The tenth annual birthday banquet, in honour of the tenth birthday of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion, was held in the Legion hall on Monday evening, about fifty members of the Auxiliary being present to partake of the excellent supper prepared by the Argyle Grill.

The occasion was formally opened with the singing of "O Canada" and a toast to the King, which was followed by one minute of silence. During the banquet the following toasts were offered: "To the Ladies' Auxiliary" by the past-president, Mrs. Price, responded to by Mrs. Shaw; "To the Legion," by Mrs. Johnson, responded to by Mrs. Devine; "To the Provincial Command" by Mrs. Finchon, responded to by Miss Mamie Borland.

The annual banquet prize was won by Mrs. McGarry.

Following the entirely successful banquet, the Ladies' Auxiliary held a social evening, to which they had invited their husbands and friends. A large and happy crowd were present for the event, which proved to be one of the most successful of its kind to be held by the Auxiliary this season.

Tommy Huntley, who is caretaker at the dam forty miles up the Matagami river, and who makes a trip to town about twice a year, gave the first number of the programme, singing "The End of the Road," in a very pleasing manner, and inviting his friends to join in the chorus, which they did in a very enthusiastic manner. As an encore he sang "The Laughing Song," which "brought the house down" in happy laughter. The audience were so pleased with the style in which the song was presented, that they wanted to bring "Tommy" back for another selection.

Alf Bellamy sang two popular favorites "Smilin' Through" and "The Old-fashioned House."

A Paul Jones was then introduced to bring together old friends, and to make new ones. This was a happy get-together dance, and even those who just sat and watched the dancers, took part in the gaiety of the music and the shuffle of feet.

Mrs. Hardy, president, then expressed in a few well-chosen words (on behalf of the Auxiliary) the appreciation that the ladies felt toward Mrs.
Hemming for her untiring helpfulness and her work as secretary for the past two years, and presented her with an aeropack on behalf of the members of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Hemming thanked her friends for their kindness, and mentioned the fact that she had always liked her work, and would willingly have carried on as secretary had not her other duties, outside of the Auxiliary, been so numerous.

"Children's Hour," and "Rose of Tralee" were the selections rendered by Mr. Bert Bridgman, bringing loud applause from the audience.

After the "breakdown" of the evening's square dance, a spot waltz was introduced, the winners being Mrs.
Creig, and her partner, Mr. Donald Allen.

The lucky winner of the cushion was Mrs. George, the winning ticket drawn by little Miss Dorothy Devine, being No. 56.

The programme for the evening was concluded with two comical selections by Fred Curtis, one of which was "Archibald, Certainly Not," and both of which brought loud laughter, and sent home all those who had attended in a very merry and carefree mood.
The pianist during the evening was Walter Devine.

Novelties, paper hats, and noisemakers were distributed, and combined with a dainty lunch, added the finishing touch to the occasion.

On Monday, May 16th, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion is holding a partner whist drive in the Legion hall. This is sure to be another successful event, as have been those held by the Auxiliary in the past.

On Tuesday, May 17th, the Auxiliary are holding a sale of work, home-baking, candy, and an afternoon tea. The Sewing Club have worked hard and well during the winter months, and the work that they are offering will delight the heart of any woman who wishes to brighten her home.

mons at Ottawa. He was medical director of physical training at Mc-Gill University more than 30 years ago and later won fame as director of physical education at the University of Pennsylvania.

Kirkland Lake Checking on Unauthorized Building

Teek township council has set up six fire areas in the municipality of Kirkland Lake, by amendment of the fire protection by-law of the township.
The chief purpose is to check up on building in unauthorized areas and to prevent the growth of sections where fire menace is created by conditions.
Under the by-law the issue of a building permit is prohibited on land not shown on a registered sub-division plan unless the owner files a proper survey and surveyor's description.

Collector Committed for Trial Before Judge

John Drummond is Alleged to Have Failed to Account for $105 Collected for Local Firm. Drunken Driver Gets 15 Days. Serious Charges Adjourned to Next Week.

John Drummond, employed by a local collection agency, was committed for trial in police court here on Tuesday afternoon by Magistrate Atkinson on a charge of failing to account for a sum of $105.50 that he is alleged to have collected from several of the firm's clients in the course of his duties. He was represented by J. T.
Jackson and bail was set at $250 cash or $500 property.

William Page pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in charge of a car and was sentenced to a term of 15 days in jail.

Two charges under the Game and Fisheries Act were preferred by Overseer Phil Boudreau against Iva Holkka, of Timmins, and Louis Courville, of Connaught. Holkka paid $10 and costs for illegal possession of a gill net, while Courville was given a week's remand on a charge of catching pickerel during the closed season, which in this district is from April 14 to May 16.

Fined $100 and Costs Without attempting to offer any explanations, Louis Frapporte pleaded guilty to a charge of having liquor in his possession without a permit and was fined the minimum of $100 and costs.

Case Is Dismissed Ernest Lapointe was charged with illegal possession of beer and produced an explanation that was sufficient to win him a dismissal. Constable Harold Gail, of the local provincial police, told the court that he had searched Lapointe's premises on the North Road in Mountjoy Township on the night of May 4 and found fifteen pints of beer

Game Association to Meet Thursday

Motion Pictures on Bird Life Will be Shown at Gathering in South Porcupine.

A meeting of the Porcupine District Fish and Game Protective Association will be held in the council chamber in South Porcupine to-night at eight o'clock. One of the main items on the agenda will be the showing of several reels of motion pictures on bird life. The meeting will also discuss plans for the organization of a juvenile section of the association, similar to that now in operation in Schumacher.

Sudbury Chinaman Tries Odd Way to Collect Debt

Whitney Chen Quan, Sudbury lunch room proprietor last week tried an unusual way to collect some of the accounts owing him for lunches supplied.
He put a card in the window of his cafe reading:—"Mrs. Blank (giving the correct name) and her sister, Blank (naming the address) street owe us $4.00."

How did the scheme work? Did the ladies pay up? Well, not according to accounts from Sudbury. Indeed, the sign put up to shame the customers into paying seems to have injured business for the lunch room. Also, there is the danger that the ladies named may sue the cafe for libel ("holding them up to scorn or ridicule").

In addition it must be noted that business at the lunch room seems to have fallen off since the card went up.
"I know it is hurting business," the Chinaman is quoted as saying, "and if I were doing a good business I wouldn't have to put the sign up. But I haven't any money, and I have a wife and two children to support."
