We learn that a group camp of Girl Guides will once more be held this year at Night Hawk Lake. The campng season will begin on July 3rd and ast from ten days to two weeks. There will be three companies of Guides from Timmins, one from Dome, and one from South Porcupine. The camp commandant will be Mrs. D. Leiterman, of the Dome Troop. She will be assisted by a staff of eight and 62 girls will be attending. The Dome Troop is planning to send one of its company leaders to Fettercairn this summer, where so much can be learned of Guiding and camp work. They are planning a big concert for funds, to be held quite soon and from reports, this is to be a great affair. Details

Don't forget the grand concert to be held next Friday night in the High School hall by the children's choir. Brownie News

The Brownies held a good and wellattended meeting at their hall on Tuesday. They opened with fairy ring and then special inspection followed Much of the evening's time was spent in practising knot tying, grand work being done. Browniekins were instructed in Brownie "six" songs, and a Dutch dance—Hansel and Gretelwas practised. They had a lovely balloon game in which elves and sprites competed with gnomes and fairies, the result being a tie-5-5. If next Tuesday is a fine day Brown Owl intends to take all the pack out into the woods for a meeting.

Besides her sorrowing husband and children, four sisters survive her-Mrs. Hiram Lects, of Pentecton, B.C.; Mrs. James Stitt, of Fort Coulonge; Mrs. David Stitt, of Fort Coulonge, and Miss Laura Ostrom, of Calumet Island. Three brothers are still living-James Ostrom of Calumet Island, and Robert, also of Calumet Island, and John C. Ostrom, of South Porcupine.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon from the United Church, where the Rev. M. Tait, of Schumacher, and Archdeacon Woodall conducted the service, in the absence of Dr. Fraser, who was out of town. Messrs. Mc-Dowell, Cahill, Clarke, Gibson, Ratcliffe and Hall acted as pallbearers. The house and the casket were a bower of roses, so many of these beautiful flowers being sent by sorrowing friends. As it would have been her wish, a number of the roses were taken to the Exterior Walls to Have Stucco Finish-Work Will be Commenced at Once.

Work on the finishing of the exterior of South Porcupine general hospital is being proceeded with and at the present time the entire building has been scaffolded in preparation for the application of a stucco finish. Materials for the work are being moved on to the job and plasterers will be started at an early date. The building, with the exception of the outside finish, was completed last Fall and has been in operation ever since. Cold weather at that time prevented the completion of the outside stucco.
