Concert and Other Events at the Falls

Girl Guides Sponsor Shower and Tea at Iroquois Falls.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., May 27th, 1938.—(Special to The Advance)—Under the auspices of the St. Anne's Catholic Church, a concert all in the French language, was held in the Iroquois Falls town hall, on Thursday evening.

The actors having played their parts in a most satisfactory manner, made the concert a huge success, and a repetition is hoped for in the near future by the capacity audience in attendance. Crowding the limelight of the evening was the two-act drama, conducted by Miss M. Duhaime, and entitled, "The Mystery of the Old Arm Chair." The play, which depicted the life of a mother with two daughters, in which each daughter had taken a different view on life, was very exciting and ending with a desired finish, made it interesting.

Synopsis of this play is, that the two daughters in growing up, had taken different courses, the one staying close to her mother, while the other had been a little independent. Money hidden in the old arm chair, was taken from hiding, and put in a different location by the jealous daughter, who tried to implant the blame on her sister by forging her name. However, her plans failed, as did her desires to break the lovely romance between her sister and sweetheart. These disastrous plots were revealed when the mother caught the jealous daughter excited in a critical moment, and in making her sign the names that were on the note, revealed her identity. In asking pardon and forgiveness, which she was given, everything ended right, binding the love of all more closely.

This drama was followed by a court scene comedy, entitled "The Lobster and Defence." This comedy proved very humorous the whole of its duration, and each question and answer had a laugh in store for the audience. The scenes were well acted, the players having given evidence of thorough preparation. Father Lafleur was in charge and conducted the acts with entire satisfaction.

A group of little girls participated in a "Japanese Drill," under the direction of Miss C. Desrosiers. This was pleasing to watch. The entire group were outfitted with Japanese costumes which were hand made by Mrs. E. Marchildon, who spent many hours in its preparation.

Several selections were sung by the entire cast, and were greatly enjoyed as were the solos sung by Mr. R. Soucy.

During the changing of scenes, piano solos were rendered by Miss M. Marquis, Miss Richier, and Miss DesCotes, all receiving hearty applause.

Dolly and Reta Mousseau, together with Margaret Whissel, displayed tap-dancing ability, with marked success, there being many favourable comments from those gathered at the concert.

Rev. Father A. A. Pelletier brought the concert to a close with a few fitting words, in which he congratulated the players, and thanked the group, whose efforts made the evening so successful.

Members of the cast, together with the conductors, were afterwards invited to join the lunch which was prepared for them in the Knights of Columbus hall. This lunch, which was greatly enjoyed, had been prepared under the supervision of Mrs. A. Gignac, and her willing aids, Mrs. W. B. Goodman, Mrs. Bertha, Mrs. W. Regimbal, and Mr. A. Gignac.

During the refreshments, Father Pelletier again took the opportunity of thanking the members of the cast, and those in charge, also to again mention how successful the event had been carried for. This was followed with a talk by Father Lafleur and Miss Pellion.

Girl Guides Sponsor Delightful

Afternoon

The First Iroquois Falls Girl Guide Group and Committee sponsored a most delightful afternoon, in the Parish hall on Tuesday, when they held a Baby Shower Sale, and Afternoon Tea.

The success of the event was termed encouraging, and the preparations being capably handled, made it a marked feature in the progress of the Guides.

Beautiful hand-made baby clothing ranging in age up to two years old was on display, enabling many purchases at reasonable prices. These sales were tended to by Guides, who in a most satisfactory manner fulfilled their duties.

Each lady member of the Committee volunteered to care for a tea table, and during the afternoon were kept quite busy. These ladies were: Mrs. W. Needham, chairman; Mrs. H. Hill, Mrs. C. Potter, Mrs. H. Ogden, Mrs. W. Butcher and Mrs. C. Mills. Also assisting in catering to the guests were the leaders and Guides, who made a smart showing in their uniforms.

The leaders of this group deserve great credit for their fine work, they being: Group Captain, Mrs. E. A. Frowe; assistants, Mrs. L. Pretsell, Mrs. Geo. Adam and Miss I. Charron.

Funds realized by this sale will be used to defray the camp costs, scheduled for this summer.

Notes

Mr. W. A. Nesbitt, of the purchasing department, Abitibi Toronto office, is at present a visitor in town, and becoming acquainted with the employees here.

Large Bear Bagged Twin Falls Recently

Huge Police Dog Afraid of the Big Bruin.

Iroquois Falls, Ont., May 27, 1938.—(Special to The Advance)—Who is afraid of the Big Black Bear? Well, apparently Buddy, a huge police dog, is, for the other night his insistent barking awoke all the members of the wood's camp at Twin Falls, and when they arrived to peer through the window, they could see two large black bears going in one direction, and the dog in the other.

This dog is quite a big police dog, and is owned by Mr. Dusseault, teamster, for the wood's department, and is usually afraid of nothing.

The workmen, who felt sure that the bears would at some time return, laid awake for them two nights following, and rewarded by their vigil, were able to bag one of them on Friday night. It was the smaller of the two, and weighed some 300 lbs.

In days gone by, funny stories relating of how bears had come to camp, were told, and it is their custom to come seeking ready food. They have been known to steal all the dough, prepared for baking bread in the cook camp, along with several other delicate victuals, handy. Only last summer they were frequent visitors, and stole many good feeds from the camp in question. Their habitation in this vicinity can probably be attributed to the fact that this is on the edge of Abitibi Reserve where it is claimed, game abounds, and one can see the real nature life in these regions, at all times.

WREATH SENT BY I.O.O.F. CREDITED TO THE I.O.O.F.

An error in The Advance last week in the list of floral tributes at the funeral of the late William Dunn wrongly credited one of the floral tokens to the I.O.O.F. This floral tribute was sent by the I.O.O.F. and not by the Oddfellows.
