

Lake Shore Humble McIntyre 9-1 in Ennis Cup Game

Hollinger-Toburn Ennis Cup Game Rained Out Last Night

Visitors Were Leading 4-0 After First Inning Attack. Proceedings Halted as Second Hollinger Batter Goes Up to Plate. Dorey and Zalba Opposing Moundsmen.

A scheduled Ennis Cup game between Hollinger and Toburn at the Timmins Ball Park yesterday was rained out before the first inning had been played. At the time the game was called Toburn led by a 4-0 count. Hollinger had their first man on first base and the second man ready to bat when the downpour started. The Hollinger battery was Dorey pitching and Oltman catching, while Toburn had Zalba pitching and Campbell catching.

ning and he walked after working into a three and two count. Scarlett, second man up, was walked towards the plate when play was stopped.

St. Matthew's Lawn Bowling Club is to feature mixed doubles tomorrow (Friday) evening, June 24, at 7:30 p.m. A large turnout is expected for the occasion. There is more than the usual enthusiasm for lawn bowling this year. The greens are in the best of condition.

McIntyre Defeat Hollinger For First Win This Season

Solomon Crew Take Advantage of Errors and Spotty Pitching to Take 6-2 Victory Monday Night. Sunderland Keeps Hits Well Scattered in All But One Inning for McIntyre.

With errors, bases on balls, wild pitches and a passed ball being largely responsible for their success, like Solomon's 1937 McIntyre champions, won their first game in this group of the Temiskaming Baseball League at McIntyre stadium on Monday night when they polished off Hollinger by a score of 6-2.

With the exception of the seventh inning when the Hollies bunched four singles for their total of two runs, Ernie Sunderland, who smoked them from the mound for McIntyre, was never in trouble. On four occasions the Hollies were retired in order and defensively the Macs were perfect. The only error chalked against them was committed by Sunderland in the first inning but no damage resulted from the misplay.

Avery was sent to the mound for Hollinger but only lasted six innings, being replaced by Oltman, who doffed his mask and pads and changed from catcher to pitcher. Avery, who seemed to have trouble finding the plate all the way, issued four walks and five hits, his teammates contributing three bad errors that certainly didn't help. Avery himself was credited with one wild pitch that proved costly also. Oltman, who pitched the last two innings, showed a world of speed but a complete lack of control. He was touched for one hit, two wild pitches and an error being chalked against him during his brief appearance.

Sunderland let Hollinger down with six hits and walked three batters in nine innings.

McDonald, in left field was the standout performer in a shaky Hollinger defence, accepting six chances without a miss. In the last of the eighth he plucked a hard drive from Hann (his shoestrings that would earn an orchid anywhere).

McIntyre went to work early and in the first inning on doubles by Hann and Zampell, scored the first run of the game. They added another in the next inning on two errors by Lawton at first base and two infield outs.

Starting the McIntyre half of the third inning, Thompson made a wild throw on Hann's drive to third base and the runner finally pulled up at second. Cybulski fanned but Zampell and Gilbert walked to fill the bases. Quinn, the next batter, was called out on strikes but "Dusty" Baker hit a line single to score Hann, leaving the path-ways still clogged. Avery forced in a run when he walked Cook but the carnival came to a close when Sunderland filed out to left.

Resting on their 4-0 lead, neither team scored again until McIntyre combined a single and double with a wild pitch for one run in the sixth. Prout, who hit the double attempted to stretch the drive into a triple and was thrown out at third.

Finally the Hollinger team got their batting eyes on the ball and in the seventh on four singles chased in two runs. Two men were forced out at second on fielder's choices. Avery striking out with two men on to end the rally.

In the last of the seventh, Oltman gunned up Cybulski's infield roller, the runner going to third on two successive wild pitches. Zampell filed out but Gilbert was safe at first when McKay let a third strike get by him. Recovering the ball he tossed toward Oltman but the pill hit the ground six feet from the player and Cybulski cantered in from third. The next two men were retired in order to complete the inning.

Hollinger failed to get a man on base in the eighth or ninth and McIntyre left the field with their first win of the season.

Still Champion

Joe Louis, poker-faced Detroit Bomber, convinced the fight conscious world last night that he can dispense dynamite with both hands when he scored a knockout victory over Max Schmeling, of Germany, in two minutes and four seconds of the first round of their world championship bout in New York. The champion literally bewildered the German with a savage attack in which he floored the challenger twice before the final knockout. In the first knockdown, Schmeling sprang to his feet but went down the second time from the effects of a wicked solar plexus blow that seemed to have a crippling effect. Louis rushed in for the kill as Schmeling rose and in a matter of seconds the astounded crowd saw the Bomber's hand raised as the victor.

Bank Manager's Annual Golf Tourney at Iroquois Falls

G. Hendry, of Noranda, Draws Lucky Number for Atkinson Trophy After Tieg with C. L. Grisdale, of Kirkland Lake. D. R. G. White, Timmins, is Re-elected President and F. A. Burt, Secretary.

Iroquois Falls, June 22.—(Special to The Advance)—Mr. G. Hendry, of Noranda, and Mr. C. L. Grisdale, of Kirkland Lake, were tied in the annual Bay-to-Bay Bank Manager's Golf Tournament, held here on Sunday, June 19. With a total score of 82 for 18 holes of fine golf, both gentlemen decided to draw for winner, rather than play the extra hole. Mr. Hendry drew the lucky number, and took the title for this year, being given the valued Atkinson Silver Cup, along with an individual trophy, these being presented several years ago by Mr. Atkinson, retired bank manager of North Bay.

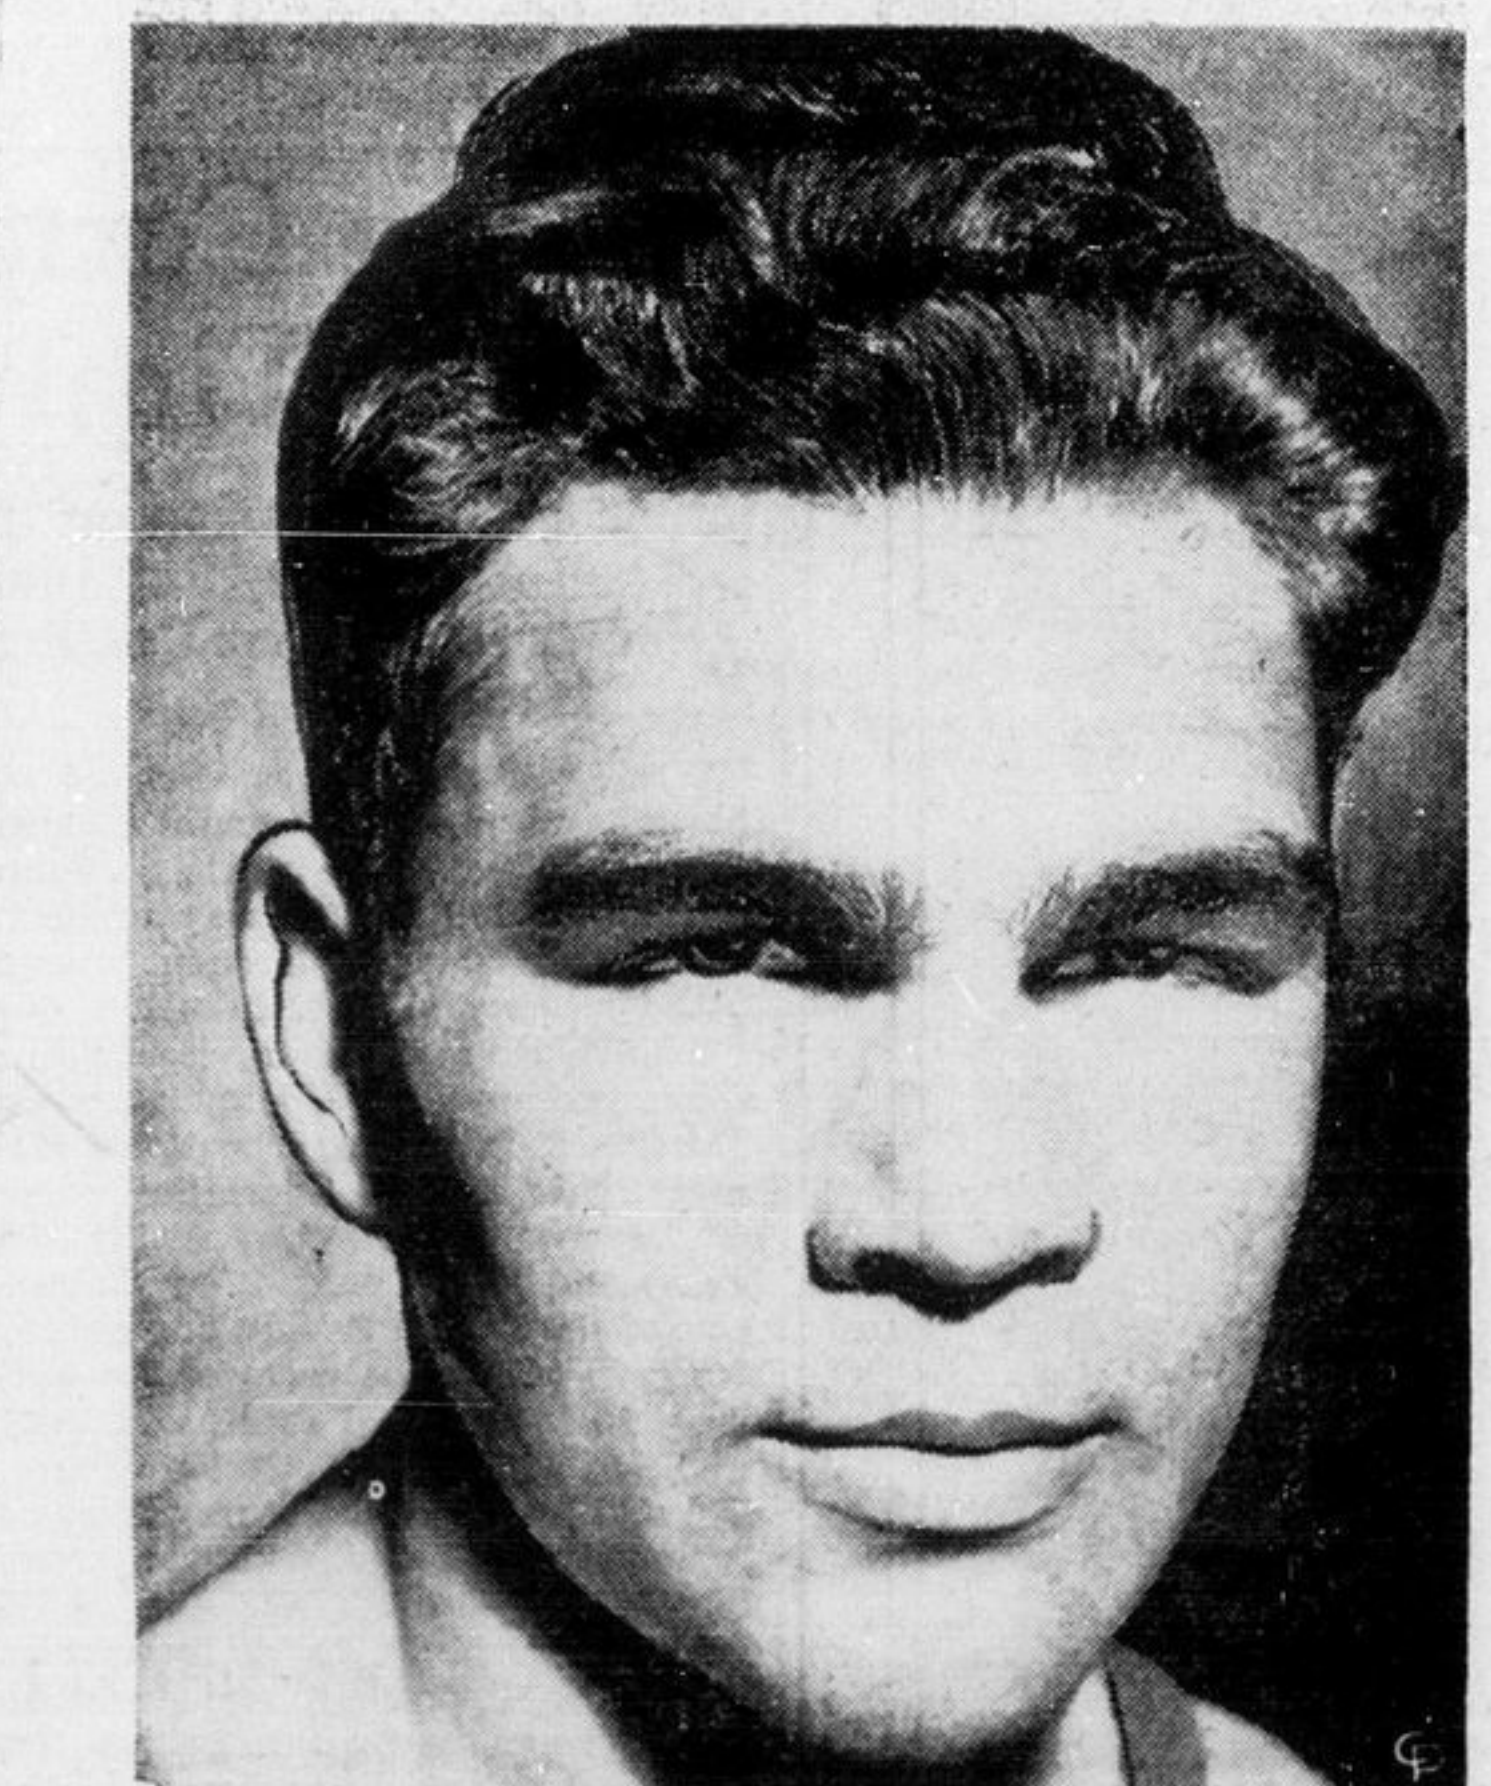

Consolation prize for this tournament, which was a beautiful silver pitcher, was taken by Mr. W. A. Currie, of Kirkland Lake. Fourteen managers in all representing Noranda, Rouyn, Kirkland Lake, Matheson, Timmins, Cochrane and Iroquois Falls, after motoring here, entered the match shortly after 11 Sunday morning. Aid and abetted by the lovely weather the game proved most enjoyable, finishing up shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The players furthered their enjoyment by attending a specially prepared turkey dinner served in the dining room of the Iroquois Hotel. Thoroughly enjoyed by all, it reinstated that fine feeling, placing all in a position to continue with the election of officers for the ensuing year.

So successful was the past year, along with a memorable wind up, it was un-

. Challenger "Stilled"

Max Schmeling, beetle-browed German "white hope" to regain the world heavyweight boxing championship, wound up on the canvas as a knockout victim of Joe Louis in New York last night, fifty-six seconds before the end of the first round. Schmeling went down twice before the knockout under a terrific onslaught by the Detroit negro and never had a chance to get going. The German, who had knocked out Louis in a bout two years ago, took a terrific battering in the short space he was on his feet last night as "The Bomber" got his revenge. Fight experts were calling Louis to win but no one expected the bout to end so abruptly. Maxie will have to do a lot of explaining when he gets back to the country where Herr Hitler is the head man and undefeated champion of all classes.

Home Games Should Aid the Maple Leafs

Have Excellent Chance to Recover Lost Ground.

A few years ago, an aggregation of dejected players wearing the uniform of the Toronto Maple Leafs trooped into the dressing room after just having lost 16 consecutive games. And the ominous silence that enveloped them as they proceeded to shed their uniforms. Trainer Tom Daly ventured a consoling word.

"Never mind, boys," said the rotund Daly, "you can't win 'em all."

The utter ludicrousness of the remark raised such a laugh that the spirit of the players was quickly revived, and it is on record that they went out and beat their opponents in the next game. Soon afterward they started a winning streak that brought them back into the thick of the pennant struggle.

Daly's remark has been something of a by-word with Toronto teams ever since. It is one of the glaring truths of professional baseball. You can't win 'em all, and, by the same token, you can't lose 'em all, either.

Dan Howley's present Maple Leafs encountered a losing streak on their recent road trip that showed them down into the second division of the International League standing, but, with a big advantage in home games over the balance of the schedule, they should be able to make up the ground lost in June by staging winning streaks of similar proportions during the July and August campaigns.

When the Leafs returned to Toronto on June 27, they faced the pleasant prospect of having nearly 60 of their remaining 90 games scheduled for their home grounds. They have been a much better team at home this season than on the road, so July and August should be big months for them. The International League race is such this year that a winning streak of 10 or 12 games will put any team well up in the play-off contention.

One of the pleasing features of the Leafs' recent performances is the showing of such veterans of the game as Heinie Manush, hard-hitting outfielder, and Bill Urbanski, the hustling shortstop. When Manush reported on May 30, he had not been playing for several weeks, and it took him a number of games to hit his stride. Urbanski found that his long lay-off last season was a bigger handicap than he expected, and it was not until the team experienced real warm weather that the former Boston player really began to show the form expected of him. His hitting improved nearly one hundred per cent, and his batting average climbed some 60 points over a 10-day stretch in the middle of June.

Contributing factors to the Leafs' string of 11 straight defeats were the failure of the pitchers to go the distance, and a batting slump that affected nearly every player in the line-up.

aniously decided to re-elect the present officers, these being:

President: Mr. D. R. B. White, of Timmins; first vice-president, Mr. C. L. Grisdale, Kirkland Lake; second vice-president, Mr. H. B. Monroe; secretary-treasurer, Mr. F. A. Burt, Timmins.

In a most fitting manner, presentation of the trophies were then made by the president, who extended hearty congratulations to the winners.

Mr. G. Hendry, who is a member of the Noranda Golf Club, extended a cordial invitation to all those present, to attend the 1939 annual golf tournament, which will be held in Noranda. Coming from various towns throughout the North, the bank managers were very much impressed with the beauty of Iroquois Falls, and voiced their approval of the fine lay out. Many of the members were accompanied by their wives at this visit.

Visitors included Mr. G. Hendry of the Royal Bank, and Mr. T. L. Golden, Bank of Commerce, Iroquois Falls; Mr. C. L. Grisdale, Imperial Bank; Mr. G. A. Goddard, Royal Bank, and Mr. W. A. Currie, Bank of Commerce in Kirkland Lake. Mr. I. B. Simmons, Dominion Bank; and Mr. H. G. Scott, Imperial Bank; of Rouyn; Mr. J. Brawley, Imperial Bank, Matheson; Mr. D. R. B. White, Bank of Montreal; Mr. W. S. Jamieson, Bank of Nova Scotia; Mr. H. C. Scarth, Imperial Bank, and Mr. F. A. Burt, Dominion Bank, Timmins; Mr. H. A. Ballard, Bank of Nova Scotia, Cochrane and the genial host, Mr. A. J. Kelly, Royal Bank, Iroquois Falls.

Bridge at the Golf Club on Saturday Afternoon

There will be bridge at the Golf Club on Saturday afternoon, June 25, at 2 o'clock. All members wishing to play are asked to please sign the list posted in the clubhouse.

Manager Howley is confident now that these difficulties have been overcome and that his team will climb quickly back among the league leaders.

A bright spot of the recent long road trip was the consistent hitting and fielding of little Joe Gantenbein, third baseman, Joe, the youngest player on the team, has not missed a league game since he joined the Toronto club in the spring of 1937. He has been hitting close to the 300 mark, and is expected to soar beyond that figure when the Leafs get settled away to their long stretch of home games. Gantenbein is a great favourite with Toronto fans who are planning a special night for him soon.

On Dominion Day, July 1, the Leafs will play a double-header against Rochester at Maple Leaf stadium. The great majority of other games scheduled in the latter part of June and all through July will be floodlight affairs. Buffalo, Rochester, Newark, Syracuse, Jersey City, Baltimore and Montreal will visit Maple Leaf Stadium in that order during the next four weeks. Saturday night twilight and floodlight double-headers will be played July 9 and 16 against Newark and Jersey City, respectively.

Kirkland Lake, June 22.—(Special to The Advance)—Piling error on error, McIntyre Baseball Club, showing but a shadow of the strength which took it to T.B.L. heights last year, dropped a swift 9-1 verdict to Lakeshore Blues here tonight. The Macmen had six errors to account for as the powerful Shore club hammered the ball to all corners of the lot. The game, played under the threat of an approaching thunderstorm, was one of the fastest on record taking less than an hour and three-quarters to complete eight and a half innings.

Lakeshore touched George McShane for 12 hits, two of them went to Red Scrutton, classy outfielder, who poled out a double in the first and a homer in the second. Both hits were responsible for runs.

The Solomon's pets made two errors in each of the first, third and sixth innings, with the winners scoring three, three and two runs. Bud Clancy, imported right hander, pitched four-hit ball, striking out seven. McIntyre scored one run in the eighth when Lakeshore infield relaxed their attention to let McShane come in while they completed a fielder's choice. The lineup:

McIntyre—Prout 3b, Hann ss, Cybulski lb, Zampell rf, Gilbert cf, Quinn 2b, Baker lf, Cook c, McShane p.
Lakeshore—Stoynd cf, Buck rf, Scrutton lf, Shalley lb, May 3b, Forster 2b, Karahan ss, Brennan c, Clancy p.
