Terms for Stealing from Liquor Store

Englehart Young Men plead Guilty to Breaking and Entering Englehart's New Liquor Store.

Englehart, July 25.—(Special to The Advance)—Pleading guilty to breaking and entering the new store of the Ontario Liquor Control Board here in the earlier part of last week, Gordon Parcher and Cecil Smith, both of Englehart, drew terms in the Ontario Reformatory when their cases came before Magistrate Gould in week-end sittings at Halleybury. Parcher went to jail for a year, the court being told a previous conviction of similar nature having been registered against him in 1927, while Smith, who had no record, was given six months. Two cases of whiskey were taken by accused, it was alleged, the liquor having been obtained during moving operations when the store changed locations. On the new premises, it was stated, one window had been left unguarded and apparently entrance to the property was gained there. Provincial Constable Lee Walker investigated.

Wife Does Not Approve of Northern Homestead

(From Northern News)
Northern Ontario wilds do not hold the lure of adventure and excitement for some women that they do for men, it seemed in police court yesterday.

Edison Kerr, Otto Township homesteader, was charged by his wife with non-support. The charge was laid in London, Ont.

Kerr, through his lawyer, E. Pearlman, told the court he was willing to give his wife a good home in the north, but she refused to come here to live with him.

Since the complainant did not appear in court, Mr. Pearlman suggested that the case be thrown out. The magistrate decided to give the crown a week to try and produce Mrs. Kerr.

Hon. Earl Rowe Retires as Conservative Leader

At the annual meeting at Toronto last week of the Ontario Conservative party, Hon. Earl Rowe resigned as leader of the party in the province, the resignation to take effect as soon as a successor is chosen. The party accepted the resignation with expressions of regret, and it was decided to call a convention in October to decide upon a new leader. Among those mentioned for the provincial leadership are:—Hon. Leopold Macaulay, who has been the leader in the House; Col. Geo. A. Drew, noted soldier and author; W. Morrison, mayor of Hamilton; and Joseph Harris, M.P., of Toronto.

Cobalt Relief Officer Has Troubles of His Own

Latchford, July 25.—(Special to The Advance)—A charge of assaulting two local women, occasioning actual bodily harm, laid against Thomas Mulholland, Cobalt relief officer, was reduced to common assault at the suggestion of Crown Attorney J. B. Robinson when the adjourned proceedings were heard before Magistrate Gould in Cobalt on Saturday, and Mulholland, convicted on the lesser count, was given suspended sentence and ordered to pay costs of $19.

Complainants were two sisters, Mrs. Philomena Boyce and Mrs. Virginia Ouellette, and the case was a development of the alleged attempt on the part of accused and his son, William Mulholland, of Kirkland Lake, to take by force from the home of Mrs. Boyce here Mary Mulholland, daughter of the older man, and who was 19 years old on July 18. Previously, the girl had laid charges of assault against her brother and father, but had withdrawn them.

At Saturday's hearing, the sisters swore that they had been struck by Mulholland, Mrs. Boyce in the back and Mrs. Ouellette on the right jaw, the latter with sufficient force to cause a swelling and to cause the woman to stagger, according to Walter Jackson, one Crown witness. Mrs. Boyce told the court she was holding Mary Mulholland by the arm when her father struck witness, and she said she hit accused with her fist in the chest and he fell down. Mulholland claimed he had not struck either woman, but only had released their hands from his daughter's arm. He said Mrs. Boyce gave him "a wallop on the jaw" and her sister pulled the buttons off his shirt.

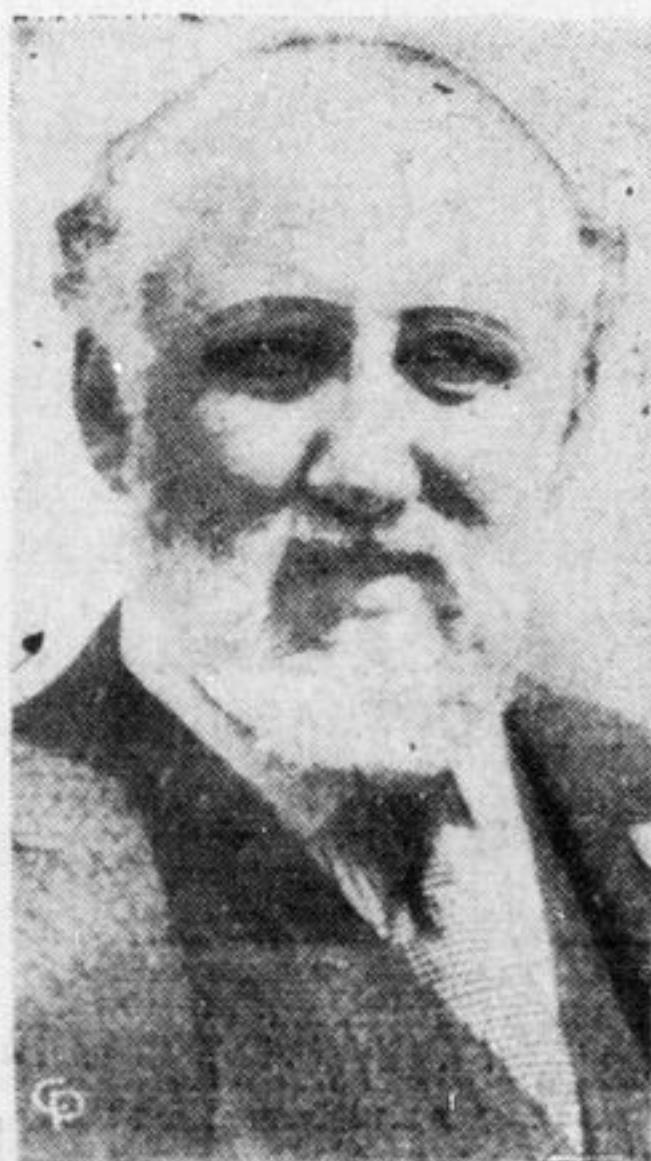

The court learned the girl had been working at the Boyce home because of domestic difficulties, and Provincial Constable R. O. Stromberg said Mulholland had asked him the day before the trouble (June 24) to bring the girl to Cobalt. The officer refused because she was of age and he swore Mulholland had told him it would save a lot of court trouble and that "if his son came down from Kirkland Lake and got some drinks, he would go to Latchford and clean up the whole lot." Constable Stromberg stopped the Mulhollands at Cobalt and took the girl from her brother's car.

W. Perkins Bull

Court litigation may follow publication of the will of the late Mrs. Mabel Horlick Sidley, Racine, Wis., heiress, who died recently at the home of W. Perkins Bull, prominent Canadian lawyer. Under terms of the will, as reported from Racine, Mr. Bull was bequeath an outright sum of $250,000 plus one-third of the Sidley fortune estimated at $9,000,000. William Sidley, only son of the deceased woman receives a similar bequest, while the remaining portion of the estate goes to charitable institutions. In addition the will of Mrs. Arabella Horlick, Mrs. Sidley's mother, who died three days after her daughter, disposes of a $3,000,000 fortune of which Mrs. Sidley was left one-half. Gordon Conant, Ontario's attorney-general, has ordered an investigation into Mrs. Sidley's affairs.
