Corps Reunion Nets Toronto $1,500,000

Several Downtown Hotels Had to Close Before Regular Hour on Saturday.

Toronto, Aug. 3.—(Special to The Advance)—Was the Canadian Corps Association re-union last week-end a success? Ask the people of Toronto—especially some of them—and they will chorus a very decided "Yes! Yes! Yes!"

Another reason is the extra business done by what are known as Oh-be-Joyful Emporiums. On the best of authority including the police and others—and particularly some of the boys who could not get in—several of the big downtown thirst-quenching caravansaries (or words to that effect) were forced to close their doors before 11 o'clock on Saturday night because they ran out of beer, glorious beer.

Wedding Monday at St. Anthony's Church

Miss Jeanne Audet and Mr. Ernest Souliere United in Marriage

A large number of friends attended the St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock when Rev. Fr. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Eugene Souliere. Messrs Albert Audet, a cousin of the bride, and Rene Souliere, brother of the groom, acted as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony, a buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride's mother, 13 Tamarack street. Mrs. Audet receiving the guests tastefully attired in a gown of printed sheer crepe, with grey accessories and a corsage of roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Collegiate Dance Very Popular Event

One of the Best Events of the Year for the Camp

Beautifully decorated for the occasion with crests of the various colleges, the Riverside Pavilion was the scene of an exceptionally happy evening on Friday, when the students of the district held a delightfully arranged dance to bring together the students and to provide a merry time for all who wished to attend.

Being one of the few summer formal, the ladies were all gowned in the newest of fashions, and all arrangements combined to make the affair one to be remembered. Many have expressed the hope that the students will make this an annual event, and judging from its success, this is not too much for which to hope.

Patrons and patronesses at the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Skavlem, of the McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. Grey, of the Delrite; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of the McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, of the McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Keeley, of the McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. Robson, of Schumacher; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keeley, of the Buffalo-Ankerite; Mr. and Mrs. Macaulay, of Pamour; Mr. Wookky, and Mrs. Shorte of Schumacher.

The students who composed the committee were Misses Joy Wookky (social convener) and Ruth Curtis; and Messrs. Jack Malres (advertising convener); Howard Benger (ticket convener); Norman Verdec (decorations convener); Dick Savage, Al Drysdale and Norman Cuke.

Says that Even the Moon is Slowing Down These Days

Brandon Sun—Maybe some of us have noticed something wrong with the world lately and have been a little hazy about the whole thing. Well, the moon, according to the British astronomer, Harold Spencer Jones, has jumped its beaten track and is now about six seconds off schedule. Some giant celestial brake is also being applied to the spinning earth, and Dr. Martin Davidson, President of the British Astronomical Association, estimates that the slowingdown process has gone so far that the earth is now losing about 100th of a second every century.
