Huntingdon Gleaner:—Harry Williams, a young Anglo-Indian engineering apprentice, had been hiccoughing for ten days almost without a break, and doctors despaired of curing or relieving him. A friend took him for a motor drive in Simla. The car crashed into a tree—and the shock cured Williams, who had yelled a warning too late.

Hundreds of Children Helped by Children's Aid

Review of Work of District Children's Aid for the Year Ending March 31st, as Presented in Fourteenth Annual Report of Local Superintendent. Illustrations Given of Some of the Good Work for Children.

To the President and Members of the Society
Ladies and Gentlemen: In submitting this, the fourteenth annual report of Cochrane District Children's Aid Society, we feel that considerable progress has been made especially in preventative work, since more time and attention has been given to the re-establishment of the home so that it would not be necessary to remove the children. In most cases, the parents are eager to assist, but under the present relief conditions it is almost impossible for a family to exist on the small amount given and it was necessary to give financial assistance in many cases in order to protect the children from suffering. It is difficult to estimate the value of this work, but a great number of children who would otherwise have become charges on the municipality have been kept in their homes. In the past year the directors have taken definite steps to increase the efficiency of the Society and this has been recognized by the Provincial Department in an increase of five hundred dollars in the annual grant.
The following summary gives an estimate of the work of the Society. However, it is difficult to express in terms of human values an idea of the benefits bestowed.

To Rigidly Enforce Speed Law

Thirty-Mile-an-Hour Speed Must be Observed on New Highway in Town Limits.

Under definite instructions from council, Timmins police will rigidly enforce the thirty-mile-an-hour speed limit on the new section of highway from the T. & N. O. overhead bridge on Fourth avenue to the corporation boundary near the new Schumacher swimming pool. At their regular meeting on Monday, council gave orders that the road be patrolled by police as often as possible and all motorists exceeding the speed limit charged.

It was also decided that a number of signs will be erected warning the travelling public that the speed of cars must not exceed thirty miles an hour. One of the principal reasons for rigid enforcement of the law is the danger to the large number of pedestrians using the road.

Only Routine Business at Kiwanis Club Meeting

There was no speaker for the regular meeting of Timmins Kiwanis Club on Monday and business transacted was purely routine in character. Despite the warm weather and the fact that a number of members are on vacation, the attendance was good.

Town Seeks Control of Mattagami Beach Land

Council Make Recommendation to Department of Lands and Forests That All Licenses of Occupation for Property Near Wilson Avenue Bridge be Cancelled. Boat-Houses May be Moved.

To Retire

A request for retirement has been made to the attorney-general's department by D'Arcy Hinds senior registrar of the Ontario supreme court and noted Canadian authority on Irish Custom and tradition. Mr. Hinds will retire in October on his 70th birthday.

Timmins town council will make immediate recommendations to the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests that all licenses of occupation for land on the west bank of the Mattagami River near the bridge at the foot of Wilson avenue, be cancelled.

The decision of the council, when ratified by the provincial department, will necessitate the removal of a considerable number of boat houses north of the bridge. It was suggested however that the town will assist the owners in defraying the cost of moving the structures.

The purpose of the application to the government for cancellation of occupational licenses, the mayor pointed out, is to insure a proper and safe place for children to bathe in summer. One of the licensees, the mayor declared, had erected a fence on his property and has been charging ten cents admission for the privilege of bathing.

Sidewalk to Hollinger

Several members of council urged that something be done at once to provide sidewalk accommodation along the new three-lane highway from Timmins to Hollinger Mine. It was pointed out that hundreds of men are walking the pavement to and from work every day in constant danger from motor traffic. Mayor Bartleman took the matter up recently in Toronto with the Deputy Minister of Highways and the Chief Engineer but could get little satisfaction.

Formerly a cinder path was provided along the roadway for pedestrians but with the widening of the road this was eliminated. The mayor told the meeting that it had been tentatively suggested that the province would pay half the cost of an eight-foot sidewalk, while the Hollinger had consented to pay one-quarter of the cost. The arrangements are by no means definite and the mayor will discuss the question at once with Hon. T. B. McQueen, Minister of Highways, in the hope of getting an early decision.

Remand Lamothe, Longpre

Hear Gold Receiving Charge Sept 6—Accepted Murder Case Next Week.

Charlie Lamothe, of South Porcupine, charged with receiving $41,000 in gold precipitates stolen from Dome Mines on the morning of June 8, made a brief appearance in police court here on Tuesday before Magistrate Atkinson and was remanded for a week. It was intimated however that the case will be formally remanded to September 6 at next week's sitting, at the request of W. B. Common, solicitor for the attorney-general's department.

Due to the inability of Albert Desormeaux to appear in court, Edward Longpre, charged with attempted murder following a shooting affray in Mountjoy Township recently, was remanded in custody for another week. Assistant Crown Attorney Charles Yates told the court that in all likelihood Desormeaux would be able to attend next week's hearing.

Thought his Father Had Died in the Porcupine Fire

(Northern News)
After 22 years of separation, during which time he thought his father to have perished in the disastrous Porcupine fire, D. J. Cochrane, a C.N.R. engineer at Drumheller, Alberta, last week was re-united with his father, Robert Cochrane, when he visited him at his home at Kirkland Lake.

A brother, George Cochrane, in Arnprior, supplied the necessary link which brought together father and son after nearly a quarter of century of being apart. The engineering son, who is now 62 years old, wrote to George some time ago and mentioned the father. When "D.J.", as he is called, found that his father, now 84 years old, was still living in Kirkland Lake, he picked up and came east to see him.

It was a joyous reunion after 22 years in which both thought the other to be dead. Robert Cochrane, the father, is at present living in his little shack to the north of town and doing the odd bit of prospecting. He came here 25 years ago when this area was a broad expanse of bush and lakes, without a name. His son came with him but left after three years to try his luck in other fields.

Hollinger Miner Jailed For Theft Of Gold Ore

Richard Gonzales Pleads Guilty to High-Grading Charge and Gets Six Months. Laura Larocque Given Three Months for Keeping For Sale. Doris Desrosiers Pays $200 Fine for Keeping Disorderly House.

Despite a plea by his counsel, Dean Kester, K.C., that it was the first offence he was ever charged with, Richard Gonzales, Kirby avenue, was sentenced to six months in jail at hard labour when he pleaded guilty in police court here Tuesday afternoon to a charge of stealing gold from Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines. In emphasizing the good record of his client, Mr. Kester pointed out that Gonzales had worked at Hollinger for the past fourteen years and is a married man with one child eleven years old. According to the assay report of the ore that Gonzales had in his possession at the time of his arrest, the value of the gold was slightly over four dollars.

Woman Gets Three Months
"Evidently this was a dive of the worst kind," said Magistrate Atkinson as he sentenced Laura Larocque, 66 Wende avenue, to three months in jail on a charge of keeping liquor for sale. Sergeant Desrosches and Constable Gualla gave evidence of seven occasions they had checked traffic in and out of the house in the early hours of the morning, men and women coming and going in considerable numbers. In a raid on June 4, four people were found in the house drinking but all were known to the accused. On the night of the last raid, when the charge was laid, four men and two women were drinking when the police entered at 10.25 p.m., all of whom were acquainted with the defendant. Thirty-eight pints of beer and two part bottles of liquor were seized at the time.

In reply to questions by the Magistrate, Miss Larocque told the court that her friends were in the habit of visiting her at her home early in the morning. She was also in the habit of serving them beer but didn't make any charge for the refreshments. She further explained that even in her absence her brother or his wife, who live in the same house, might have treated her friends to a drink.

During his observations one evening Constable Gualla said that he saw something apparently pass between the accused and one of four men after they had been given beer. He saw the proceedings through an open door but could not swear that money had changed hands.

Death at Ottawa of Sister of W. L. Hogarth, Timmins

Following a very short illness, the death occurred suddenly on Sunday of Mrs. Edna Hogarth Blackburn at her home, 408 Slater street. Mrs. Blackburn, resident of the Capital for 32 years, had been ill only one week.

Born at Mattawa, she was a daughter of the late William Hogarth and his wife Jean Macdonald. Mrs. Blackburn spent her early years at Mattawa, coming to Ottawa after her marriage. She attended St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church where she took a quiet but deep interest in the affairs of the church.

Surviving Mrs. Blackburn are a daughter, Miss Jean Blackburn, at home; one son, William Blackburn, of Timmins; three sisters, Mrs. C. K. Lough and Mrs. J. R. Simpson, both of Toronto, and Mrs. J. P. Hurdman, of Ottawa; and three brothers, Major General D. M. Hogarth of Toronto, W. L. Hogarth of Timmins and Harry Hogarth of Port Arthur.

The funeral service was conducted at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Hurdman, 73 Carter street, on Tuesday at 2 p.m. Interment was in Beechwood cemetery.

Death of Mrs. Somerville at Pembroke Last Week

The following account of the death of Mrs. Thomas Somerville at Pembroke last week is from Monday's issue of The Pembroke Bulletin. Mrs. Somerville was an aunt of Mrs. E. M. Condie, matron of the Children's Aid Shelter, Timmins.

Death of Mrs. T. Somerville
The death occurred at the home of her niece, Mrs. James L. Reynolds, 418 Isabella street, on Saturday, of Mrs. Thomas Somerville, an esteemed resident of Pembroke for the past 50 years. In her 89th year, she had been ill for four months. Mrs. Somerville was born in Westmeath township, on May 11, 1850, the former Emily Bromley, a daughter of the late James Henry Bromley and his wife, Ann Richardson. Following her marriage she had resided in Pembroke, and since the death of her husband, about 29 years ago, made her home with her niece and nephew-in-law. A sister-in-law, Mrs. John G. Bromley, Sudbury, survives. The funeral is being held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds this (Monday) afternoon, to Holy Trinity Anglican Church, of which Mrs. Somerville was a lifelong member of the Women's Guild. Rev. H. A. E. Clarke will officiate, and burial will be made in the Anglican cemetery.
