Says Cochrane District To Have Jail of Its Own

Probably Located in Iroquois Falls District. Haileybury Jail Reported as Greatly Overcrowded, Chiefly With Prisoners from Timmins, Porcupine and Other Cochrane Centres.

Cochrane, Sept. 12.—(Special to The Advance)—Reports from Haileybury that accommodation at the district jail there is so seriously overtaxed at present that there are almost four times as many inmates as there are cells provided, has revived rumors in this section that the provincial authorities will consider again the possibility of erecting a similar prison for the District of Cochrane, at present without a separate institution of this nature.

This project has received consideration in the past, but no action has followed from Queen's Park, and prisoners sentenced to jail terms from points in this district, including the Porcupine camp, Iroquois Falls area and the territory west to Hearst, are taken to Haileybury. They comprise a good proportion of the men held in the district jail there, coming as they do from the jurisdiction of both Magistrate Atkinson and Magistrate Tucker.

Information from Haileybury indicated that at the end of last week there were 119 prisoners in the jail, which is equipped with 32 cells. The number included eight on remand, but as these all went back on Friday afternoon on being given 30-day terms, there was no change in the figures. Two more accused persons were committed to jail at Cobalt the following morning. Most of the men are held for short terms, which means they serve out their time in Haileybury, and providing accommodation for them is taxing to its utmost the resources of the available accommodation.

In the event that a separate provincial jail is erected for the Cochrane district, one report is that it will be located in the Iroquois Falls section. The court house for Cochrane district is in town here, but as most of the prisoners who normally would be sentenced to jail terms in this area would come from Timmins and other southern parts of the country, a site near the paper mill town would be more convenient for the authorities, it is contended.

PROGRESS MADE ON THE HIGHWAY

Work is progressing on the highway between South Porcupine and Schumacher. Last week-end the work of laying the cement was completed from near where the road turns into the Conlaum to the weigh scales at South Porcupine. With good weather it should not take long to finish the highway between Schumacher and South Porcupine and in a few weeks the highway should be open from Timmins to South Porcupine. The picture shows a stretch of the new highway on the Rae Hill. (Advance Photo and Engraving)

Lovely in a gown of ice-blue bridal satin, Georgina daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Rochefort, became the bride of Mr. Edward LaSalle, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. LaSalle, of 9 Birch st. north, in a ceremony performed by Rev. Fr. R. LaSalle, of Haileybury, brother of the groom, at the St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church this (Monday) morning at 9 o'clock. Many friends were present at the church, which was fittingly decorated for the occasion with mixed flowers and lighted tapers.

During the ceremony Mrs. A. Pelletier, Mrs. Stone and Mr. Lucien Filion sang "Ave Marie" and other suitable wedding selections, and the church organist played wedding music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown made on fitted lines, with a fitted jacket, buttoned to the waist at the front, and with long leg of mutton sleeves. From the jacket fell a floor-length train of ice-blue satin, beautifully finished with the gown. She wore a halo hat of matching material and colour, bearing a waist length white tulle veil and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Marie Rochefort attended her sister as bridesmaid, charmingly attired in a gown of navy blue tulle not over taffeta, with white applique at the hemline and white appliqued bolero jacket. The gown was fashioned with a shirred bodice and full flared skirt, and she wore a matching turban with a shoulder length veil. She carried tea roses, pink roses and maiden-hair fern.

Mr. Omer Girard, attended the groom as best man. Following the ceremony, a buffet lunch was served at the home of the bride's parents, 68 Fifth avenue, where the bride's mother received the guests, becomingly attired in a street-length dress of navy blue sheer, with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. She was assisted by Mrs. LaSalle, mother of the groom, who chose for the occasion a burgundy knitted suit, with matching accessories.

The bride and groom left on the early afternoon train for Ottawa, Sudbury and other points, the bride choosing for travel a brown suit, with cream-coloured fox neck-piece and cream accessories. On their return they will take up residence in Timmins.

Third Visit Here of the Jubilee Singers

Delightful Musical Event To-Night and To-Morrow

The Virginia Jubilee Singers have an international reputation as a group of Southern musicians whose programmes are always full of talent and charm. They have been for years on the concert stage and on the radio, and their success has been phenomenal. These talented singers need no special introduction, however, to Timmins, having visited here on two previous occasions. On those occasions the programmes given here captured the hearts of all music lovers. The Virginia Jubilee Singers are generous in the number and the variety of selections on their programmes, and also with their encoures, but on their previous appearances here the only fault that was found—that could be found with their programmes was that they were not long enough, even when carried along to a comparatively late hour. Time passes very quickly with a programme of the Virginia Jubilee Singers.

On their previous visits here the Virginia Jubilee Singers were brought to Timmins under the auspices of the Timmins United Church Choir. Music lovers in the town and district will be pleased to know that the United Church Choir has again succeeded in securing a visit from the Virginia Jubilee Singers. This programme will be presented in the auditorium of the Timmins United Church this (Monday) evening, commencing at 8 p.m. Then again, tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 p.m., they will again appear at the church auditorium for a second concert. Also tomorrow (Tuesday) at 4.15 p.m. there will be a special children's matinee.

Tickets for the concert may be secured from any member of the Timmins United Church Choir.

To Hold Social Evening in Honour of W. M. Whyte

Mr. W. M. Whyte, noted for his prominence in the work of the Oddfellows in the North, is to be the guest of honour at a social evening to be held by the Timmins Lodge of the I.O.O.F. in their hall on Spruce street, tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. The event will commence at 8 p.m. and will follow the lines of the similar happy occasion last year. Bro. Whyte ("Dad") to the Oddfellows) will celebrate his 86th birthday on Wednesday of this week, and his brother Oddfellows are honouring the occasion the night before, believing that this is about the only way and the only time they have been able to "get ahead" of Dad. Royal Celebration of Marriage of Young Lady Recently Threatened with Deportation.

There were over 500 attended the large party given in the Croatian hall, Schumacher, on Sunday night in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Oreskovic, whose recent romantic marriage created so much interest. Mrs. Oreskovic, whose maiden name was Anka Oreskovic, though her family and her husband's were not related, was recently held for deportation because she refused to marry another man who was registered as having deposited a bond at Ottawa for her entry to this country. Dean Kester secured a stay in the deportation order and went to Ottawa where he was able to show the authorities that the young lady was going to marry another man whom she loved and that accordingly her entry was not illegal.

Mr. Mark Oreskovic also went to Ottawa and told the authorities that if the young lady were deported he would follow her to Croatia to marry her. The authorities relented in the matter

WRITTEN AT 3 P.M.

At Nuremberg today Hitler opened his long-expected address. He started at 2.15 Eastern Daylight Saving Time and in the opening part of his speech dealt only with the history of the National Socialist Party. He defended Germany policy in regard to the Jews. Just at the time of going to press he touched on Czechoslovakia, his strongest expression being that the Germans would not stand back and see the Sudeten Germans oppressed. "Depriving these people of their rights must end," he roared.
