alarm box, the first attempt to turn in an alarm was useless and a few minutes' time was lost in this way. Another man, noticing that the alarm had not sounded, sent in another call from another box. The firemen were very prompt on the scene, but when they arrived there was no chance to save the house. In commenting on this phase of the matter The Advance at the time said: "Indeed, it would not have been to the discredit of the firemen if the houses on each side had also gone, for the blaze had such headway that it looked as if these other houses were also doomed. The occupants of these adjoining houses showed their recognition of the danger by removing their effects from the buildings. Fire Chief Borland and his men, how-

out that the move would be of general advantage in view of the fact that the greater part of the court's business originated in Timmins and Schumacher. "A strong counter attack," said The Advance, "is reported as having been started this week in South Porcupine against the removal of the Division Court office from that place where the bailiff is to Timmins where the business is."

Announcement was made twenty years ago in regard to changes in the hours of holding police court in Timmins. Instead of the sessions commencing at 10 a.m. and continuing through the day until the cases were disposed of, as had been the practice for the previous year or two, the court was called at 9.30 and adjourned at noon, the magistrate then going to South Porcupine for cases there, returning to Timmins on the 4 o'clock train and resuming court at Timmins. At a meeting of the firemen twenty years ago, Deputy Fire Chief J. D. MacLean suggested the holding of a monthly dance and social, the proceeds to go to the Porcupine branch of the Navy League. The firemen approved the idea for that winter.

Speaking of the Navy League, South Porcupine and Schumacher did unusually well in securing members for the Porcupine branch of the League. At South Porcupine Mr. C. B. Morgan 20 years ago brought in 73 new members. He said only two men had given refusals in his canvass. One had a good excuse, having answered so many other calls while business was poor. The other, when asked to contribute to the cause of the brave sailors to whom Canada and the Empire owed prosperity, liberty, safety and life itself, replied: "I'll see them in Hell first!" The Advance told the second gentleman where he ought to be, suggesting in a very gentle language—perhaps—that this fellow was not polite, nor patriotic, nor grateful, nor a good sport. At Schumacher, the canvass brought in 29 new members for the Navy League. The canvass in Timmins was also in progress with success, and a total of 500 members was aimed at and eventually secured that year.

In a further reference twenty years ago to the fire at the Iroquois Falls hotel, The Advance mentioned on Sept. 18, 1918, that apparently another had been added to the list of dead in the fire, thus bringing the number of those burned to death in this fire to six. In cleaning up the ruins the head of a man was found under some debris, while the rest of the body had apparently been either burned up or fallen elsewhere in the ruins when the building collapsed. It was thought to be the body of some commercial traveller stopping at the hotel. The Advance also said the cause of the fire was believed to be due to the generation of gas from soft coal used in the kitchen. Continuing its report, The Advance said: "Miss Annette Campbell, of Timmins, was one of the heroines of the occasion, and many undoubtedly owe their lives to her courage. She escaped from the hotel in safety, but returned and ran through the house, rousing the inmates and seeing them on the way to safety. Eventually she had to jump from one of the windows, injuring her ankle and her back. She is now at her home in Timmins, and all will be pleased to know that she is making excellent recovery and will be none the worse for her trying experience. His many friends in the camp will greatly regret the fact that Mr. W. M. Whyte, formerly of South Porcupine, but recently in charge of the recreation hall at the Falls, was among those rather badly injured in the fire. His face, arms and shoulders were severely burned, but even this did not daunt his cheerful courage. He was burned while escaping from one of the upstairs windows and coming down the fire escape. He lost practically all his clothes, several keepsakes he valued very highly, and a considerable sum of money which was in his coat pocket. He is making excellent progress to recovery. He came home to South Porcupine during the week-end and all will be pleased to know of his early and complete recovery."

The Advance of Sept. 18, 1918, said: "Mayor J. P. McLaughlin and all members of the town council in Timmins last week, together with Mr. H. E. Montgomery, clerk-treasurer, and Mr. W. S. Macpherson, assessor and tax collector, met at the apartment of the clerk-treasurer to do honour to Councillor Globe previous to his leaving for his new work near Sudbury. The only member of the council unable to be present was Dr. J. A. McInnis, who was away on his vacation trip to the South. Councillor Globe has given such efficient and earnest municipal service that it is only fitting that the municipal authorities should take occasion to give him some appropriate recognition before his departure from the town. The citizens in general will only regret that they did not know of his early removal so that a more public recognition of his services to the municipality might have been made. The mayor and councillors and officials, however, voiced the general appreciation of Mr. Globe's services. They presented him with a handsome club bag as a slight token of the esteem and appreciation felt for him by all. Mr. Globe has gone to Sellwood, near Sudbury, where he will be in charge of an iron-mining industry, which has grown to large proportions since the opening of the war and the consequent increased demand for iron. The best wishes of hosts of friends will follow Mr. Globe to his new field of responsibility."

Twenty years ago The Advance was pointing out the need for a customs office at Timmins. Reference was made to the amount of customs business at this centre and the necessity of a branch here for the convenience of the business people of the town. Reference was made twenty years ago to the announcement that the Division Court Clerk's office would be moved to Timmins from South Porcupine as soon as suitable quarters could be secured here. The Advance pointed

Schumacher H. S. Field Day Proves Outstanding Success

With every event keenly contested, the first annual combined track and field meet of Schumacher High School at McIntyre Stadium on Friday afternoon, proved an outstanding success. Events for both boys and girls were well filled and finishes were close all afternoon. The weather was ideal despite a stiff wind and by the time a light shower occurred late in the afternoon, the competitions were over. The programme was planned in such a way that almost every student in the school took part in the events. G. Wright, athletic director at the school, had charge of the boys' events with Misses E. M.
