When the present town was no more than a pine ridge on the trail to the Matigami river. Now there was a large city called Timmins with a regular public to serve. Mayor Bartleman praised the work of the service clubs in helping the community, but suggested that the Timmins Citizens' Band was the first genuine service organization to function in Timmins. It had served the community in very generous and able way. Other organizations, he said, might be tempted to turn over their responsibilities to the town or to others, but the Band had stood on its own feet and served the public in its own and pleasing way. He congratulated Bandmaster Wolno and the members of the Band on their success and promised them his continued interest and support.

"We hope you will not forget those kind words when the time for making the budget comes," commented President Walker, amid laughter and applause after the conclusion of the mayor's address.

Bandman F. J. Hornby proposed the toast to the guests. At previous banquets of the bands the events had been confined to band members only, but this evening all were pleased to have the ladies and other guests included, he said.

In making response to this toast, G. A. Macdonald, a former president of the band, said he would feel more at home in replying if he were allowed to change "Guests of the Band" to "Friends of the Band." He referred to the story of the establishment of the Timmins Citizens' Band in May, 1919, through the efforts of the late E. W. Johnson, Rev. Fr. Theriault, James Gels, Robt. Sims, J. T. Easton, J. B. Pare, Dr. McInnis, Chief Borland and others. The progress of the band and its service to the community were mentioned, and the band members urged to give the fullest support and cooperation to their able leader, Bandmaster F. J. Wolno, and to the committee that had shown such unselfish interest in the band's welfare. On the other hand the public should give the heartiest support and goodwill to the band. Points in the address were emphasized by humorous stories.

"Chip" Ball, of the Lions Club, who was one of the guests at the banquet was asked to say a word or two about the Lions Boys' Band. He expressed special appreciation of the work of Bandmaster Wolno and referred to the ever-ready help given the Lions Boys' Band by the experienced and talented members of the Timmins Citizens' Band. This generous assistance had been invaluable to the Boys' Band. He pointed out, however, in very effective way, that as the members of the older band came reluctantly to put away their instruments when they could no longer continue their use, they would have the joy of knowing that there was a new generation of trained young bandmen to pick up the instruments and carry on the musical work. Mr. Ball concluded with a special word of appreciation for Bandmaster Wolno and his assistant, Mr. Wilford.

Mr. J. B. Pare, Sr. one of the "fathers" of the Timmins Citizens' Band, in replying to the call of the toastmaster, said he was pleased indeed to be present, and very proud of the success of the band. He was one of those who had been compelled, as Mr. Ball phrased it, to hang up his instrument, but his heart was still in the band and its music. He hoped that the whole band would keep on growing in every way.

Bandman W. S. Stanley was called upon to propose the toast to the ladies, which he did in brief but very effective way.

Mr. Roy Clifton, of the Consumers' Co-operative Society, gave a very able and interesting address, illuminated by a number of very apt and amusing stories. He pointed to what he termed

Rugby Game

Inexperience proved to be the Nemesis of the South Porcupine High School team on Saturday afternoon when they outplayed their Schumacher High School rivals only to lose out by a 17-11 score in the town's inaugural game of six-man rugby played at the High School grounds.

Playing a wide-open, end-running game the locals had an 11-1 lead with just eight minutes to go after Maki had scored on a 10-yard plunge which Pearce converted, and after McNevin had ran back the half-time kick for another unconverted try.

Zadorozny started the Schumacher splurge when he intercepted an ill-timed blue and gold pass and raced for a converted touchdown, after a sustained aerial attack Narduzzi, who had kicked the single in the first quarter, plowed through for another five points and a lateral passing play on the subsequent kick-off enabled Lannarelli to romp across for another major score with just a few minutes of play left.

The tackling of Uren and Kaut'o, of the losers, and passing of Narduzzi, of the winners, was certainly big-time calibre.

Both schools have intra-mural leagues playing this fast new game and expect to have the best of their juniors (under 120 pounds) and midgets (under 110 pounds) play a double header here next Saturday.

Lineup:
Schumacher—Snap, Patain; ends, Turcott, Zadorozny; quarterback, Lannarelli; halfbacks, Arnott, Cripps, alternate, Narduzzi, Batigelli, Todhunter, Cavanagh, Lampkin, Dillon.
South Porcupine—Snap, Kavanagh; ends, Kaut'o, Uren; quarterback, Evans; halfbacks, Pearce, McNevin; alternates, Romanick, Maki.

Happy Banquet and Social by the Band

Wedding Saturday at Church Nativity

Miss Theresa Sullivan and Mr. Hartley Stewart Married.

The priest's home of the Church of Nativity was the scene of a quiet but attractive wedding on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when Rev. Fr. O'Gorman united in marriage Theresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sullivan, and Mr. Hartley Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart, of Saskatchewan. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present at the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a royal blue chiffon velvet street-length dress, with a gored skirt, shirred bodice and long sleeves, and wore a matching turban with nose-length veil, and matching accessories. She carried a nosegay of tallsmans roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Eileen Sullivan, sister of the bride, was charming in a navy blue crepe ensemble with pearls and accessories.

Mr. Frank Collins, of Saskatchewan, acted as groomsman.

Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, 212 1/2 Cedar street south, where the bride's mother received the guests, becomingly attired in an afternoon dress of burgundy crepe with corsage of tallsmans roses. She was assisted by Mrs. R. Turcotte, aunt of the bride, who chose for the occasion a heavy black crepe ensemble, with a corsage of roses.
