

Lion's Club Change Place of Meeting

Will Hold Regular Weekly Gatherings in Empire Hotel After Nov. 1st.

Commencing at the first of the month, Timmins Lions Club will hold their weekly luncheons in the Empire Hotel instead of in the Legion Hall. The recommendation was included in a report by the treasurer which was read at last week's meeting.

It was announced that at this week's meeting Max Silverman, of Sudbury, will be the guest speaker for the occasion. Mr. Silverman has consented to bring along several reels of motion pictures, which were taken during the European tour of the Club Wolves last year.

Lion Ray Hughes reported that three pairs of glasses have been supplied during the past month.

The formation of another Boy Scout troop is well advanced, according to another report that was presented.

Lion M. Eslanger reported that tickets for the turkey draw will be ready for the next meeting. It is hoped that the proceeds will be in excess of last year so as to enable the club to send out more Christmas hampers.

Extensive preparations are being made for the "Remembrance Day" meeting of the club on November 10. The guests for that occasion will include veterans of both Allied and German forces, who will be asked to say a few words. It will also be ladies.

The health and welfare report was given by President Dr. M. J. Kelly. He told the meeting that all public and separate school children have been given a test for tuberculosis and that reports on the survey will be available shortly. He recalled seeing a magazine in which it was boasted that 800 children had been tested in one town and

TIMMINS TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO

This is a scene taken 27 years ago where the city of Timmins now stands—and moves onward day by day. Contrasting the modern city of to-day with this partial clearing in the bush, Timmins may well use the boys' phrase, "You ought to see me now."

Quarterly Statement of the Coniaurum Mines

Estimated operating profit of $144,382 before taxes, depreciation and deferred development, is reported by Coniaurum Mines for the three months ended Sept. 30, comparing with $124,275 in the previous quarter. Addition of non operating revenue brought total profit for the three months to $151,472 against $144,635. Estimated total profit for the first nine months of the year is $433,771 against $187,516 in the corresponding period of 1937.

Production for the third quarter was 447,559 from 47,180 tons of ore, for average recovery of $3.85 per ton, against $410,926 from 47,795 tons for average of $3.60 in the previous three months. Production for the nine months amounts to $1,234,162 from 141,890 tons for average of $8.69, against $1,047,797 from 123,180 tons and average of $8.51 in the 1937 period.

Development and operating costs for the past three months were $273,177, against $286,652 in previous period, bringing costs for the nine months to $787,039 against $918,680 a year ago.

FALL FAIRS VALUED

Petrolia Advertiser-Topic: The fall fair season is nearly at an end and the popularity of these annual events does not appear to be waning. They are an excellent way to bring the people of a district together, and we feel somewhat envious when reading the reports of these. There are some good fairs in near-by centres, but they do not compensate for the lack of one in Petrolia in recent years. It is a good thing for the people of a town and its surrounding country to mingle together occasionally at such occasions as fall fairs.

That Body of Hours

(by James W. Barton, M.D.)

Preventing Symptoms Due to the Itch Bug and Other Insects.

INSECTS

Like all boys I wanted to travel all over the world, particularly through the tropical jungles. However, in the back of my mind always was, not fear of snakes, lions, or tigers, but of annoying bugs and insects that would be crawling about my body day and night. Particularly was I afraid even as a boy of the bugs that would cause such intense itching that I would be continuously scratching and tearing my skin to obtain relief.

Later as a physician, I met hundreds of cases of scabies in hospital. Scabies, the medical name for the itch, is due to the presence of a little bug or insect which gets under the skin and causes most intense itching. This insect, which resembles a tiny turtle, can scarcely be seen by the naked eye, gets into the middle layers of the skin and because of its bristling hair cannot get out again and remains there until it dies. However it leaves its eggs which develop into insects and these insects in turn burrow into the skin. The cure then is to smother the little insects and destroy the eggs.

The treatment has usually been the application of ointments containing sulphur, tar, carbolic acid, zinc, or mercury. Sulphur has been used more than any of the others both in the form of baths and ointments. The process of killing off insects and eggs is sometimes slow and prolonged.

What appears to be a boon to those afflicted with scabies and a preventive for those who must or wish to travel or be where the insects are prevalent is announced by Dr. R. A. Nolan in Military Surgeon. Dr. Nolan uses sublimed sulphur in a bland paste soap which combined well, is applied as a copious lather and allowed to dry leaving a sulphurated film on the body. For treatment, the application of the soap is repeated for three days with daily changes of underwear. The sulphur paste soap contains 18 percent of sulphur and requires only about half an ounce for one satisfactory application. This film of soap will produce enough hydrogen sulphide (gas with rotten egg odor) to discourage the itch mite from lodging in seams and underclothing.

Just one application of this soap would thus permit one to be amid the itch mite and other insects which cause definite symptoms and even definite diseases in the body.
