A Boy Scout Service Camp Recently from time to time I have come in touch with boys and young men who are going to the New York World's Fair. In their interest and yours but mainly to point out what a big place Scouting has in the scheme of things in this world of to-day, let's look at a service camp.

The New York World's Fair, 1939, has paid Scouting a signal honour by granting the Boy Scouts of America the privilege of maintaining a demonstration and service camp within the Fair grounds throughout the duration of the Fair—that is, from April 30 to October 31, 1939, a total of 365 Scouts and Scouters are to have the distinction and honour of representing the movement in this unique service project, demonstrating the value of Scouting.

As an integral part of the World's Provision is made for four Troop camp sites, each site accommodating 32 Scouts, with Scoutmaster, two Assistants and a Senior Patrol Leader (Troop Leader in Canadian Scouting).

Tents will be of various colours and designs. There will be a large tent for the display of Scouting, including woodcraft, handicraft, and campcraft, and there will be opportunity for Troops that have produced outstanding articles in handicraft and campcraft to have them shown in this camp at the World's Fair—thus providing for an exhibit which will represent the net craftsmanship so far developed by the Scouts of the country.

Because of the nature of the project, including as it does unusual educational opportunity for visiting the Fair, the requirements of their service programme and the necessity of their haring time to give daily demonstrations, it has been decided wise to reduce to a minimum all housekeeping operations and, therefore, provision has been made for professional cooks and central feeding on a basis that will insure satis-facton, comfort and the highest possible health standards. This is perhaps, the only deviation from our usual camp procedure that you will find when you visit the Fair.

But that is not the only big show of Scouting. Over on the west coast arrangements have been made with the Golden Gate International Exposition at San Francisco to designate August 3, 1939, as Boy Scout Day. Already the news of this Exposition has spread over the country. Its appeal is gripping young and old alike.

Here, an outstanding Boy Scout exhibit occupies a large and prominent space in a centrally located exhibit building on Treasure Island. The exhibit has been developed with the cooperation of Scout Executives in the Golden Gate area and under the leadership of the National Council.

It shows that the world can't get along without Scouting. But we must remember too, that Scouting can't get along without us, and that Scouting is just what we make it. A word to the wise is sufficient!

Last Wednesday I had the opportunity of visiting a troop whose headquarters is about a half mile back in the bush. I was told, too, that their attendance record was around 98% over the last five months! Can you beat that. They meet in a deserted bunk house and covey which they are now busy converting into a very smart troop headquarters. By coal oil lights this troop meets and does some very creditable Scout work. They are the 1st Deloro and meet out past the Paymaster Mine.

Note too, some very lively activities down at the First Timmins meetings.
Their membership has expanded almost 75% in the last few months too.

The 5th and 7th Troops claim to have had quite an experience in their weekend camp last week. Even though the weather wasn't ideal for camping they all enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The 3rd Pack are now in a position to accept new members. With a skeleton membership they have been active for several months in order to build up strong Sixer leadership. Now they feel they are in a position to add new members. The pack meets in the Church of the Nativity on Tuesday evenings at 5:45 p.m.

And so for another week, Scoutingly yours, Ebr.
