Charlie McCarthy at Palace Theatre

Also W. C. Fields and Other Famous Screen Stars on Bill To-night and To-morrow.

At the Palace theatre this evening and to-morrow there is certainly an unusual array of famous talent on the screen. The feature picture is: "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man," and heading the cast in this comedy are such headliners as W. C. Fields, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy. W. C. Fields has been a star for nearly forty years, his reputation being a world-wide one. As for Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, they are known wherever the radio is heard, and that makes it world-wide. Others in the cast of "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" include Mortimer Snerd, Constance Moore, Princess Baba and Black-man, the animal hypnotist, these also having important roles in the play. Then for the remainder of the cast seasoned veterans of the stage and screen have been chosen, these including such names as Thurston Hall, John

Kiwians At Rouyn Told Of Good Work of T.P.A.

Rouyn, April 22—Chief of Police K. H. Turnbull was a guest at the Kiwanis Club here at their regular luncheon this week, and told that the club of the good work done in Timmins by the Timmins Police Amateur Athletic Association. He suggested that the work of the T.P.A.A. had the effect of reducing juvenile delinquency as it gave lively boys good avenues in which to expand their energies. He told the club that 1200 boys had been coached in hockey by the T.P.A.A. during the past winter.

Guelph Mercury: Morris Cooling was struck at Hazelton by a passenger train travelling at 60 miles an hour, but escaped with a few bruises and the loss of his front teeth. And he'll probably tumble out of a wheelbarrow some day and break his neck.

Arlidge, Mary Forbes, Arthur Hohl, Eddie Anderson, Charles Coleman, Edward Brophy, Grady Sutton, Ferris Taylor, James Bush, David Oliver, and others of equal talent.

"You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" has been generally hailed as one of the best comedies to be produced at Hollywood. It has played to bumper houses all over the country. It was produced by that talented producer, Lester Cowan, and directed by George Marshall, who has the reputation of being Hollywood's leader in comedy direction.

The programme at the Palace theatre for Sunday midnight, Monday and Tuesday of this week, is a particularly attractive one. Not only is there the outstanding feature picture, "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man", but there are also attractive "shorts", together with news pictures of particular interest and appeal.
