Twenty Years Ago
From The Porcupine Advance Files

The first mayor of Timmins, Mr. W. H. Wilson, died at Guelph on May 12th, 1919. For a year or two previously he had been in poor health and from January of that year he had been undergoing treatment at Guelph. At the time of death Mr. Wilson was 45 years of age. He was one of the pioneers of Porcupine, coming here in 1910 and being closely identified with the business and municipal life of the district. In the early days he conducted a hardware store in Golden City and later moved the building and business to Timmins where he had the town's first hardware business. He was the first mayor of Timmins and for five successive years was re-elected by acclamation to this honoured position. For some years previous to his death he had conducted a teaming contracting business, doing practically all of this class of work for the Hollinger Mine. The late Mr. Wilson was widely known and highly regarded in the Porcupine and his death came as a decided shock to large circles of friends. The funeral took place at Kingston, Ont., on May 14th, 1919. The many floral tokens evidenced the esteem in which Mr. Wilson was held by all who knew him. The floral offerings including wreaths, sprays and designs from the Town of Timmins, Golden Beaver A.F. & A.M., and large numbers of friends and associates. In addition to the bereaved widow one daughter, Oils, and four sons survived.

There was a large attendance twenty years ago at a meeting of the Timmins Ratepayers' Association, when there was a very extended discussion on the assessment and on tax collections here. Particular objection was taken to the plan of collecting income taxes. Married men whose families were elsewhere were assessed on the same basis as single men or non-householders. It was pointed out to the members of the council present and to the assessor that this was not according to law. The law gave the same exception to the heads of families that it did to householders in the municipality. Some of those present pointed out that they could not move their families here because of the lack of high school facilities and that they could not afford the imposition of the assessor's wrongful interpretation of the law. There were some stormy passages but the assessor held to his reading of the law and the council supported him. This plan was carried on for years, but it is interesting to note that for some years past it has been admitted by all concerned that it was not according to law.

To show how little things have changed in some matters in twenty years reference may be made to an article on the front page of The Advance of May 14th, 1919. It was headed, "See that your name appears on the voters' list," and some parts of the article are worth noting. For instance, take the following sentences: "Last year there was much complaint and dissatisfaction regarding the fact that a number of names that should appear on voters' list failed to do so, and the parties concerned feel that they have been cheated out of a vote. The fault can be traced to the indifference or carelessness of the ratepayers themselves. There is time and opportunity given to every voter to see that it is there, and he should take the time and trouble to give the matter the necessary attention, or hold his peace about it."

The story of a pool game between two stars, Messrs. McCann and R. Cole, for a prize of $200, was told in The Advance twenty years ago. McCann won the $200. He gave Cole a lead of 100 in a 500-shot game. The contest created much interest and drew big crowds to the New Empire pool-rooms.

Announcement was made The Advance twenty years ago that the assessors' office would be open three nights a week for the accommodation of the public so that all who wished to consult the assessor's roll or secure any information might have better opportunity to do so at their leisure.

Mothers' Day was specially observed at the Timmins Presbyterian Church on May 11th, 1919. There was a large congregation present at both services. In the evening the Sunday School children occupied a place on the platform. The programme for the evening included songs by the children, with recitations by little Misses D. Harrington, Annie Scott, Iola Dorway, Ethel Alworth, Gladys Hughes and Edna Dusharme, and by Masters Wayne Slipp, Ernest Martin and Allan Scott. The message by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Parks, for the occasion might well be given as the emphasizing of the moral that service to others is the best honour that we give to our mothers," said The Advance in its report. "There were many beautiful floral tokens in evidence as symbols of respect and affection for Mother on this Mother's Day."

The Advance twenty years ago: "On Saturday evening a number of the leading citizens of the town gathered at the Hotel Goldfields for the purpose of giving expression to the regret felt at the expected departure of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mulhern from the camp and the general appreciation of the many fine qualities of these pioneer citizens.

On behalf of those present Dr. J. A. McInnis, mayor of Timmins, read an address to Mr. Mulhern and the latter was presented with a beautiful easy chair and a handsome study room rug. Though taken by surprise Mr. Mulhern made appropriate reply. A very pleasant evening was then enjoyed by the thirty or more present, old times in the camp being talked over and the early days reviewed. Refreshments were served and smokes enjoyed and a general happy evening passed. Mr. Mulhern is one of the pioneers of the Porcupine and has seen Timmins grow from a spot in the bush to the best town in the North Land, always anxious to do his part to help this progress along. He recently resigned as manager of the Hotel Goldfields and expects to leave this week for Gravenhurst, where he and Mrs. Mulhern will take up residence.

every driver on the roads of Canada will follow their example." Mr. Stewart added that the automotive industry in Canada was highly conscious and appreciative of His Majesty's keen interest and assistance in the promotion of safety, and stated that every manufacturer was hopeful that the Ontario campaign for safe driving as a tribute to the Royal visitors would succeed in minimizing the accident hazard at a time of extraordinary difficulty.

King's Car No Safer Than Any New Model

Motoring Safety Depends on Driving, Declares Auto Industry Official.

Toronto, May 23.—The cars provided for the use of Their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth during their Canadian tour are larger more luxurious and perhaps more comfortable than the new cars being sold to the public today—but surprisingly enough they are no safer.

This remarkable fact was stressed today by J. L. Stewart in voicing the appeal of the Canadian automotive industry for safe driving amid the congestion which is foreseen along the route of the Royal tour.

"Nobody would dare experiment with cars provided for Their Majesties," said Mr. Stewart, who is general manager of the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce. "The safety equipment used on the Royal cars is of the same type which is available on all new cars sold to the public; equipment and devices which have been proved in actual service."

"The modern stock car is a supremely safe vehicle," he continued, "which if properly driven creates little or no hazard. Accidents happen either because of a failure on the part of drivers to realize the power and speed they control or because of an exaggerated opinion of their driving ability or performance. The King's cars will be safe because they will be driven sanely and reasonably by men of experience who realize their responsibility. I hope

Announcement Made of Law Firm of McBrien and Bailey

New Member of Firm Has Had Wide Experience.

Announcement has been made of a new law firm in town under the name of McBrien and Bailey. Mr. McBrien has been a member of the firm of Jackson and McBrien since last September, but Mr. J. T. Jackson having definitely retired from the Timmins firm, taking up residence in British Columbia, Mr. McBrien and Mr. Bailey have entered partnership and will carry on the law practice under the name of McBrien and Bailey.

The new member of the firm, Mr. Frank H. Bailey, LL.B., who is a brother of Mrs. A. W. Young, of Timmins, has been in town since the beginning of the year and has made many friends here. He has had a wide general experience as well as a long and successful career in law. He was born in St. Mary's and taught school for a couple of years in Glengarry County prior to going West. In the West he graduated in law with the degree LL.B. from the University of Saskatchewan at Saskatoon. Following that he was in active practice in the city of Moosejaw until coming here in January. He holds a commission as major in the First K.O.R.C. (M.G.) and is still active and interested in military matters and particularly in the militia. He was recently called to the Ontario Bar.

Mr. J. R. McBrien, the other partner in the firm, is a son of the late Major-General Sir James H. McBrien, K.C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., who was widely known as former Chief of the General staff of the Canadian Army, and Commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Mr. J. R. McBrien spent four years with the R.C.M.P. on criminal work, and started the study of law while in that service, putting himself through the course and eventually being called to the New Brunswick Bar. Later he came to Ontario and was called to the Ontario Bar last September. He then entered the partnership of Jackson and McBrien, which is now replaced by the firm of McBrien and Bailey.

Windsor Daily Star: Dr. Edward A. Strecker, University of Pennsylvania psychiatrist, says world civilization faces extinction. However, in view of the fact that it has been facing extinction since Apple Day in the Garden of Eden, world civilization on the whole hasn't been doing so badly.
